FOREWORD

« In conspectu angelorum psallam tibi. »
In the presence of the angels I will sing your praise.
Psalm 137 : 1

Recalling the words of the psalmist cited above, St. Benedict reminds his monks, after laying out the schema for the praying of the Psalms, of the privilege that is ours in performing the Work of God, the Opus Dei. He says further : " Let us consider, then, how we ought to behave in the presence of God and his angels, and let us stand to sing the Psalms in such a way that our minds are in harmony with our voices " (RB 68 : 6-7).

With regard to the celebration of the Hours of the Divine Office, we are further advised :

> In its cultivation of the dialogue between God and man, monastic tradition gives first place to the art of music. Music is not to be be thought of as one element among the many means of expressing or symbolizing this prayer, an extrinsic element added to prayer, but rather as an integral part of divine worship which is of great efficacy. . . . by means of music the response to the word of God ' springs from the depths of a person who prays and praises God ' [IGLH, 270] (Directory, no. 6).
> At least three Hours are to be celebrated daily ; it is further recommended that the community should assemble four or five times a day for liturgical prayer (Norm 5 [a]).
> Whether the traditional number of Hours in the Work of God is retained or reduced, the norm laid down by the Second Vatican Council and repeated in the General Instruction on the Liturgy of the Hours (SC 89 ; IGLH 37) is always to be regarded as valid, namely : ' By the venerable tradition of the universal Church, Lauds as morning prayer and Vespers as evening prayer are the two hinges on which the daily Office turns. They must be regarded as the principal Hours, and are to be celebrated as such ' . . . . While these are indeed the two principal Hours, in monastic tradition Vigils are also of great importance, because of the eschatological meaning given to this Office (Directory, no. 26).

With the preparation of these volumes of the Divine Office, we seek to respond more faithfully to the urgings of our Holy Father Benedict, the directives of the Thesaurus Liturgiae Horarum Monasticae (1977) in the praying of the Psalter and the structure of the Liturgical Hours, and the suggestion of the Visitation Report of 1998 to consider revision of our Office and its texts. Given our active apostolates and general monastic observance, there is a need to make some modifications to the structure of the Office while, at the same time, striving to adhere to the directives more faithfully.

As monks, it is our duty and obligation, our privilege and delight, to seek God prayerfully in community and the daily celebration of the Work of God. It is hoped that as we lift our minds and hearts to God in prayer, in Psalm and song, that we might be one in mind and heart, growing to be ever more like the One we praise. With the angels and all the saints may our voices be united in songs of love and praise to the greater honor and glory of God—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. May the God, whose praises are sung and in whose honor these volumes have been prepared, lead us on the path to holiness and to Himself.

Week I

I Nocturn

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

O Lord, * your strength gives joy to the king. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Advent :

Behold, * the King shall come, the Most High, / with great power to save the nations, alleluia.

Lent :

The king * has put his trust in the Lord : / through the mercy of the Most High he shall stand firm.

Passiontide :

Before the feast * of the Passover / Jesus knew that his hour had come ; / he had always loved those who were his own, / and now he would show them the depth of his love.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * the stone has been rolled away, alleluia, / from the entrance of the tomb, / alleluia, alleluia.

The Psalms of the Nocturn are chanted under this one Antiphon.

Psalm 20

Thanksgiving for the king's victory

He accepted life that he might rise and live for ever (Saint Hilary).

O Lord, your strength gives joy to the king ; * † how your saving help makes him glad !

You have granted him his heart's desire ; * you have not refused the prayer of his lips.

You came to meet him with the blessings of success, * you have set on his head a crown of pure gold.

He asked you for life and this you have given, * days that will last from age to age.

Your saving help has given him glory. * You have laid upon him majesty and splendor, you have granted your blessings to him for ever. * You have made him rejoice with the joy of your presence.

The king has put his trust in the Lord : * through the mercy of the Most High he shall stand firm.

His hand will seek and find all his foes, * his right hand find out those that hate him.

You will burn them like a blazing furnace * on the day when you appear.

And the Lord shall destroy them in his anger ; * fire will swallow them up.

You will wipe out their race from the earth * and their children from the sons of men.

Though they plan evil against you, * though they plot, they shall not prevail.

For you will force them to retreat ; * at them you will aim with your bow.

O Lord, arise in your strength ; * we shall sing and praise your power.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

During Paschaltide, the next Psalm follows immediately.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

All families * of nations will worship before the Lord.

Advent :

Strengthen * the hands that are weak. / Be strong and say : / Behold, our God will come and save us, alleluia.

Lent :

Do not leave me alone * in my distress ; / come close, there is none else to help.

Passiontide :

For to me * to live is Christ, and to die is gain. / Far be it from me to glory / except in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Psalm 21

God hears the suffering of his Holy One

Jesus cried with a loud voice : My God, my God, why have you forsaken me ? (Matthew 27 : 46).

MY God, my God, why have you forsaken me ? * You are far from my plea and the cry of my distress.

O my God, I call by day and you give no reply ; * I call by night and I find no peace.

Yet you, O God, are holy, * enthroned on the praises of Israel.

In you our fathers put their trust ; * they trusted and you set them free.

When they cried to you, they escaped. * In you they trusted and never in vain.

But I am a worm and no man, * the butt of men, laughing-stock of the people.

All who see me deride me. * They curl their lips, they toss their heads.

" He trusted in the Lord, let him save him ; * let him release him if this is his friend. "

Yes, it was you who took me from the womb, * entrusted me to my mother's breast.

To you I was committed from my birth, * from my mother's womb you have been my God.

Do not leave me alone in my distress ; * come close, there is none else to help.

Many bulls have surrounded me, * fierce bulls of Bashan close me in.

Against me they open wide their jaws, * like lions, rending and roaring.

Like water I am poured out, * disjointed are all my bones.

My heart has become like wax, * it is melted within my breast.

Parched as burnt clay is my throat, * my tongue cleaves to my jaws.

Many dogs have surrounded me, * a band of the wicked beset me.

They tear holes in my hands and my feet * and lay me in the dust of death.

I can count every one of my bones. * These people stare at me and gloat ;

they divide my clothing among them. * They cast lots for my robe.

O Lord, do not leave me alone, * my strength, make haste to help me !

Rescue my soul from the sword, * my life from the grip of these dogs.

Save my life from the jaws of these lions, * my poor soul from the horns of these oxen.

I will tell of your name to my brethren * and praise you where they are assembled.

" You who fear the Lord give him praise ; † all sons of Jacob, give him glory. * Revere him, Israel's sons.

For he has never despised * nor scorned the poverty of the poor.

From him he has not hidden his face, * but he heard the poor man when he cried. "

You are my praise in the great assembly. * My vows I will pay before those who fear him.

The poor shall eat and shall have their fill. † They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him. * May their hearts live for ever and ever !

All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord, * all families of the nations worship before him for the kingdom is the Lord's ; * he is ruler of the nations.

They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth ; * before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

And my soul shall live for him, * my children serve him.

They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come, † declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn : * " These things the Lord has done. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

During Paschaltide, the next Psalm follows immediately.

Week I

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The Lord * is my shepherd, / there is nothing I shall want. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

℣. I think of your name in the night-time.
℟. And I keep your law.

First Reading, 16.

Advent :

Rejoice, * all of you, and be glad ; / for here is the Lord coming with vindication, / he will bring a recompense ; / he will come and save us, alleluia.

℣. Out of Sion in the loveliness of his beauty.
℟. Our God will come, / he will keep silence no longer.

Lent :

Though I should walk * in the valley of the shadow of death, / no evil would I fear, / for you are there.

℣. Man does not live by bread alone.
℟. But by every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Passiontide :

I know my own sheep, * and my own know me, / as the Father knows me and as I know the Father ; / I lay down my life for my sheep.

℣. When I am lifted up from the earth.
℟. I will draw all things to myself.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, the stone has been rolled away, alleluia, / from the entrance of the tomb, / alleluia, alleluia.

℣. The Lord is risen from the tomb, alleluia.
℟. Who hung for us upon the Tree, alleluia.

Psalm 22

The Good Shepherd

The Lamb himself will be their shepherd and will lead them to the springs of living water (Apocalypse 7 : 17).

THE Lord is my shepherd ; * there is nothing I shall want.

† Fresh and green are the pastures * where he gives me repose.

Near restful waters he leads me, * to revive my drooping spirit.

He guides me along the right path ; * he is true to his name.

If I should walk in the valley of darkness * no evil would I fear.

You are there with your crook and your staff ; * with these you give me comfort.

You have prepared a banquet for me * in the sight of my foes.

My head you have anointed with oil ; * my cup is overflowing.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me * all the days of my life.

In the Lord's own house shall I dwell * for ever and ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

First Reading

Through the Year

Responsory Psalm 102 : 2. 4 ; Galatians 2 : 20

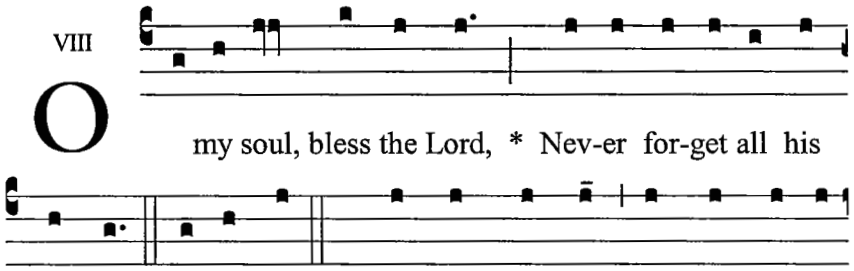
VIII



II Nocturn, 17.

II Nocturn

Through the Year

Ant. With all my heart * I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

Canticle Isaiah 33 : 2-10

Prayer of trust in need

In Christ are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge (Colossians 2 : 3).

O Lord, be gracious to us ; we wait for you. † Be our strong arm every morning, * our salvation in the time of trouble.

At the voice of the Angel the peoples flee, * at the lifting up of yourself nations are scattered ;

and spoil is gathered as the caterpillar gathers ; * as locusts leap, men leap upon it.

The Lord is exalted, for he dwells on high ; * he will fill Sion with justice and righteousness ;

and he will be the stability of your times, † abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge ; * the fear of the Lord is his treasure.

Behold, the valiant ones cry without ; * the angels of peace weep bitterly.

The highways lie waste, * the wayfaring man ceases.

Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised, * there is no regard for man.

The land mourns and languishes ; * Lebanon is confounded and withers away ;

Sharon is like a desert ; * and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.

Now I will arise, says the Lord, * now I will lift myself up ; now I will be exalted.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. With all my heart I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

℣. O Lord, arise in your strength.
℟. We shall sing and praise your power.

Second Reading, 21.

During Advent

Ant. The angel Gabriel * spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

Canticle Isaiah 40 : 10-17

The Good Shepherd : God most high and most wise

Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense to repay everyone for what he has done (Apocalypse 22 : 12).

BEhold, the Lord God comes with might, * and his arm rules for him ;

Behold, his reward is with him, * and his recompense before him.

He will feed his flock like a shepherd, * he will gather the lambs in his arms, he will carry them in his bosom, * and gently lead those that are with young.

Who has measured the waters * in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, * enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure and weighed the mountains in scales * and the hills in a balance ?

Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, * or as his counselor has instructed him ?

Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, * and who taught him the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, * and showed him the way of understanding ?

Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket, * and are accounted as the dust on the scales ;

behold, he takes up the isles like fine dust, † Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, * nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering.

All the nations are as nothing before him, * they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. The angel Gabriel spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

℣. The Lord will come forth from his holy place.
℟. He will come to save his people.

During Lent

Ant. Turn us back * to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

Canticle Jeremiah 14 : 17-21

The lament of the people in time of war and famine

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand ; repent, and believe in the Gospel (Mark 1 : 15).

LET my eyes run down with tears night and day, * and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter of my people is smitten with a great wound * with a very grievous blow.

If I go out into the field, * behold, those slain by the sword !

And if I enter the city, * behold, the diseases of famine !

For both prophet and priest ply their trade through the land, * and have no knowledge.

Have you utterly rejected Judah ? * Does your soul loathe Sion ?

Why have you smitten us * so that there is no healing for us ?

We looked for peace, * but no good came ;

for a time of healing ; * but behold, terror.

We acknowledge our wickedness, O Lord, † and the iniquity of our fathers, * for we have sinned against you.

Do not spurn us for your name's sake , † do not dishonor your glorious throne ; * remember and do not break your covenant with us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. Turn us back to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

Lent :

℣. You shall adore the Lord your God.
℟. Him only shall you serve.

Passiontide :

℣. Let us venerate the sign of the Cross.
℟. Through it we have received the sacrament of salvation.

During Paschaltide

Ant. Come, * let us adore the One who rose from the dead. / Through the Cross joy came into the world, alleluia.

Canticle Isaiah 63 : 1-5

The Lord alone has triumphed over the enemy

And they have conquered him by the Blood of the Lamb (Apocalypse 12 : 11).

WHO is this that comes from Edom, * in crimson garments from Bozrah, he that is glorious in his apparel, * marching in the greatness of his strength ?

" It is I, announcing vindication, * mighty to save. "

Why is your apparel red, * and your garments like his that treads in the wine press ?

" I have trodden the wine press alone, * and from the peoples no one was with me ;

I trod them in my anger * and trampled them in my wrath ;

their lifeblood is sprinkled upon my garments, * and I have stained all my raiment.

For the day of vengeance was in my heart, * and my year of redemption has come.

I looked, but there was no one to help ; * I was appalled, but there was no one to uphold ;

so my own arm brought me victory, * and my wrath upheld me. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. Come, let us adore the One who rose from the dead. / Through the Cross joy came into the world, alleluia.

℣. Christ, having risen from the dead, dies now no more, alleluia.

℟. Death shall no longer have dominion over him, alleluia.

Second Reading

Through the Year

Responsory John 10 : 14. 15. 10

Te Deum, 22.

After the Responsory on Sundays and Feasts is said :

Ambrosian Hymn

Te Deum laudamus.

WE praise you, O God, * we acknowledge you to be the Lord.

All the world worships you, * the Father everlasting.

To you all the angels cry aloud, * the heavens and all the powers therein :

To you the Cherubim and Seraphim * continually do cry :

Holy,

Holy,

Holy * Lord God of Hosts.

Heaven and earth are full * of the majesty of your glory.

The glorious choir of the Apostles * praises you.

The admirable company of the Prophets * praises you.

The white-robed army of Martyrs * praises you.

Your holy Church throughout the world * acknowledges you :

The Father * of infinite majesty ;

Your true, and only Son, * who is to be adored ;

And the Holy Spirit, * the Comforter.

You are the King of glory, O Christ. * You are the everlasting Son of the Father.

When you took human nature to deliver man, * you did not disdain the Virgin's womb.

When you had overcome the sting of death, * you opened to believers the kingdom of heaven.

You are seated at the right hand of God, * in the glory of the Father.

We believe that you will come * to be our Judge.

The following verse is said kneeling :

We beseech you, therefore, help your servants, * whom you have redeemed with your precious Blood.

Make them to be numbered with your Saints * in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save your people, * and bless your inheritance.

Govern them, * and exalt them forever.

Day by day we bless you ; * and we praise your name forever and ever.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day * to keep us without sin.

Have mercy on us, O Lord, * have mercy on us.

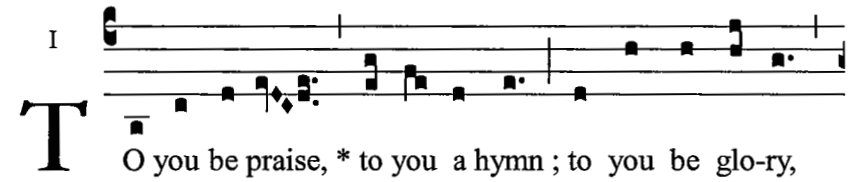
Let your mercy be upon us, O Lord, * as we have hoped in you.

O Lord, in you I have hoped, * let me not be confounded forever.

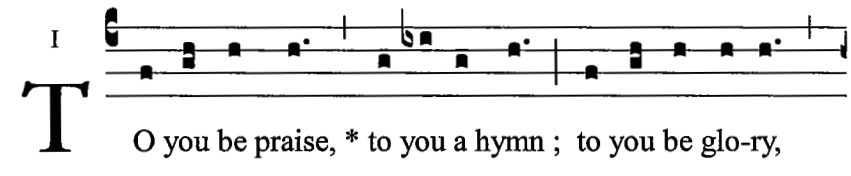
Holy Gospel

After the Gospel

Te decet laus



Or :



Conclusion

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Prayer from the Proper, or the following may be said :

Let us pray. Prayer

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of our enemy, * grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

Lauds follows immediately, beginning with the Versicle O God, come to my assistance.

When Matins is separated from Lauds, conclusion as follows :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Benedicamus Domino

L ET us bless the Lord. ℟. Thanks be to God.

℣. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

℟. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance remain always with us.

℟. And with our absent brethren. Amen.

SUNDAY I AT LAUDS

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

To you, O God, * I keep vigil at dawn, / to look upon your power, alleluia.

Advent :

On that day * the mountains shall drop down sweetness, / and the hills shall flow with milk and honey, alleluia.

Lent :

But when Jesus * had fasted forty days and forty nights, / afterwards he was hungry.

Passiontide :

O Lord, * you have pleaded the cause of my soul, / O Lord, my God, defender of my life.

Paschaltide :

My lips * will speak your praise, O God ; / so I will bless you all my life, alleluia.

Psalm 62
A soul thirsting for God

Let the man who has put away the deeds of the night watch for God

O God, you are my God, for you I long ; * for you my soul is thirsting.

My body pines for you * like a dry, weary land without water.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary * to see your strength and your glory.

For your love is better than life, * my lips will speak your praise.

So I will bless you all my life, * in your name I will lift up my hands.

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, * my mouth shall praise you with joy.

On my bed I remember you. * On you I muse through the night for you have been my help ; * in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

My soul clings to you ; * your right hand holds me fast.

Those who seek to destroy my life * shall go down to the depths of the earth.

They shall be put into the power of the sword * and left as the prey of the jackals.

But the king shall rejoice in God ; † all that swear by him shall be blest, * for the mouth of liars shall be silenced.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The three children * at the king's command were cast into the furnace, / fearing not the flame of fire, but saying : / Blessèd be God, alleluia.

Advent :

All you that thirst, * come to the waters ; / seek the Lord while he may be found, alleluia.

Lent :

Not by bread alone * does man live, / but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Passiontide :

My people, * what have I done unto you ? / Or in what have I offended you ? / Answer me.

Paschaltide :

Worship the Lord * who made the heavens and the earth, / the springs of water and the mighty sea, alleluia.

Canticle Daniel 3: 57-88. 56

Let all creatures praise the Lord

All you servants of the Lord, sing praise to him (Apocalypse 19: 5).

BLESS the Lord, all you works of the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Angels of the Lord, bless the Lord. * You heavens, bless the Lord.

All you waters above the heavens, bless the Lord. * All you hosts of the Lord, bless the Lord.

Sun and moon, bless the Lord. * Stars of heaven, bless the Lord.

Every shower and dew, bless the Lord. * All you winds, bless the Lord.

Fire and heat, bless the Lord. * Cold and chill, bless the Lord.

Dew and rain, bless the Lord. * Frost and chill, bless the Lord.

Ice and snow, bless the Lord. * Nights and days, bless the Lord.

Light and darkness, bless the Lord. * Lightnings and clouds, bless the Lord.

Let the earth bless the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Mountains and hills, bless the Lord. * Everything growing from the earth, bless the Lord.

You springs, bless the Lord. * Seas and rivers, bless the Lord.

You dolphins and all water creatures, bless the Lord. * All you birds of the air, bless the Lord.

All you beasts, wild and tame, bless the Lord. * You sons of men, bless the Lord.

O Israel, bless the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Priests of the Lord, bless the Lord. * Servants of the Lord, bless the Lord.

Spirits and souls of the just, bless the Lord. * Holy men of humble heart, bless the Lord.

Hananiah, Azariah, Mishael, bless the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Let us bless the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. * Let us praise and exalt him above all forever.

Blest are you, Lord, in the firmament of heaven. * Praiseworthy and glorious and exalted above all forever.

After this Canticle, the Glory be is not said.
The Antiphon is repeated.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Let everything * that lives and that breathes / give praise to the Lord, alleluia.

Advent :

Behold, there shall come * a great prophet ; / and he shall renew Jerusalem, alleluia.

Lent :

The Lord your God * shall you adore, / and him only shall you serve.

Passiontide :

Shall evil * be rendered for good, / because they have dug a pit for my soul ?

Paschaltide :

He has rescued us * from the power of darkness / and brought us into the kingdom of his belovèd Son, alleluia.

Psalm 150

Praise the Lord

Let mind and heart be in your song : this is to glorify God with your whole self (Hesychius).

PRAISE God in his holy place, * praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, * praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, * praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, * praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes * give praise to the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Reading

Through the Year Apocalypse 7 : 10. 12

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1 : 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Praise is fitting * for loyal hearts.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 32

Song of praise for God's continual care

All things were made through him (John 1 : 6).

RING out your joy to the Lord, O you just ; * for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.

Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp, * with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs.

O sing him a song that is new, * play loudly, with all your skill.

For the word of the Lord is faithful * and all his works to be trusted.

The Lord loves justice and right * and fills the earth with his love.

By his word the heavens were made, * by the breath of his mouth all the stars.

He collects the waves of the ocean ; * he stores up the depths of the sea.

Let all the earth fear the Lord, * all who live in the world revere him.

He spoke ; and it came to be. * He commanded ; it sprang into being.

He frustrates the designs of the nations, * he defeats the plans of the peoples.

His own designs shall stand forever, * the plans of his heart from age to age.

They are happy, whose God is the Lord, * the people he has chosen as his own.

From the heavens the Lord looks forth, * he sees all the children of men.

From the place where he dwells he gazes * on all the dwellers on the earth, he who shapes the hearts of them all * and considers all their deeds.

A king is not saved by his army, * nor a warrior preserved by his strength.

A vain hope for safety is the horse ; * despite its power it cannot save.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, * on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, * to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. * The Lord is our help and our shield.

In him do our hearts find joy. * We trust in his holy name.

May your love be upon us, O Lord, * as we place all our hope in you.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The angel of the Lord * is encamped / around those who revere him to rescue them.

Psalm 33

God the Savior of the just

You have tasted the goodness of the Lord (1 Peter 2 : 3).

I will bless the Lord at all times, * his praise always on my lips ;

in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. * The humble shall hear and be glad.

Glorify the Lord with me. * Together let us praise his name.

I sought the Lord and he answered me ; * from all my terrors he set me free.

Look towards him and be radiant ; * let your faces not be abashed.

This poor man called ; the Lord heard him * and rescued him from all his distress.

The angel of the Lord is encamped * around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good. * He is happy who seeks refuge in him.

Revere the Lord, you his saints. * They lack nothing, those who revere him.

Strong lions suffer want and go hungry * but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Come, children, and hear me * that I may teach you the fear of the Lord.

Who is he who longs for life * and many days, to enjoy his prosperity ?

Then keep your tongue from evil * and your lips from speaking deceit.

Turn aside from evil and do good ; * seek and strive after peace.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked * to destroy their remembrance from the earth.

The Lord turns his eyes to the just * and his ears to their appeal.

They call and the Lord hears * and rescues them in all their distress.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted ; * those whose spirit is crushed he will save.

Many are the trials of the just man * but from them all the Lord will rescue him.

He will keep guard over all his bones, * not one of his bones shall be broken.

Evil brings death to the wicked ; * those who hate the good are doomed.

The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. * Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Arise, O Lord * to help me.

Psalm 34

The Lord as Savior in time of persecution

They came together . . . and laid their plans to capture Jesus by treachery and put him to death (Matthew 26 : 3-4).

O Lord, plead my cause against my foes ; * fight those who fight me.

Take up your buckler and shield ; * arise to help me.

Take up the javelin and the spear * against those who pursue me.

O Lord, say to my soul : * " I am your salvation. "

Let those who seek my life * be shamed and disgraced.

Let those who plan evil against me * be routed in confusion.

Let them be like chaff before the wind ; * let God's angel scatter them.

Let their path be slippery and dark ; * let God's angel pursue them.

They have hidden a net for me wantonly ; * they have dug a pit.

Let ruin fall upon them * and take them by surprise.

Let them be caught in the net they have hidden ; * let them fall into their pit.

But my soul shall be joyful in the Lord * and rejoice in his salvation.

My whole being will say : * " Lord, who is like you who rescue the weak from the strong * and the poor from the oppressor ? "

Lying witnesses arise * and accuse me unjustly.

They repay me evil for good ; * my soul is forlorn.

When they were sick I went into mourning, * afflicted with fasting.

My prayer was ever on my lips, * as for a brother, a friend.

I went as though mourning a mother, * bowed down with grief.

Now that I am in trouble they gather, * they gather and mock me.

They take me by surprise and strike me * and tear me to pieces.

They provoke me with mockery on mockery * and gnash their teeth.

O Lord, how long will you look on ? * Come to my rescue !

Save my life from these raging beasts, * my soul from these lions.

I will thank you in the great assembly, * amid the throng I will praise you.

Do not let my lying foes * rejoice over me.

Do not let those who hate me unjustly * wink eyes at each other.

They wish no peace to the peaceful * who live in the land.

They make deceitful plots * and with mouths wide open their cry against me is : * " Yes ! We saw you do it ! "

O Lord, you have seen, do not be silent, * do not stand afar off !

Awake, stir to my defense, * to my cause, O God !

Vindicate me, Lord, in your justice, * do not let them rejoice.

Do not let them think : † " Yes, we have won, * we have brought him to an end ! "

Let them be shamed and brought to disgrace * who rejoice at my misfortune.

Let them be covered with shame and confusion * who raise themselves against me.

Let there be joy for those who love my cause. * Let them say without end :

" Great is the Lord who delights * in the peace of his servant. "

Then my tongue shall speak of your justice, * and all day long of your praise.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

But I through the greatness of your love * have access to your house.

I bow down before your holy temple, * filled with awe.

Lead me, Lord, in your justice, † because of those who lie in wait ; * make clear your way before me.

No truth can be found in their mouths, * their heart is all mischief, their throat a wide-open grave, * all honey their speech.

Declare them guilty, O God. * Let them fail in their designs.

Drive them out for their many offenses ; * for they have defied you.

All those you protect shall be glad * and ring out their joy.

You shelter them ; in you they rejoice, * those who love your name.

It is you who bless the just man, Lord : * you surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 45

God our refuge and strength

He shall be called Emmanuel, which means : God-with-us (Matthew 1 : 23).

GOD is for us a refuge and strength, * a helper close at hand, in time of distress :

so we shall not fear though the earth should rock, * though the mountains fall into the depths of the sea, even though its waters rage and foam, * even though the mountains be shaken by its waves.

The Lord of hosts is with us : * the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

The waters of a river give joy to God's city, * the holy place where the Most High dwells.

God is within, it cannot be shaken ; * God will help it at the dawning of the day.

Nations are in tumult, kingdoms are shaken : * he lifts his voice, the earth shrinks away.

The Lord of hosts is with us : * the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Come, consider the works of the Lord, * the redoubtable deeds he has done on the earth.

He puts an end to wars over all the earth ; † the bow he breaks, the spear he snaps. * He burns the shields with fire.

" Be still and know that I am God, * supreme among the nations, supreme on the earth ! "

The Lord of hosts is with us : * the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

ALL peoples, clap your hands, * cry to God with shouts of joy !

For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, * great king over all the earth.

He subdues peoples under us * and nations under our feet.

Our inheritance, our glory, is from him, * given to Jacob out of love.

God goes up with shouts of joy ; * the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.

Sing praise for God, sing praise, * sing praise to our king, sing praise.

God is king of all the earth, * sing praise with all your skill.

God is king over the nations ; * God reigns on his holy throne.

The princes of the peoples are assembled * with the people of Abraham's God.

The rulers of the earth belong to God, * to God who reigns over all.

Thanksgiving for the people's deliverance

He took me up a high mountain and showed me Jerusalem, God's holy city (Apocalypse 21 : 10).

THE Lord is great and worthy to be praised * † in the city of our God.

His holy mountain rises in beauty, * the joy of all the earth.

Mount Sion, true pole of the earth, * the Great King's city !

God, in the midst of its citadels, * has shown himself its stronghold.

For the kings assembled together, * together they advanced.

They saw ; at once they were astounded ; * dismayed, they fled in fear.

A trembling seized them there, * like the pangs of birth.

By the east wind you have destroyed * the ships of Tarshish.

As we have heard, so we have seen * in the city of our God, in the city of the Lord of hosts * which God upholds for ever.

O God, we ponder your love * within your temple.

Your praise, O God, like your name * reaches the ends of the earth.

With justice your right hand is filled. * Mount Sion rejoices ;

the people of Judah rejoice * at the sight of your judgments.

Walk through Sion, walk all round it ; * count the number of its towers.

Review all its ramparts, * examine its castles, that you may tell the next generation * that such is our God, our God for ever and always. * It is he who leads us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 42

Longing for the Temple

I have come into the world to be its light (John 12 : 46).

DEfend me, O God, and plead my cause * against a godless nation.

From deceitful and cunning men * rescue me, O God.

Since you, O God, are my stronghold, * why have you rejected me ?

Why do I go mourning * oppressed by the foe ?

O send forth your light and your truth ; * let these be my guide.

Let them bring me to your holy mountain, * to the place where you dwell.

And I will come to the altar of God, * the God of my joy.

My redeemer, I will thank you on the harp, * O God, my God.

Why are you cast down, my soul, * why groan within me ?

Hope in God ; I will praise him still, * my savior and my God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Canticle Tobit 13 : 1-8

God afflicts but only to heal

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great love for us has brought us to a new birth (1 Peter 1 : 3).

BLessèd be God who lives forever, * because his kingdom lasts for all ages.

For he scourges and then has mercy ; * he casts down to the depths of the nether world, and he brings up from the great abyss. * No one can escape his hand.

Praise him, you Israelites, before the Gentiles, † for though he has scattered you among them, * he has shown you his greatness even there.

Exalt him before every living being, † because he is the Lord our God, * our Father and God forever.

He scourged you for your iniquities, * but will again have mercy on you all.

He will gather you from all the Gentiles * among whom you have been scattered.

When you turn back to him with all your heart, * to do what is right before him, then he will turn back to you, * and no longer hide his face from you.

So now consider what he has done for you, * and praise him with full voice.

Bless the Lord of righteousness, * and exalt the King of the ages.

In the land of my exile I praise him, * and show his power and majesty to a sinful nation.

Turn back, you sinners ! * do the right before him :

perhaps he may look with favor upon you * and show you mercy.

As for me, I exalt my God, * and my spirit rejoices in the King of heaven.

Let all men speak of his majesty, * and sing his praises in Jerusalem.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Praise the eternal King in all your deeds.

Paschaltide :

Keep this day, as a festival day / and give praise to the Lord, alleluia.

3 Antiphon

Psalm 149

The joy of God's holy people

Let the sons of the Church, the children of the new people, rejoice in Christ, their King (Hesychius).

SING a new song to the Lord, * his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker, * let Sion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing * and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. * He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, * shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips * and a two-edged sword in their hand, to deal out vengeance to the nations * and punishment on all the peoples ;

to bind their kings in chains * and their nobles in fetters of iron ;

to carry out the sentence pre-ordained : * this honor is for all his faithful.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

All you his angels, praise the Lord from the heavens.

Paschaltide :

Through the Year :

Give us help, O Lord, * in time of trouble.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 59
Prayer after disaster

You will suffer in the world, but have confidence : I have overcome the world (John 1 : 6).

O God, you have rejected us and broken us. * You have been angry ; come back to us.

You have made the earth quake, torn it open. * Repair what is shattered for it sways.

You have inflicted hardships on your people * and made us drink a wine that dazed us.

You have given those who fear you a signal * to flee from the enemy's bow.

O come and deliver your friends, * help with your right hand and reply.

From his holy place God has made this promise ; † " I will triumph and divide the land of Shechem, * I will measure out the valley of Succoth.

Gilead is mine and Manasseh, † Ephraim I take for my helmet, * Judah for my commander's staff.

Moab I will use for my washbowl ; † on Edom I will plant my shoe. * Over the Philistines I will shout in triumph. "

But who will lead me to conquer the fortress ? * Who will bring me face to face with Edom ?

Will you utterly reject us, O God, * and no longer march with our armies ?

Give us help against the foe : * for the help of man is vain.

With God we shall do bravely * and he will trample down our foes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

When my heart grew faint, * you set me high upon a rock.

Psalm 60

Prayer of an exile

The prayer of the just man who places his hope in the things of heaven (Saint Hilary).

O God, hear my cry ! * Listen to my prayer !

From the end of the earth I call ; * my heart is faint.

On the rock too high for me to reach * set me on high,

O you who have been my refuge, * my tower against the foe.

Let me dwell in your tent for ever * and hide in the shelter of your wings.

For you, O God, hear my prayer, * grant me the heritage of those who fear you.

May you lengthen the life of the king : * may his years cover many generations.

May he ever sit enthroned before God : * bid love and truth be his protection.

So I will always praise your name * and day after day fulfill my vows.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

In God alone * is my soul at rest. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Psalm 61

Peace in God

May God, the source of our hope, fill your hearts with peace as you believe in him (Romans 15 : 13).

IN God alone is my soul at rest ; * † my help comes from him.

He alone is my rock, my stronghold, * my fortress : I stand firm.

How long will you all attack one man * to break him down, as though he were a tottering wall, * or a tumbling fence?

Their plan is only to destroy : * they take pleasure in lies.

With their mouth they utter blessing * but in their heart they curse.

In God alone be at rest, my soul ; * for my hope comes from him.

He alone is my rock, my stronghold, * my fortress : I stand firm.

In God is my safety and glory, * the rock of my strength.

Take refuge in God, all you people. * Trust him at all times.

Pour out your hearts before him * for God is our refuge.

Common folk are only a breath, * great men an illusion.

Placed in the scales, they rise ; * they weigh less than a breath.

Do not put your trust in oppression * nor vain hopes on plunder.

Do not set your heart on riches * even when they increase.

For God has said only one thing : * only two do I know :

that to God alone belongs power * and to you, Lord, love ;

and that you repay each man * according to his deeds.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 63

Prayer for help against enemies

This Psalm commemorates most particularly our Lord's passion (Saint Augustine).

HEAR my voice, O God, as I complain, * guard my life from dread of the foe.

Hide me from the band of the wicked, * from the throng of those who do evil.

They sharpen their tongues like swords ; * they aim bitter words like arrows to shoot at the innocent from ambush, * shooting suddenly and recklessly.

They scheme their evil course ; * they conspire to lay secret snares.

They say : " Who will see us ? * Who can search out our crimes ? "

He will search who searches the mind * and knows the depths of the heart.

God has shot them with his arrow * and dealt them sudden wounds.

Their own tongue has brought them to ruin * and all who see them mock.

Then will all men fear ; † they will tell what God has done. * They will understand God's deeds.

The just will rejoice in the Lord † and fly to him for refuge. * All the upright hearts will glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 73

Lament for the destruction of the temple

Do not fear those who can only kill the body (Matthew 10 : 28).

WHY, O God, have you cast us off for ever ? * Why blaze with anger at the sheep of your pasture ?

Remember your people whom you chose long ago, † the tribe you redeemed to be your own possession, * the mountain of Sion where you made your dwelling.

Turn your steps to these places that are utterly ruined ! * The enemy has laid waste the whole of the sanctuary.

Your foes have made uproar in your house of prayer : † they have set up their emblems, their foreign emblems, * high above the entrance to the sanctuary.

Their axes have battered the wood of its doors. * They have struck together with hatchet and pickaxe.

O God, they have set your sanctuary on fire : * they have razed and profaned the place where you dwell.

They said in their hearts : " Let us utterly crush them : * let us burn every shrine of God in the land. "

There is no sign from God, nor have we a prophet, * we have no one to tell us how long it will last.

How long, O God, is the enemy to scoff ? * Is the foe to insult your name for ever ?

Why, O Lord, do you hold back your hand ? * Why do you keep your right hand hidden ?

Yet God is our king from time past, * the giver of help through all the land.

It was you who divided the sea by your might, * who shattered the heads of the monsters in the sea.

It was you who crushed Leviathan's heads * and gave him as food to the untamed beasts.

It was you who opened springs and torrents ; * it was you who dried up ever-flowing rivers.

Yours is the day and yours is the night. * It was you who appointed the light and the sun :

it was you who fixed the bounds of the earth : * you who made both summer and winter.

Remember this, Lord, and see the enemy scoffing ; * a senseless people insults your name.

Do not give Israel, your dove, to the hawk * nor forget the life of your poor ones for ever.

Remember your covenant ; † every cave in the land * is a place where violence makes its home.

Do not let the oppressed return disappointed ; * let the poor and the needy bless your name.

Arise, O God, and defend your cause ! * Remember how the senseless revile you all the day.

Do not forget the clamor of your foes, * the daily increasing uproar of your foes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

We call * upon your name, O Lord.

Psalm 74
The Lord, the ruler over all

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly (Luke 1 : 52).

WE give thanks to you, O God, † we give thanks and call upon your name. * We recount your wonderful deeds.

"When I reach the appointed time, * then I will judge with justice.

Though the earth and all who dwell in it may rock, * it is I who uphold its pillars.

To the boastful I say : ' Do not boast, ' * to the wicked : ' Do not flaunt your strength, do not flaunt your strength on high. * Do not speak with insolent pride. ' "

For neither from the east nor from the west, * nor from desert or mountains comes judgment, but God himself is the judge. * One he humbles, another he exalts.

The Lord holds a cup in his hand, * full of wine, foaming and spiced.

He pours it ; they drink it to the dregs : * all the wicked on the earth must drain it.

As for me, I will rejoice for ever * and sing psalms to Jacob's God.

He shall break the power of the wicked, * while the strength of the just shall be exalted.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Your ways * O God, are holy. / What God is great as our God ?

Psalm 76
Recalling God's works

We suffer all kinds of afflictions, and yet are not overcome (2 Corinthians 4 : 8).

I cry aloud to God, † cry aloud to God that he may hear me. * In the day of my distress I sought the Lord.

My hands were raised at night without ceasing ; * my soul refused to be consoled.

I remembered my God and I groaned. * I pondered and my spirit fainted.

You withheld sleep from my eyes. * I was troubled, I could not speak.

I thought of the days of long ago * and remembered the years long past.

At night I mused within my heart. * I pondered and my spirit questioned.

" Will the Lord reject us for ever ? * Will he show us his favor no more ?

Has his love vanished for ever ? * Has his promise come to an end ?

Does God forget his mercy * or in anger withhold his compassion ? "

I said : " This is what causes my grief ; * that the way of the Most High has changed. "

I remember the deeds of the Lord, * I remember your wonders of old,

I muse on all your works * and ponder your mighty deeds.

Your ways, O God, are holy. * What god is great as our God ?

You are the God who works wonders. * You showed your power among the peoples.

Your strong arm redeemed your people, * the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

The waters saw you, O God, † the waters saw you and trembled ; * the depths were moved with terror.

The clouds poured down rain, † the skies sent forth their voice ; * your arrows flashed to and fro.

Your thunder rolled round the sky, * your flashes lighted up the world.

The earth was moved and trembled * when your way led through the sea, your path through the mighty waters * and no one saw your footprints.

You guided your people like a flock * by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 87
Prayer of a man who is gravely ill

This is your moment—when darkness reigns (Luke 22 : 53).

LORD my God, I call for help by day ; * I cry at night before you.

Let my prayer come into your presence. * O turn your ear to my cry.

For my soul is filled with evils ; * my life is on the brink of the grave.

I am reckoned as one in the tomb : * I have reached the end of my strength, like one alone among the dead ; * like the slain lying in their graves ;

like those you remember no more, * cut off, as they are, from your hand.

You have laid me in the depths of the tomb, * in places that are dark, in the depths.

Your anger weighs down upon me : * I am drowned beneath your waves.

You have taken away my friends * and made me hateful in their sight.

Imprisoned, I cannot escape ; * my eyes are sunken with grief.

I call to you, Lord, all the day long ; * to you I stretch out my hands.

Will you work your wonders for the dead ? * Will the shades stand and praise you ?

Will your love be told in the grave * or your faithfulness among the dead ?

Will your wonders be known in the dark * or your justice in the land of oblivion ?

As for me, Lord, I call to you for help : * in the morning my prayer comes before you.

Lord, why do you reject me ? * Why do you hide your face ?

Wretched, close to death from my youth, * I have borne your trials ; I am numb.

Your fury has swept down upon me ; * your terrors have utterly destroyed me.

They surround me all the day like a flood, * they assail me all together.

Friend and neighbor you have taken away : * my one companion is darkness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Canticle Jeremiah 31 : 10 -14

The happiness of a people who have been redeemed

Jesus was to die . . . to gather God's scattered children into one fold (John 11 : 51. 52).

HEAR the word of the Lord, O nations, * proclaim it on distant coasts, and say :

He who scattered Israel, now gathers them together, * he guards them as a shepherd his flock.

The Lord shall ransom Jacob, * he shall redeem him from the hand of his conqueror.

Shouting, they shall mount the heights of Sion, * they shall come streaming to the Lord's blessings :

the grain, the wine, and the oil, * the sheep and the oxen ;

they themselves shall be like watered gardens, * never again shall they languish.

Then the virgins shall make merry and dance, * and young men and old as well.

I will turn their mourning into joy, * I will console and gladden them after their sorrows.

I will lavish choice portions upon the priests, * and my people shall be filled with my blessings, says the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Praise to the Lord, the Creator

Praise and honor, glory and power for ever to him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb (Apocaplypse 5 : 13).

PRAISE the Lord from the heavens, * praise him in the heights.

Praise him, all his angels, * praise him, all his host.

Praise him, sun and moon, * praise him, shining stars.

Praise him, highest heavens * and the waters above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord. * He commanded : they were made.

He fixed them for ever, * gave a law which shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth, * sea creatures and all oceans, fire and hail, snow and mist, * stormy winds that obey his word ;

all mountains and hills, * all fruit trees and cedars, beasts, wild and tame, * reptiles and birds on the wing ;

all earth's kings and peoples, * earth's princes and rulers ;

young men and maidens, * old men together with children.

Let them praise the name of the Lord * for he alone is exalted.

The splendor of his name * reaches beyond heaven and earth.

He exalts the strength of his people. * He is the praise of all his saints, of the sons of Israel, * of the people to whom he comes close.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1 : 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 85

The prayer of the poor man in distress

Blessed be God who comforts us in all our trials
(2 Corinthians 1 : 3. 4).

TURN your ear, O Lord, and give answer * for I am poor and needy.

Preserve my life, for I am faithful : * save the servant who trusts in you.

You are my God, have mercy on me, Lord, * for I cry to you all the day long.

Give joy to your servant, O Lord, * for to you I lift up my soul.

O Lord, you are good and forgiving, * full of love to all who call.

Give heed, O Lord, to my prayer * and attend to the sound of my voice.

In the day of distress I will call * and surely you will reply.

Among the gods there is none like you, O Lord ; * nor work to compare with yours.

All the nations shall come to adore you * and glorify your name, O Lord :

for you are great and do marvelous deeds, * you who alone are God.

Show me, Lord, your way † so that I may walk in your truth. * Guide my heart to fear your name.

I will praise you, Lord my God, with all my heart * and glorify your name for ever ; for your love to me has been great : * you have saved me from the depths of the grave.

The proud have risen against me ; † ruthless men seek my life : * to you they pay no heed.

But you, God of mercy and compassion, * slow to anger, O Lord, abounding in love and truth, * turn and take pity on me.

O give your strength to your servant * and save your handmaid's son.

Show me a sign of your favor † that my foes may see to their shame * that you console me and give me your help.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Glorious things * are said of you, O city of God.

Psalm 86

Jerusalem is mother of us all

The heavenly Jerusalem is a free woman ; she is our mother (Galations 4 : 26).

ON the holy mountain is his city * cherished by the Lord.

The Lord prefers the gates of Sion * to all Jacob's dwellings.

Of you are told glorious things, * O city of God !

" Babylon and Egypt I will count * among those who know me ;

Philistia, Tyre, Ethiopia, * these will be her children and Sion shall be called ' Mother ' * for all shall be her children. "

It is he, the Lord Most High, * who gives each his place.

In his register of peoples he writes : * " These are her children, " and while they dance they will sing : * " In you all find their home. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Blessèd the man * whom you teach, O Lord, / whom you train by means of your law.

Psalm 93

The Lord will avenge the just

God punishes wicked conduct ; he has called you to share his holiness. You must have nothing to do with impurity (1 Thessalonians 4 : 26).

O Lord, avenging God, * avenging God, appear !

Judge of the earth, arise, * give the proud what they deserve !

How long, O Lord, shall the wicked, * how long shall the wicked triumph ?

They bluster with arrogant speech ; * the evil-doers boast to each other.

They crush your people, Lord, * they afflict the ones you have chosen.

They kill the widow and the stranger * and murder the fatherless child.

And they say : " The Lord does not see ; * the God of Jacob pays no heed. "

Mark this, most senseless of people ; * fools, when will you understand ?

Can he who made the ear, not hear ? * Can he who formed the eye, not see ?

Will he who trains nations, not punish ? * Will he who teaches men, not have knowledge ?

The Lord knows the thoughts of men. * He knows they are no more than a breath.

Happy the man whom you teach, O Lord, * whom you train by means of your law :

to him you give peace in evil days * while the pit is being dug for the wicked.

The Lord will not abandon his people * nor forsake those who are his own :

for judgment shall again be just * and all true hearts shall uphold it.

Who will stand up for me against the wicked ? * Who will defend me from those who do evil ?

If the Lord were not to help me, * I would soon go down into the silence.

When I think : " I have lost my foothold " ; * your mercy, Lord, holds me up.

When cares increase in my heart * your consolation calms my soul.

Can judges who do evil be your friends ? * They do injustice under cover of law ;

they attack the life of the just * and condemn innocent blood.

As for me, the Lord will be a stronghold ; * my God will be the rock where I take refuge.

He will repay them for their wickedness, † destroy them for their evil deeds. * The Lord, our God, will destroy them.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Paschaltide :

Psalm 50
O God, have mercy on me

Your inmost being must be renewed, and you must put on the new man (Luke 22 : 53).

HAVE mercy on me, God, in your kindness. * In your compassion blot out my offense,

O wash me more and more from my guilt * and cleanse me from my sin.

My offenses truly I know them ; * my sin is always before me.

Against you, you alone, have I sinned ; * what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence * and be without reproach when you judge,

O see, in guilt I was born, * a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart ; * then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.

O purify me, then I shall be clean ; * O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness, * that the bones you have crushed may thrill.

From my sins turn away your face * and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God, * put a steadfast spirit within me.

Do not cast me away from your presence, * nor deprive me of your holy spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help ; * with a spirit of fervor sustain me, that I may teach transgressors your ways * and sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God, my helper, * and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.

O Lord, open my lips * and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight, * burnt offering from me you would refuse, my sacrifice a contrite spirit. * A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favor to Sion : * rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Then you be pleased with lawful sacrifice, † burnt offerings wholly consumed, * then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Canticle Isaiah 45 : 15-25

People of all nations will become disciples of the Lord

Every knee shall bend at the name of Jesus (Philippians 2 : 10).

TRULY with you God is hidden, * the God of Israel, the savior !

Those are put to shame and disgrace † who vent their anger against him. * Those go in disgrace who carve images.

Israel, you are saved by the Lord, * saved forever !

You shall never be put to shame or disgrace * in future ages.

For thus says the Lord, * the creator of the heavens, who is God, the designer and maker of the earth * who established it, not creating it to be a waste, * but designing it to be lived in :

I am the Lord, and there is no other. † I have not spoken from hiding * nor from some dark place of the earth.

And I have not said to the descendants of Jacob, * " Look for me in an empty waste. "

I, the Lord, promise justice, * I foretell what is right.

Come and assemble, gather together, * you fugitives from among the Gentiles !

They are without knowledge who bear wooden idols * and pray to gods that cannot save.

Come here and declare * in counsel together:

Who announced this from the beginning * and foretold it from of old?

Was it not I, the Lord, † besides whom there is no other God? * There is no just and saving God but me.

Turn to me and be saved, † all you ends of the earth, * for I am God; there is no other!

By myself I swear, uttering my just decree * and my unalterable word:

To me every knee shall bend; * by me every tongue shall swear, saying, "Only in the Lord * are just deeds and power.

Before him in shame shall come * all who vent their anger against him.

In the Lord shall be the vindication and the glory * of all the descendants of Israel."

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

PRAISE God in his holy place, * praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, * praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, * praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, * praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes * give praise to the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Reading

Through the Year Ephesians 4 : 29-32

NEVER let evil talk pass your lips ; say only the good things men need to hear, things that will really help them. Do nothing that will sadden the Holy Spirit with whom you were sealed against the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, all passion and anger, harsh words, slander, and malice of every kind. In place of these, be kind to one another, compassionate, and mutually forgiving, just as God has forgiven you in Christ.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old:

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Let my cry for help * reach you, O God.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 101

The longings and prayers of an exile

God comforts us in all our troubles (2 Corinthians 1 : 4).

I

O Lord, listen to my prayer * and let my cry for help reach you.

Do not hide your face from me * in the day of my distress.

Turn your ear towards me * and answer me quickly when I call.

For my days are vanishing like smoke, * my bones burn away like a fire.

My heart is withered like the grass. * I forget to eat my bread.

I cry with all my strength * and my skin clings to my bones.

I have become like a pelican in the wilderness, * like an owl in desolate places.

I lie awake and I moan * like some lonely bird on a roof.

All day long my foes revile me ; * those who hate me use my name as a curse.

The bread I eat is ashes ; * my drink is mingled with tears.

In your anger, Lord, and your fury * you have lifted me up and thrown me down.

My days are like a passing shadow * and I wither away like the grass.

But you, O Lord, will endure for ever * and your name from age to age.

You will arise and have mercy on Sion : † for this is the time to have mercy, * yes, the time appointed has come for your servants love her very stones, * are moved with pity even for her dust.

The nations shall fear the name of the Lord * and all the earth's kings your glory, when the Lord shall build up Sion again * and appear in all his glory.

Then he will turn to the prayers of the helpless ; * he will not despise their prayers.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Let my cry for help reach you, O God.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

You, O Lord, * founded the earth, / and the heavens are the work of your hands.

II

LET this be written for ages to come * that a people yet unborn may praise the Lord ;

for the Lord leaned down from his sanctuary on high. * He looked down from heaven to the earth that he might hear the groans of the prisoners * and free those condemned to die.

The sons of your servants shall dwell untroubled * and their race shall endure before you that the name of the Lord may be proclaimed in Sion * and his praise in the heart of Jerusalem, when peoples and kingdoms are gathered together * to pay their homage to the Lord.

He has broken my strength in mid-course ; * he has shortened the days of my life.

I say to God : " Do not take me away † before my days are complete, * you, whose days last from age to age.

Long ago you founded the earth * and the heavens are the work of your hands.

They will perish but you will remain. * They will all wear out like a garment.

You will change them like clothes that are changed. * But you neither change, nor have an end. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

You, O Lord, founded the earth, / and the heavens are the work of your hands.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Bless the Lord, * O my soul.

Psalm 102
Praise for God's tender mercy

In the tender mercy of our God, the Orient from on high has shown upon us (Luke 1 : 78).

MY soul, give thanks to the Lord, * all my being, bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord * and never forget all his blessings.

It is he who forgives all your guilt, * who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, * who crowns you with love and compassion, who fills your life with good things, * renewing your youth like an eagle's.

The Lord does deeds of justice, * gives judgment for all who are oppressed.

He made known his ways to Moses * and his deeds to Israel's sons.

The Lord is compassion and love, * slow to anger and rich in mercy.

His wrath will come to an end ; * he will not be angry for ever.

He does not treat us according to our sins * nor repay us according to our faults.

For as the heavens are high above the earth * so strong is his love for those who fear him.

As far as the east is from the west * so far does he remove our sins.

As a father has compassion on his sons, * the Lord has pity on those who fear him ;

for he knows of what we are made, * he remembers that we are dust.

As for man, his days are like grass ; * he flowers like the flower of the field ;

the wind blows and he is gone * and his place never sees him again.

But the love of the Lord is everlasting * upon those who hold him in fear ;

his justice reaches out to children's children † when they keep his covenant in truth, * when they keep his will in their mind.

The Lord has set his sway in heaven * and his kingdom is ruling over all.

Give thanks to the Lord, all his angels, † mighty in power, fulfilling his word, * who heed the voice of his word.

Give thanks to the Lord, all his hosts, * his servants who do his will.

Give thanks to the Lord, all his works, † in every place where he rules. * My soul, give thanks to the Lord !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 91
Praise of God the Creator

Sing in praise of Christ's redeeming work (Saint Athanasius).

IT is good to give thanks to the Lord, * † to make music to your name, O Most High,

to proclaim your love in the morning * and your truth in the watches of the night, on the ten-stringed lyre and the lute, * with the murmuring sound of the harp.

Your deeds, O Lord, have made me glad ; * for the work of your hands I shout with joy.

O Lord, how great are your works ! * How deep are your designs !

The foolish man cannot know this * and the fool cannot understand.

Though the wicked spring up like grass * and all who do evil thrive :

they are doomed to be eternally destroyed. * But you, Lord, are eternally on high.

See how your enemies perish ; * all doers of evil are scattered.

To me you give the wild-ox's strength ; * you anoint me with the purest oil.

My eyes looked in triumph on my foes ; * my ears heard gladly of their fall.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree * and grow like a Lebanon cedar.

Planted in the house of the Lord * they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, * still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. * In him, my rock, there is no wrong.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Hymn of victory after crossing the Red Sea

Those who had conquered the beast were singing the song of Moses, God's servant (cf. Apocalypse 15 : 2-3).

I will sing to the Lord, for he is gloriously triumphant ; * horse and chariot he has cast into the sea.

My strength and my courage is the Lord, * and he has been my savior.

He is my God, I praise him ; * the God of my father, I extol him.

The Lord is a warrior, Lord is his name ! * Pharaoh's chariots and army he hurled into the sea.

At a breath of your anger the waters piled up, † the flowing waters stood like a mound, * the flood waters congealed in the midst of the sea.

The enemy boasted, " I will pursue and overtake them ; * I will divide the spoils and have my fill of them ;

I will draw my sword ; * my hand shall despoil them ! "

When your wind blew, the sea covered them ; * like lead they sank in the mighty waters.

Who is like to you among the gods, O Lord ? * Who is like to you, magnificent in holiness ?

O terrible in renown, worker of wonders, † when you stretched out your right hand, * the earth swallowed them !

In your mercy you led the people you redeemed ; * in your strength you guided them to your holy dwelling.

And you brought them in and planted them * on the mountain of your inheritance—the place where you made your seat, O Lord, † the sanctuary, O Lord, which your hands established. * The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy

The joy of God's holy people

Let the sons of the Church, the children of the new people, rejoice in Christ, their King (Hesychius).

SING a new song to the Lord, * his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker, * let Zion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing * and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. * He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, * shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips * and a two-edged sword in their hand, to deal out vengeance to the nations * and punishment on all the peoples ;

to bind their kings in chains * and their nobles in fetters of iron ;

to carry out the sentence pre-ordained : * this honor is for all his faithful.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Who is the king of glory ? † The Lord, the mighty, the valiant, * the Lord, the valiant in war.

O gates, lift high your heads ; † grow higher, ancient doors. * Let him enter, the king of glory!

Who is he, the king of glory ? † He, the Lord of armies, * he is the king of glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

During Paschaltide, the next Psalm follows immediately.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

My eyes * are always on the Lord.

Advent :

Christ our King comes * whom John preached, saying : / Behold the Lamb that should come.

Christmas :

Sing for joy * with Jerusalem ; / the Lord has refreshed her like a river of peace.

Epiphany :

Christ Jesus has come, * bringing the joyful news : / peace to those who were far off ; / peace to those who are near.

Lent :

Those who hope * in you, O Lord, / shall not be disappointed.

Palm Sunday :

For to me * to live is Christ, and to die is gain. / Far be it from me to glory / except in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Psalm 24

Prayer for God's favor and protection

Our hope will never be disappointed (Romans 5 : 5).

TO you, O Lord, I lift up my soul. † I trust you, let me not be disappointed ; * do not let my enemies triumph.

Those who hope in you shall not be disappointed, * but only those who wantonly break faith.

Lord, make me know your ways. * Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk in your truth, and teach me : * for you are God my savior.

In you I hope all day long * because of your goodness, O Lord.

Remember your mercy, Lord, * and the love you have shown from of old.

Do not remember the sins of my youth. * In your love remember me.

The Lord is good and upright. * He shows the path to those who stray,

He guides the humble in the right path ; * he teaches his way to the poor.

His ways are faithfulness and love * for those who keep his covenant and law.

Lord, for the sake of your name * forgive my guilt ; for it is great.

If anyone fears the Lord * he will show him the path he should choose.

His soul shall live in happiness * and his children shall possess the land.

The Lord's friendship is for those who revere him ; * to them he reveals his covenant.

My eyes are always on the Lord ; * for he rescues my feet from the snare.

Turn to me and have mercy * for I am lonely and poor.

Relieve the anguish of my heart * and set me free from my distress.

See my affliction and my toil * and take all my sins away.

See how many are my foes ; * how violent their hatred for me.

Preserve my life and rescue me. * Do not disappoint me, you are my refuge.

May innocence and uprightness protect me : * for my hope is in you, O Lord.

Redeem Israel, O God, * from all its distress.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

During Paschaltide, the next Psalm follows immediately.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Your love * is before my eyes, O Lord, / and I walk according to your truth.

℣. Blessed are your eyes, for they see God's works.
℟. And your ears, for they hear his word.

First Reading, 154.

Advent :

Behold, I come quickly, * says the Lord, and my reward is with me : / to render to every man according to his works.

℣. Lift up your eyes and see.
℟. Your redemption is near at hand.

Christmas :

He who was * from the beginning, / God from God, Light from Light, is born for us.

℣. Christ is the true light.
℟. He gives light to all people.

Epiphany :

I have raised you up * as a light for all the nations ; / through you my salvation will be proclaimed to the ends of the earth.

℣. The Son of God has come to give us understanding.
℟. That we might know the true God.

Lent :

I trust * in the Lord ; / I have not wavered.

℣. The voice of the Father was heard from the cloud.
℟. This is my belovèd Son ; / listen to him.

Palm Sunday :

I know my own sheep, * and my own know me, / as the Father knows me and as I know the Father ; / I lay down my life for my sheep.

℣. When I am lifted up from the earth.
℟. I will draw all things to myself.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, whom do you seek, O woman ? alleluia, / the living among the dead ? / alleluia, alleluia.

℣. The disciples rejoiced, alleluia.
℟. When they saw the Lord, alleluia.

Psalm 25

Trusting prayer of an innocent man

God chose us in Christ to be holy and sinless (Ephesians 1 : 4)

GIVE judgment for me, O Lord : † for I walk the path of perfection. * I trust in the Lord ; I have not wavered.

Examine me, Lord, and try me ; * O test my heart and my mind, for your love is before my eyes * and I walk according to your truth.

I never take my place with liars * and with hypocrites I shall not go.

I hate the evil-doer's company : * I will not take my place with the wicked.

To prove my innocence I wash my hands * and take my place around your altar, singing a song of thanksgiving, * proclaiming all your wonders.

O Lord, I love the house where you dwell, * the place where your glory abides.

Do not sweep me away with sinners, * nor my life with bloodthirsty men in whose hands are evil plots,* whose right hands are filled with gold.

As for me, I walk the path of perfection. * Redeem me and show me your mercy.

My foot stands on level ground : * I will bless the Lord in the assembly.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Week II

First Reading

Through the Year

Responsory Psalm 72 : 26. 28

II Nocturn, 155.

II Nocturn

Through the Year

Ant. With all my heart * I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

Canticle Isaiah 33 : 13-18

God will judge with justice

It is promised to you and your childen and to all who are far away (Acts 2 : 39).

HEAR, you who are far off, what I have done ; * and you who are near, acknowledge my might.

The sinners in Sion are afraid ; * trembling has seized the godless :

" Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire ? * Who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings ? "

He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly, * who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands, lest they hold a bribe, † who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed * and shuts his eyes from looking upon evil, he will dwell on the heights ; * his place of defense will be the fortresses of rocks ;

his bread will be given him, * his water will be sure.

Your eyes will see the king in his beauty ; † they will behold a land that stretches afar. * Your heart will meditate fear.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. With all my heart I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

℣. Arise, O Lord, in your strength.
℟. We shall sing and praise your power.

Second Reading, 160.

During Advent

Ant. The angel Gabriel * spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

Canticle Isaiah 42 : 10-16

Hymn to God, the Victor and Savior

They were singing a new hymn before the throne of God (Apocalypse 14 : 3).

SING to the Lord a new song, * his praise from the end of the earth.

Let the sea roar and all that fills it, * the coastlands and their inhabitants.

Let the desert and its cities lift up their voice, * the villages that Kedar inhabits ;

let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy, * let them shout from the top of the mountains.

Let them give glory to the Lord, * and declare his praise in the coastlands.

The Lord goes forth like a mighty man, * like a man of war he stirs up his fury ;

he cries out, he shouts aloud, * he shows himself mighty against his foes.

For a long time I have held my peace, * I have kept still and restrained myself ;

now I will cry out like a woman in travail, * I will gasp and pant.

I will lay waste mountains and hills, * and dry up all their herbage ;

I will turn the rivers into islands, * and dry up the pools.

And I will lead the blind in a way that they know not, * in paths that they have not known I will guide them.

I will turn the darkness before them into light, * the rough places into level ground.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. The angel Gabriel spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

℣. The Lord will come forth from his holy place.

℟. He will come to save his people.

Christmas

Ant. His name * will be called Emmanuel, / which means God-is-with-us.

Epiphany

Ant. Today the God of heaven * has been born into the world for us. / The Virgin Mary is his Mother ; / the Magi adore him and offer him gifts. / Let us all kneel before him, for he is our Redeemer.

Canticle Isaiah 66 : 10-14a

Joys of heaven

The heavenly Jerusalem is a free woman and our mother (Galatians 4 : 26).

REJOICE with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, * all you who love her ;

exult, exult with her, * all you who were mourning over her !

Oh, that you may suck fully * of the milk of her comfort, that you may nurse with delight * at her abundant breasts !

For thus says the Lord : * Lo, I will spread prosperity over her like a river, and the wealth of the nations * like an overflowing torrent.

As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms, * and fondled in her lap ;

as a mother comforts her son, † so will I comfort you ; * in Jerusalem you shall find your comfort.

When you see this, your heart shall rejoice, * and your bodies flourish like the grass.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Christmas

Ant. His name will be called Emmanuel, / which means God-is-with-us.

℣. You are the fairest of the sons of men.

℟. Grace is poured out upon your lips.

Epiphany

Ant. Today the God of heaven has been born into the world for us. / The Virgin Mary is his Mother ; / the Magi adore him and offer him gifts. / Let us all kneel before him, for he is our Redeemer.

℣. Adore the Lord, alleluia.

℟. In his holy court, alleluia.

During Lent

Ant. Turn us back * to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

Palm Sunday

Ant. Jesus knelt down and prayed, * Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. / Nevertheless, not my will but yours be done.

Canticle Ezechiel 36 : 24-28

The Lord will renew his people

They shall be his people, and God himself will be with them (Apocalypse 21 : 3).

I will take you from the nations, † and gather you from all the countries, * and bring you into your own land.

I will sprinkle clean water upon you, † and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, * and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

A new heart I will give you, * and a new spirit I will put within you ; and I will take out of your flesh the heart of stone *and give you a heart of flesh.

And I will put my spirit within you, † and cause you to walk in my statutes * and be careful to observe my ordinances.

You shall dwell in the land * which I gave to your fathers ; and you shall be my people, * and I will be your God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

During Lent

Ant. Turn us back to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

℣. His faithfulness and truth shall be your buckler and shield.
℟. You shall not fear the terror of the night.

Palm Sunday

Ant. Jesus knelt down and prayed, / Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. / Nevertheless, not my will but yours be done.

℣. Let us venerate the sign of the Cross.
℟. Through it we have received the sacrament of salvation.

During Paschaltide

Ant. Come, * let us adore the One who rose from the dead. / Through the Cross joy came into the world, alleluia.

Canticle Hosea 6 : 1-6

The Lord is merciful ;
he desires compassion rather than sacrifice

Christ rose from the dead on the third day, in accordance with the Scripture (1 Corinthians 15 : 4).

COME, let us return to the Lord ; † for he has torn, that he may heal us ; * he has stricken, and he will bind us up.

After two days he will revive us ; † on the third day he will raise us up, * that we may live before him.

Let us know, let us press on to know the Lord ; * his going forth is sure as the dawn ;

he will come to us as the showers, * as the spring rains that water the earth.

What shall I do with you, O Ephraim ? * What shall I do with you, O Judah ?

Your love is like a morning cloud, * like the dew that goes early away.

Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, † I have slain them by the words of my mouth, * and my judgment goes forth as the light.

For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, * the knowledge of God, rather than burnt offerings.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. Come, let us adore the One who rose from the dead. / Through the Cross joy came into the world, alleluia.

℣. Christ, having risen from the dead, dies now no more, alleluia.

℟. Death shall no longer have dominion over him, alleluia.

Second Reading

Through the Year

Responsory Psalm 74 : 2

Te Deum, 161.

After the Responsory on Sundays and Feasts is said :

Ambrosian Hymn

Te Deum laudamus

WE praise you, O God, * we acknowledge you to be the Lord.

All the world worships you, * the Father everlasting.

To you all the angels cry aloud, * the heavens and all the powers therein :

To you the Cherubim and Seraphim * continually do cry :

Holy,

Holy,

Holy * Lord God of Hosts.

Heaven and earth are full * of the majesty of your glory.

The glorious choir of the Apostles * praises you.

The admirable company of the Prophets * praises you.

The white-robed army of Martyrs * praises you.

Your holy Church throughout the world * acknowledges you :

The Father * of infinite majesty ;

Your true, and only Son, * who is to be adored ;

And the Holy Spirit, * the Comforter.

You are the King of glory, O Christ. * You are the everlasting Son of the Father.

When you took human nature to deliver man, * you did not disdain the Virgin's womb.

When you had overcome the sting of death, * you opened to believers the kingdom of heaven.

You are seated at the right hand of God, * in the glory of the Father.

We believe that you will come * to be our Judge.

The following verse is said kneeling :

We beseech you, therefore, help your servants, * whom you have redeemed with your precious Blood.

Make them to be numbered with your Saints * in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save your people, * and bless your inheritance.

Govern them, * and exalt them forever.

Day by day we bless you ; * and we praise your name forever and ever.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day * to keep us without sin.

Have mercy on us, O Lord, * have mercy on us.

Let your mercy be upon us, O Lord, * as we have hoped in you.

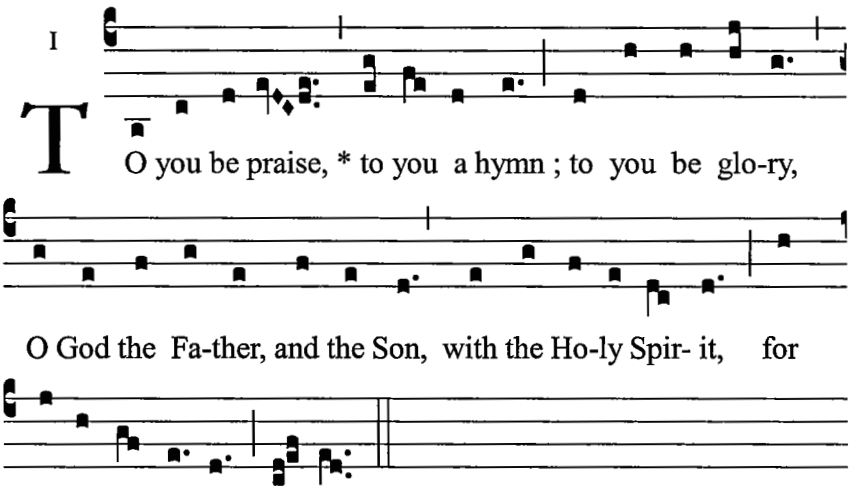
O Lord, in you I have hoped, * let me not be confounded forever.

Week II

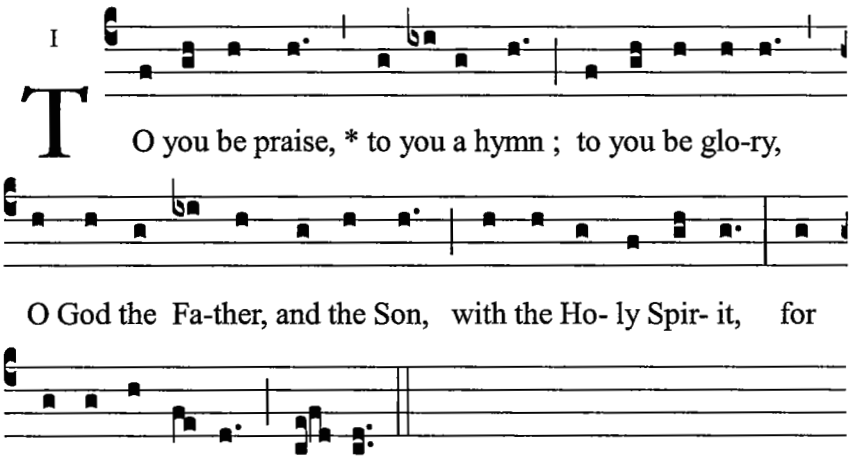
Holy Gospel

After the Gospel

Te decet laus



Or:



Conclusion

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Prayer from the Proper, or the following may be said :

Let us pray. Prayer

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of our enemy, * grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

Lauds follows immediately, beginning with the Versicle O God, come to my assistance.

When Matins is separated from Lauds, conclusion as follows :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Benedicamus Domino

LET us bless the Lord. ℟. Thanks be to God.

℣. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.
℟. Amen.
℣. May the divine assistance remain always with us.
℟. And with our absent brethren. Amen.

SUNDAY II AT LAUDS

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The Lord is king * with majesty enrobed, alleluia. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear on the clouds of heaven, / with power and great glory, alleluia.

Christmas and Epiphany :

Light dawns for the just, * since the Savior of the world has been born, alleluia.

Lent :

Jesus took * Peter, James and his brother John, / and led them up a high mountain by themselves, / and he was transfigured before them.

Palm Sunday :

The great crowd * that had gathered for the feastday cried out to the Lord : / Blessèd is he who comes in the name of the Lord. / Hosanna in the highest.

Paschaltide, Sunday 2 :

Christ is risen ; * he is the light of his people, / whom he has redeemed with his Blood, alleluia.

Paschaltide, Sunday 6 :

The Lord * is glorious on high, / alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 92

Splendor of God the Creator

The Lord our mighty God now reigns supreme ; let us rejoice and be glad and give him praise (Apocalypse 19 : 6-7).

THE Lord is king, with majesty enrobed ; † the Lord has robed himself with might, * he has girded himself with power.

The world you made firm, not to be moved ; † your throne has stood firm from of old. * From all eternity, O Lord, you are.

The waters have lifted up, O Lord, † the waters have lifted up their voice, * the waters have lifted up their thunder.

Greater than the roar of mighty waters, † more glorious than the surgings of the sea, * the Lord is glorious on high.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted. † Holiness is fitting to your house, * O Lord, until the end of time.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Let us sing * a hymn to our God, alleluia.

Advent :

The mountains and hills * shall sing praises before the Lord, / and all the trees of the forest shall clap their hands : / for our Lord and Ruler comes to reign for ever, / alleluia, alleluia.

Christmas and Epiphany :

Let us sing a hymn of praise * to the Lord our God.

Lent :

And Peter answering * said to Jesus : / Lord, it is good for us to be here.

Palm Sunday :

God grant * that with the angels and the children we may be faithful, / and sing with them to the Conqueror of death : / Hosanna in the highest.

Paschaltide, Sunday 2 :

Our Redeemer * has risen from the tomb ; / let us sing a hymn of praise to the Lord our God, alleluia.

Paschaltide, Sunday 6 :

Blessèd are you, * O Lord our God, in the firmament of heaven. / You are worthy of praise for ever, alleluia.

Canticle Daniel 3 : 52-57

Let all creatures praise the Lord

The Creator is blessed for ever (Romans 1 : 25).

Blessèd are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, * praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

And blessèd is your holy and glorious name, * praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

Blessèd are you in the temple of your holy glory, * praiseworthy and glorious above all forever.

Blessèd are you on the throne of your kingdom, * praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Blessèd are you who look into the depths from your throne upon the cherubim, * praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Blessèd are you in the firmament of heaven, * praiseworthy and glorious forever.

Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord, * praise and exalt him above all forever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Praise the Lord * for his surpassing greatness, alleluia.

Advent :

Behold, our Lord * shall come with power, / to enlighten the eyes of his servants, alleluia.

Christmas and Epiphany :

The people * who sat in darkness have seen a great light.

Lent :

As he was still speaking, * behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them.

Palm Sunday :

Blessèd is he * who comes in the name of the Lord ; / peace in heaven ; / glory in the highest heavens.

Paschaltide, Sunday 2 :

Alleluia, * the Lord is risen as he promised, alleluia.

Paschaltide, Sunday 6 :

Worship God * who is seated upon the throne ; / sing to him in praise : / Amen, alleluia.

Psalm 150
Praise the Lord

Let mind and heart be in your song : this is to glorify God with your whole self (Hesychius).

PRAISE God in his holy place, * praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, * praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, * praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, * praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes * give praise to the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Reading

Through the Year Ezechiel 36 : 25-27

I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you ; and I will take out of your flesh the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. TRanscendent God in whom we live, The Res-ur-rec-tion and the Light, We sing for you a morning hymn To end the silence of the night. 2. When ear-ly cock be-gins to crow And ev'-rything from sleep a-wakes, New life and hope spring up a-gain While out of darkness col-or breaks. 3. Cre-a-tor of all things that are, The measure and the end of all, Forgiving God, forget our sins, And hear our prayer be-fore we call. 4. Praise Fa-ther, Son and Ho-ly Ghost, Blest Trin-i- ty and source of grace, Who call us out of nothingness To find in you our rest-ing place. A- men.

℣. The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed ; ℟. The Lord has robed

MAY the peace * of the ris- en Christ make us glad, al- le- lu- ia, al- le- lu- ia.

Or :

VI F

MAY the peace of the risen Christ make us glad, * alleluia, al-le- lu- ia.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1 : 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Nocturn

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Commit * your life to the Lord.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 36

The lot of the evil and the just Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth (Matthew 5 : 5).

I

DO not fret because of the wicked ; * do not envy those who do evil :

for they wither quickly like grass * and fade like the green of the fields.

If you trust in the Lord and do good, * then you will live in the land and be secure.

If you find your delight in the Lord, * he will grant your heart's desire.

Commit your life to the Lord, * trust in him and he will act, so that your justice breaks forth like the light, * your cause like the noon-day sun.

Be still before the Lord and wait in patience ; * do not fret at the man who prospers ;

a man who makes evil plots * to bring down the needy and the poor.

Calm your anger and forget your rage ; * do not fret, it only leads to evil.

For those who do evil shall perish ; * the patient shall inherit the land.

A little longer—and the wicked shall have gone. * Look at his place, he is not there.

But the humble shall own the land * and enjoy the fullness of peace.

The wicked man plots against the just * and gnashes his teeth against him ;

but the Lord laughs at the wicked * for he sees that his day is at hand.

The sword of the wicked is drawn, * his bow is bent to slaughter the upright.

Their sword shall pierce their own hearts * and their bows shall be broken to pieces.

The just man's few possessions * are better than the wicked man's wealth ; for the power of the wicked shall be broken * and the Lord will support the just.

He protects the lives of the upright, * their heritage will last for ever.

They shall not be put to shame in evil days, * in time of famine their food shall not fail.

But all the wicked shall perish * and all the enemies of the Lord.

They are like the beauty of the meadows, * they shall vanish, they shall vanish like smoke.

The wicked man borrows without repaying, * but the just man is generous and gives.

Those blest by the Lord shall own the land, * but those he has cursed shall be destroyed.

The Lord guides the steps of a man * and makes safe the path of one he loves.

Though he stumble he shall never fall * for the Lord holds him by the hand.

I was young and now I am old, † but I have never seen the just man forsaken * nor his children begging for bread.

All the day he is generous and lends * and his children become a blessing.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

See the just man, * mark the upright.

II

THEN turn away from evil and do good * and you shall have a home for ever ;

for the Lord loves justice * and will never forsake his friends.

The unjust shall be wiped out for ever * and the children of the wicked destroyed.

The just shall inherit the land ; * there they shall live for ever.

The just man's mouth utters wisdom * and his lips speak what is right ;

the law of his God is in his heart, * his steps shall be saved from stumbling.

The wicked man watches for the just * and seeks occasion to kill him.

The Lord will not leave him in his power * nor let him be condemned when he is judged.

Then wait for the Lord, keep to his way. * It is he who will free you from the wicked, raise you up to possess the land * and see the wicked destroyed.

I have seen the wicked triumphant, * towering like a cedar of Lebanon.

I passed by again ; he was gone. * I searched ; he was nowhere to be found.

See the just man, mark the upright, * for the peaceful man a future lies in store, but sinners shall all be destroyed. * No future lies in store for the wicked.

The salvation of the just comes from the Lord, * their stronghold in time of distress.

The Lord helps them and delivers them and saves them : * for their refuge is in him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Make haste * and come to my help, / O Lord, my God, my Savior.

Psalm 37

A sinner in extreme danger prays earnestly to God

All his friends were standing at a distance (Luke 23 : 49).

O Lord, do not rebuke me in your anger ; * do not punish me, Lord, in your rage.

Your arrows have sunk deep in me ; * your hand has come down upon me.

Through your anger all my body is sick : * through my sin, there is no health in my limbs.

My guilt towers higher than my head ; * it is a weight too heavy to bear.

My wounds are foul and festering, * the result of my own folly.

I am bowed and brought to my knees. * I go mourning all the day long.

All my frame burns with fever ; * all my body is sick.

Spent and utterly crushed, * I cry aloud in anguish of heart.

O Lord, you know all my longing : * my groans are not hidden from you.

My heart throbs, my strength is spent ; * the very light has gone from my eyes.

My friends avoid me like a leper ; * those closest to me stand afar off.

Those who plot against my life lay snares ; † those who seek my ruin speak of harm, * planning treachery all the day long.

But I am like the deaf who cannot hear, * like the dumb unable to speak.

I am like a man who hears nothing * in whose mouth is no defense.

I count on you, O Lord : * it is you, Lord God, who will answer.

I pray : " Do not let them mock me, * those who triumph if my foot should slip. "

For I am on the point of falling * and my pain is always before me.

I confess that I am guilty * and my sin fills me with dismay.

My wanton enemies are numberless * and my lying foes are many.

They repay me evil for good * and attack me for seeking what is right.

O Lord, do not forsake me ! * My God, do not stay afar off !

Make haste and come to my help, * O Lord, my God, my savior !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 35

The evil of the sinner and the goodness of the Lord

The man who follows me will not walk in darkness, but he will have the light of life (John 8 : 12).

SIN speaks to the sinner * in the depths of his heart.

There is no fear of God * before his eyes.

He so flatters himself in his mind * that he knows not his guilt.

In his mouth are mischief and deceit. * All wisdom is gone.

He plots the defeat of goodness * as he lies on his bed.

He has set his foot on evil ways, * he clings to what is evil.

Your love, Lord, reaches to heaven ; * your truth to the skies.

Your justice is like God's mountain, * your judgments like the deep.

To both man and beast you give protection. * O Lord, how precious is your love.

My God, the sons of men * find refuge in the shelter of your wings.

They feast on the riches of your house ; * they drink from the stream of your delight.

In you is the source of life * and in your light we see light.

Keep on loving those who know you, * doing justice for upright hearts.

Let the foot of the proud not crush me * nor the hand of the wicked cast me out.

See how the evil-doers fall ! * Flung down, they shall never arise.

Prayer for the holy city, Jerusalem

This is eternal life : to know you, the one true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent (John 17 : 3).

COME to our aid, O God of the universe, * and put all the nations in dread of you !

Raise your hand against the heathen, * that they may realize your power.

As you have used us to show them your holiness, * so now use them to show us your glory.

Thus they will know, as we know, * that there is no God but you.

Give new signs and work new wonders ; * show forth the splendor of your right hand and arm.

Gather all the tribes of Jacob, * that they may inherit the land as of old.

Show mercy to the people called by your name ; * Israel, whom you named your first-born.

Take pity on your holy city, * Jerusalem, your dwelling place.

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Nocturn

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Give heed * all who dwell in the world.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 48
Emptiness of riches

It is difficult for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven (Matthew 19 : 23).

HEAR this, all you peoples, * give heed, all who dwell in the world, men both low and high, * rich and poor alike !

My lips will speak words of wisdom. * My heart is full of insight.

I will turn my mind to a parable, * with the harp I will solve my problem.

Why should I fear in evil days * the malice of the foes who surround me, men who trust in their wealth, * and boast of the vastness of their riches ?

For no man can buy his own ransom, * or pay a price to God for his life.

The ransom of his soul is beyond him. † He cannot buy life without end, * nor avoid coming to the grave.

He knows that wise men and fools must both perish * and leave their wealth to others.

Their graves are their homes for ever, † their dwelling place from age to age, * though their names spread wide through the land.

In his riches, man lacks wisdom : * he is like the beasts that are destroyed.

This is the lot of those who trust in themselves, * who have others at their beck and call.

Like sheep they are driven to the grave, † where death shall be their shepherd * and the just shall become their rulers.

With the morning their outward show vanishes * and the grave becomes their home.

But God will ransom me from death * and take my soul to himself.

Then do not fear when a man grows rich, * when the glory of his house increases.

He takes nothing with him when he dies, * his glory does not follow him below.

Though he flattered himself while he lived : * " Men will praise me for all my success, "

yet he will go to join his fathers, * who will never see the light any more.

In his riches, man lacks wisdom : * he is like the beasts that are destroyed.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Give heed all who dwell in the world.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The God of gods * the Lord, / has spoken and summoned the earth. † This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Psalm 49
True devotion to the Lord

I have not come to abolish the Law, but to fulfil it (Cf. Matthew 5 : 17).

THE God of gods, the Lord, has spoken and summoned the earth, * † from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Out of Sion's perfect beauty he shines. * Our God comes, he keeps silence no longer.

Before him fire devours, * around him tempest rages.

He calls on the heavens and the earth * to witness his judgment of his people.

" Summon before me my people * who made covenant with me by sacrifice. "

The heavens proclaim his justice, * for he, God, is the judge.

" Listen, my people, I will speak ; * Israel, I will testify against you, for I am God, your God. * I accuse you, lay the charge before you.

I find no fault with your sacrifices, * your offerings are always before me.

I do not ask more bullocks from your farms, * nor goats from among your herds.

For I own all the beasts of the forest, * beasts in their thousands on my hills.

I know all the birds in the sky, * all that moves in the field belong to me.

Were I hungry, I would not tell you, * for I own the world and all it holds.

Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, * or drink the blood of goats ?

Pay your sacrifice of thanksgiving to God * and render him your votive offerings.

Call on me in the day of distress. * I will free you and you shall honor me. "

But God says to the wicked : † " But how can you recite my commandments * and take my covenant on your lips, you who despise my law * and throw my words to the winds, you who see a thief and go with him ; * who throw in your lot with adulterers, who unbridle your mouth for evil * and whose tongue is plotting crime, you who sit and malign your brother * and slander your own mother's son.

You do this, and should I keep silence ? * Do you think that I am like you ?

Mark this, you who never think of God, * lest I seize you and you cannot escape ;

a sacrifice of thanksgiving honors me * and I will show God's salvation to the upright. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 51
Against the deceitful one

If anyone would boast, let him boast in the Lord
(1 Corinthians 1 : 31).

WHY do you boast of your wickedness, * you champion of evil, planning ruin all day long, † your tongue like a sharpened razor, * you master of deceit ?

You love evil more than good ; * lies more than truth.

You love the destructive word, * you tongue of deceit.

For this God will destroy you * and remove you for ever.

He will snatch you from your tent and uproot you * from the land of the living.

The just shall see and fear. * They shall laugh and say :

" So this is the man who refused * to take God as his stronghold, but trusted in the greatness of his wealth * and grew powerful by his crimes. "

But I am like a growing olive tree * in the house of God.

I trust in the goodness of God * for ever and ever.

I will thank you for evermore ; * for this is your doing.

I will proclaim that your name is good, * in the presence of your friends.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit. | As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Morning prayer in time of affliction

This Psalm celebrates the Passion of the Lord (Saint Augustine).

HAVE mercy on me, God, have mercy * for in you my soul has taken refuge.

In the shadow of your wings I take refuge * till the storms of destruction pass by.

I call to God the Most High, * to God who has always been my help.

May he send from heaven and save me † and shame those who assail me. * May God send his truth and his love.

My soul lies down among lions, * who would devour the sons of men.

Their teeth are spears and arrows, * their tongue a sharpened sword.

O God, arise above the heavens ; * may your glory shine on earth !

They laid a snare for my steps, * my soul was bowed down.

They dug a pit in my path * but fell in it themselves.

My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready. * I will sing, I will sing your praise.

Awake, my soul, awake, lyre and harp, * I will awake the dawn.

I will thank you, Lord, among the peoples, * among the nations I will praise you for your love reaches to the heavens * and your truth to the skies.

O God, arise above the heavens ; * may your glory shine on earth !

Canticle Isaiah 38 : 10-14. 17-20

The anguish of illness ; the joy of health

I am living, I was dead . . . and I hold the keys of death (Apocalypse 1 : 17-18).

ONCE I said, * "In the noontime of life I must depart !

To the gates of the nether world I shall be consigned * for the rest of my years. "

I said, " I shall see the Lord no more * in the land of the living.

No longer shall I behold my fellow men * among those who dwell in the world. "

My dwelling, like a shepherd's tent, * is struck down and borne away from me ;

you have folded up my life, like a weaver * who severs the last thread.

Day and night you give me over to torment ; * I cry out until the dawn.

Like a lion he breaks all my bones ; * day and night you give me over to torment.

Like a swallow I utter shrill cries ; * I moan like a dove.

My eyes grow weak, gazing heavenward : * O Lord, I am in straits ; be my surety !

You have preserved my life from the pit of destruction, * when you cast behind your back all my sins.

For it is not the nether world that gives you thanks, * nor death that praises you ;

neither do those who go down into the pit * await your kindness.

The living, the living give you thanks, * as I do today.

Fathers declare to their sons, * O God, your faithfulness.

The Lord is our savior ; * we shall sing to stringed instruments in the house of the Lord * all the days of our life.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Lord, keep us safe all the days of our life.

Holy Week :

Lord my God you defended my cause ; / you ransomed my life.

Paschaltide :

Lord, you have preserved my life from destruction, alleluia.

3 Antiphon

Psalm 149

The joy of God's holy people

Let the sons of the Church, the children of the new people, rejoice in Christ, their King (Hesychius).

SING a new song to the Lord, * his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker, * let Sion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing * and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. * He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, * shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips * and a two-edged sword in their hand, to deal out vengeance to the nations * and punishment on all the peoples ;

to bind their kings in chains * and their nobles in fetters of iron ;

to carry out the sentence pre-ordained : * this honor is for all his faithful.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

All you his angels, praise the Lord from the heavens.

Holy Week :

My servant, the Just One, will justify many by taking their sins on himself.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old:

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 65

Hymn for a thanksgiving sacrifice

The resurrection of the Lord and the conversion of the nations (Hesychius).

CRY out with joy to God all the earth, * O sing to the glory of his name.

O render him glorious praise. * Say to God : " How tremendous your deeds !

Because of the greatness of your strength * your enemies cringe before you.

Before you all the earth shall bow ; * shall sing to you, sing to your name ! "

Come and see the works of God, * tremendous his deeds among men.

He turned the sea into dry land, * they passed through the river dry-shod.

Let our joy then be in him ; * he rules for ever by his might.

His eyes keep watch over the nations : * let rebels not rise against him.

O peoples, bless our God, * let the voice of his praise resound, of the God who gave life to our souls * and kept our feet from stumbling.

For you, O God, have tested us, * you have tried us as silver is tried :

you led us, God, into the snare ; * you laid a heavy burden on our backs.

You let men ride over our heads ; † we went through fire and through water * but then you brought us relief.

Burnt offering I bring to your house ; * to you I will pay my vows, the vows which my lips have uttered, * which my mouth spoke in my distress.

I will offer burnt offerings of fatlings † with the smoke of burning rams. * I will offer bullocks and goats.

Come and hear, all who fear God. * I will tell what he did for my soul :

to him I cried aloud, * with high praise ready on my tongue.

If there had been evil in my heart, * the Lord would not have listened.

But truly God has listened ; *

he has heeded the voice of my prayer.

Blessèd be God who did not reject my prayer * nor withhold his love from me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Let God arise, * let his foes be scattered. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Psalm 67
Triumphal entry of the Lord

When he ascended on high he led captivity captive, he gave gifts to men (Ephesians 4 : 8).

I

LET God arise, let his foes be scattered. * † Let those who hate him flee before him.

As smoke is blown away * so will they be blown away ; like wax that melts before the fire, * so the wicked shall perish at the presence of God.

But the just shall rejoice at the presence of God, * they shall exult and dance for joy.

O sing to the Lord, make music to his name ; * make a highway for him who rides on the clouds.

Rejoice in the Lord, * exult at his presence.

Father of the orphan, defender of the widow, * such is God in his holy place.

God gives the lonely a home to live in ; † he leads the prisoners forth into freedom : * but rebels must dwell in a parched land.

When you went forth, O God, at the head of your people, * when you marched across the desert, the earth trembled :

the heavens melted at the presence of God, * at the presence of God, Israel's God.

You poured down, O God, a generous rain : * when your people were starved you gave them new life.

It was there that your people found a home, * prepared in your goodness, O God, for the poor.

The Lord gives the word to the bearers of good tidings : * " The Almighty has defeated a numberless army and kings and armies are in flight, in flight * while you were at rest among the sheepfolds. "

At home the women already share the spoil. * They are covered with silver as the wings of a dove, its feathers brilliant with shining gold * and jewels flashing like snow on Mount Zalmon.

The mountains of Bashan are mighty mountains ; * high-ridged mountains are the mountains of Bashan.

Why look with envy, you high-ridged mountains, † at the mountain where God has chosen to dwell ? * It is there that the Lord shall dwell for ever.

The chariots of God are thousands upon thousands. * The Lord has come from Sinai to the holy place.

You have gone up on high ; you have taken captives, † receiving men in tribute, O God, * even those who rebel, into your dwelling, O Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

MAY the Lord be blest day after day. * He bears our burdens, God our savior.

This God of ours is a God who saves. * The Lord our God holds the keys of death.

And God will smite the head of his foes, * the crown of those who persist in their sins.

The Lord said : " I will bring them back from Bashan ; * I will bring them back from the depth of the sea.

Then your feet will tread in their blood * and the tongues of your dogs take their share of the foe. "

They see your solemn procession, O God, * the procession of my God, of my king, to the sanctuary :

the singers in the forefront, the musicians coming last, * between them, maidens sounding their timbrels.

" In festive gatherings, bless the Lord ; * bless God, O you who are Israel's sons. "

There is Benjamin, least of the tribes, at the head, † Judah's princes, a mighty throng, * Zebulun's princes, Naphtali's princes.

Show forth, O God, show forth your might, * your might, O God, which you have shown for us.

For the sake of your temple high in Jerusalem * may kings come to you bringing their tribute.

Threaten the wild beast that dwells in the reeds, † the bands of the mighty and lords of the peoples. * Let them bow down offering silver.

Scatter the peoples who delight in war. † Princes will make their way from Egypt : * Ethiopia will stretch out her hands to God.

Kingdoms of the earth, sing to God, praise the Lord * who rides on the heavens, the ancient heavens.

He thunders his voice, his mighty voice. * Come, acknowledge the power of God.

His glory is on Israel ; † his might is in the skies. * God is to be feared in his holy place.

He is the Lord, Israel's God. † He gives strength and power to his people. * Blessèd be God !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Canticle 1 Samuel 2 : 1-10

The humble rejoice in God

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things (Luke 1 : 52-53).

MY heart exults in the Lord, * my horn is exalted in my God.
I have swallowed up my enemies ; * I rejoice in my victory.
There is no Holy One like the Lord ; * there is no Rock like our God.
Speak boastfully no longer, * nor let arrogance issue from your mouths.
For an all-knowing God is the Lord, * a God who judges deeds.
The bows of the mighty are broken, * while the tottering gird on strength.
The well-fed hire themselves out for bread, * while the hungry batten on spoil.

The barren wife bears seven sons, * while the mother of many languishes.

The Lord puts to death and gives life ; † he casts down to the nether world ; * he raises up again.

The Lord makes poor and makes rich, * he humbles, he also exalts.

He raises the needy from the dust ; * from the dung heap he lifts up the poor, to seat them with nobles * and make a glorious throne their heritage.

For the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, * and he has set the world upon them.

He will guard the footsteps of his faithful ones, * but the wicked shall perish in the darkeness.

For not by strength does man prevail ; * the Lord's foes shall be shattered.

The Most High in heaven thunders ; * the Lord judges the ends of the earth.

Now may he give strength to his king * and exalt the horn of his anointed !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

These things all happened as warnings for us (1 Cor 10 : 6).

I

GIVE heed, my people, to my teaching ; * turn your ear to the words of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a parable * and reveal hidden lessons of the past.

The things we have heard and understood, * the things our fathers have told us, these we will not hide from their children * but will tell them to the next generation :

the glories of the Lord and his might * and the marvelous deeds he has done, the witness he gave to Jacob,

* the law he established in Israel.

He gave a command to our fathers * to make it known to their children that the next generation might know it, * the children yet to be born.

They too should arise and tell their sons * that they too should set their hope in God and never forget God's deeds * but keep every one of his commands :

so that they might not be like their fathers, * a defiant and rebellious race, a race whose heart was fickle, * whose spirit was unfaithful to God.

The sons of Ephraim, armed with the bow, * turned back in the day of battle.

They failed to keep God's covenant * and would not walk according to his law.

They forgot the things he had done, * the marvelous deeds he had shown them.

He did wonders in the sight of their fathers, * in Egypt, in the plains of Zoan.

He divided the sea and led them through * and made the waters stand up like a wall.

By day he led them with a cloud : * by night, with a light of fire.

He split the rocks in the desert. * He gave them plentiful drink as from the deep.

He made streams flow out from the rock * and made waters run down like rivers.

Yet still they sinned against him ; * they defied the Most High in the desert.

In their heart they put God to the test * by demanding the food they craved.

They even spoke against God. They said : * " Is it possible for God to prepare a table in the desert ?

It was he who struck the rock, * water flowed and swept down in torrents.

But can he also give us bread ? * Can he provide meat for his people ? "

When he heard this the Lord was angry. * A fire was kindled against Jacob, his anger rose against Israel for having no faith in God ; * for refusing to trust in his help.

Yet he commanded the clouds above * and opened the gates of heaven.

He rained down manna for their food, * and gave them bread from heaven.

Mere men ate the bread of angels. * He sent them abundance of food :

he made the east wind blow from heaven * and roused the south wind by his might.

He rained food on them like dust, * wingèd fowl like the sands of the sea.

He let it fall in the midst of their camp * and all around their tents.

So they ate and had their fill ; * and he gave them all they craved.

But before they had sated their craving, * while the food was still in their mouths,

God's anger rose against them. † He slew the strongest among them, * struck down the flower of Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

The Lord saved them from the hand of the foe.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

God built * his shrine on earth.

II

DEspite this they went on sinning ; * they had no faith in his wonders :

so he ended their days like a breath * and their years in sudden ruin.

When he slew them then they would seek him, * return and seek him in earnest.

They would remember that God was their rock, * God the Most High their redeemer.

But the words they spoke were mere flattery ; * they lied to him with their lips.

For their hearts were not truly with him ; * they were not faithful to his covenant.

Yet he who is full of compassion * forgave them their sin and spared them.

So often he held back his anger * when he might have stirred up his rage.

He remembered they were only men, * a breath that passes never to return.

How often they defied him in the wilderness * and caused him pain in the desert !

Yet again they put God to the test * and grieved the Holy One of Israel.

They did not remember his deeds * nor the day he saved them from the foe ;

when he worked his miracles in Egypt, * his wonders in the plains of Zoan :

when he turned their rivers into blood, * made their streams impossible to drink.

He sent dog-flies against them to devour them * and swarms of frogs to molest them.

He gave their crops to the grub, * the fruit of their labor to the locust.

He destroyed their vines with hail, * their sycamore trees with frost.

He gave up their cattle to plague, * their flocks and herds to pestilence.

He turned on them the heat of his anger, * fury, rage and havoc, a troop of destroying angels. * He gave free course to his anger.

He did not spare them from death * but gave their lives to the plague.

He struck all the first-born in Egypt, * the finest flower in the dwellings of Ham.

Then he brought forth his people like sheep ; * he guided his flock in the desert.

He led them safely with nothing to fear, * while the sea engulfed their foes.

So he brought them to his holy land, * to the mountain which his right hand had won.

He drove out the nations before them, * and divided the land for their heritage.

Their tents he gave as a dwelling * to each one of Israel's tribes.

Still they put God to the proof and defied him ; * they refused to obey the Most High.

They strayed, as faithless as their fathers, * like a bow on which the archer cannot count.

With their mountain shrines they angered him ; * made him jealous with the idols they served.

God saw and was filled with fury : * he utterly rejected Israel.

He forsook his dwelling place in Shiloh, * the tent where he lived among men.

He gave his ark into captivity, * his glorious ark into the hands of the foe.

He gave up his people to the sword, * in his anger against his chosen ones.

So war devoured their young men, * their maidens had no wedding songs ; their priests fell by the sword * and their widows made no lament.

Then the Lord awoke as if from sleep, * like a warrior overcome with wine.

He struck his foes from behind * and put them to everlasting shame.

He rejected the tent of Joseph ; * He did not choose the tribe of Ephraim but he chose the tribe of Judah, * the hill of Sion which he loves.

He built his shrine like the heavens, * or like the earth which he made firm for ever.

And he chose David his servant * and took him away from the sheepfolds.

From the care of the ewes he called him † to be shepherd of Jacob his people, * of Israel his own possession.

He tended them with blameless heart, * with discerning mind he led them.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 78

Lament over Jerusalem

Would that you knew . . . the things that make for peace (Luke 19 : 42).

O God, the nations have invaded your land, † they have profaned your holy temple. * They have made Jerusalem a heap of ruins.

They have handed over the bodies of your servants † as food to feed the birds of heaven * and the flesh of your faithful to the beasts of the earth.

They have poured our blood like water in Jerusalem ; * no one is left to bury the dead.

We have become the taunt of our neighbors, * the mockery and scorn of those who surround us.

How long, O Lord ? † Will you be angry for ever ; * how long will your anger burn like fire ?

Pour out your rage on the nations, * the nations that do not know you.

Pour out your rage on the kingdoms * that do not call on your name ; for they have devoured Jacob * and laid waste the land where he dwells.

Do not hold the guilt of our fathers against us. † Let your compassion hasten to meet us ; * we are left in the depths of distress.

O God our savior, come to our help. * Come for the sake of the glory of your name.

O Lord our God, forgive us our sins ; * rescue us for the sake of your name.

Why should the nations say : * " Where is their God ? "

Let us see the nations around us repaid * with vengeance for the blood of your servants that was shed !

Let the groans of the prisoners come before you ; * let your strong arm reprieve those condemned to die.

Pay back to our neighbors seven times over * the taunts with which they taunted you, O Lord.

But we, your people, the flock of your pasture, † will give you thanks for ever and ever. * We will tell your praise from age to age.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 89

Let the splendor of the Lord be upon us

With the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like a day (2 Peter 3 : 8).

O Lord, you have been our refuge * † from one generation to the next.

Before the mountains were born † or the earth or the world brought forth, * you are God, without beginning or end.

You turn men back into dust and say : " Go back, sons of men. "

To your eyes a thousand years † are like yesterday, come and gone, * no more than a watch in the night.

You sweep men away like a dream, * like grass which springs up in the morning.

In the morning it springs up and flowers : * by evening it withers and fades.

So we are destroyed in your anger, * struck with terror in your fury.

Our guilt lies open before you ; * our secrets in the light of your face.

All our days pass away in your anger. * Our life is over like a sigh.

Our span is seventy years, * or eighty for those who are strong.

And most of these are emptiness and pain. * They pass swiftly and we are gone.

Who understands the power of your anger * and fears the strength of your fury ?

Make us know the shortness of our life * that we may gain wisdom of heart.

Lord, relent ! Is your anger for ever ? * Show pity to your servants.

In the morning, fill us with your love ; * we shall exult and rejoice all our days.

Give us joy to balance our affliction * for the years when we knew misfortune.

Show forth your work to your servants ; * let your glory shine on their children.

Let the favor of the Lord be upon us : † give success to the work of our hands, * give success to the work of our hands.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Mercy and truth * shall go before your face, O Lord.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 88

The Lord's mercies towards the house of David

God has raised up one from the house of David as he promised : Jesus the Savior (Acts 13 : 22-23).

I

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord ; * through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.

Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever, * that your truth is firmly established as the heavens.

" With my chosen one I have made a covenant ; * I have sworn to David my servant :

I will establish your dynasty for ever * and set up your throne through all ages. "

The heavens proclaim your wonders, O Lord ; * the assembly of your holy ones proclaims your truth.

For who in the skies can compare with the Lord * or who is like the Lord among the sons of God ?

A God to be feared in the council of the holy ones, * great and dreadful to all around him.

O Lord God of hosts, who is your equal ? * You are mighty, O Lord, and truth is your garment.

It is you who rule the sea in its pride ; * it is you who still the surging of its waves.

It is you who trod Rahab underfoot like a corpse, * scattering your foes with your mighty arm.

The heavens are yours, the world is yours. * It is you who founded the earth and all it holds;

it is you who created the North and the South. * Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at your name.

Yours is a mighty arm, O Lord ; * your hand is strong, your right hand ready.

Justice and right are the pillars of your throne, * love and truth walk in your presence.

Happy the people who acclaim such a king, * who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face, who find their joy every day in your name, * who make your justice the source of their bliss.

For you, O Lord, are the glory of their strength ; * by your favor it is that our might is exalted:

for our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord ; * our king in the keeping of the Holy One of Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Mercy and truth shall go before your face, O Lord.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

And I will make him * my first-born, / the highest of the kings of the earth.

II

OF old you spoke in a vision. * To your friends the prophets you said:

" I have set the crown on a warrior, * I have exalted one chosen from the people.

I have found David my servant * and with my holy oil anointed him.

My hand shall always be with him * and my arm shall make him strong.

The enemy shall never outwit him * nor the evil man oppress him.

I will beat down his foes before him * and smite those who hate him.

My truth and my love shall be with him ; * by my name his might shall be exalted.

I will stretch out his hand to the Sea * and his right hand as far as the River.

He will say to me : " You are my father, * my God, the rock who saves me. "

And I will make him my first-born, * the highest of the kings of the earth.

I will keep my love for him always ; * with him my covenant shall last.

I will establish his dynasty for ever, * make his throne endure as the heavens.

If his sons forsake my law * and refuse to walk as I decree and if ever they violate my statutes, * refusing to keep my commands ;

then I will punish their offenses with the rod, * then I will scourge them on account of their guilt.

But I will never take back my love, * my truth will never fail.

I will never violate my covenant * nor go back on the word I have spoken.

Once for all, I have sworn by my holiness. * ' I will never lie to David.

His dynasty shall last for ever. * In my sight his throne is like the sun ;

like the moon, it shall endure for ever, * a faithful witness in the skies. ' "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

III

AND yet you have spurned, rejected, * you are angry with the one you have anointed.

You have broken your covenant with your servant * and dishonored his crown in the dust.

You have broken down all his walls * and reduced his fortresses to ruins.

He is despoiled by all who pass by : * he has become the taunt of his neighbors.

You have exalted the right hand of his foes ; * you have made all his enemies rejoice.

You have made his sword give way, * you have not upheld him in battle.

You have brought his glory to an end ; * you have hurled his throne to the ground.

You have cut short the years of his youth ; * you have heaped disgrace upon him.

How long, O Lord ? † Will you hide yourself for ever ? * How long will your anger burn like a fire ?

Remember, Lord, the shortness of my life * and how frail you have made the sons of men.

What man can live and never see death ? * Who can save himself from the grasp of the grave ?

Where are your mercies of the past, O Lord, * which you have sworn in your faithfulness to David ?

Remember, Lord, how your servant is taunted, * how I have to bear all the insults of the peoples.

Thus your enemies taunt me, O Lord, † mocking your anointed at every step. * Blessèd be the Lord for ever. Amen, amen !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 66

People of all nations will give praise to the Lord

Let it be known to you that this salvation from God has been sent to all peoples (Acts 28 : 28).

O God, be gracious and bless us * † and let your face shed its light upon us.

So will your ways be known upon earth * and all nations learn your saving help.

Let the peoples praise you, O God ; * let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and exult * for you rule the world with justice.

With fairness you rule the peoples, * you guide the nations on earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God ; * let all the peoples praise you.

The earth has yielded its fruit * for God, our God, has blest us.

May God still give us his blessing * till the ends of the earth revere him.

Let the peoples praise you, O God ; * let all the peoples praise you.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

God will appear in judgment

Lift up your heads, for your redemption is near at hand (Luke 21 : 28).

O Lord, I have heard your renown, * and feared, O Lord, your work.

In the course of the years revive it, † in the course of the years make it known ; * in your wrath remember compassion !

God comes from Teman, * the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Covered are the heavens with his glory, * and with his praise the earth is filled.

His splendor spreads like the light ; † rays shine forth from beside him, * where his power is concealed.

You come forth to save your people, * to save your anointed one.

You tread the sea with your steeds * amid the churning of the deep waters.

I hear, and my body trembles ; * at the sound, my lips quiver.

Decay invades my bones, * my legs tremble beneath me.

I await the day of distress * that will come upon the people who attack us.

For though the fig tree blossom not * nor fruit be on the vines, though the yield of the olive fail * and the terraces produce no nourishment,

Though the flocks disappear from the fold * and there be no herd in the stalls, yet will I rejoice in the Lord * and exult in my saving God.

God, my Lord, is my strength ; † he makes my feet swift as those of hinds * and enables me to go upon the heights.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Even in your anger, Lord, you will remember compassion.

Paschaltide :

You go forth to save your people, / to save your Anointed One, alleluia.

3 Antiphon

Psalm 150

Praise the Lord

Let mind and heart be in your song : this is to glorify God with your whole self (Hesychius).

PRAISE God in his holy place, * praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, * praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, * praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, * praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes * give praise to the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Reading

Through the Year Ephesians 2 : 13-16

NOW in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near through the blood of Christ. It is he who is our peace, and who made the two of us one by breaking down the barrier of hostility that kept us apart. In his own flesh he abolished the law with its commands and precepts, to create in himself one new man from us who had been two and to make peace, reconciling both of us to God in one body through his cross, which put that enmity to death.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1 : 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

O Lord my God, * how great you are.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 103
Hymn to the Lord the Creator

If any one is in Christ, he is a new creation ; the old has passed away, behold, the new has come (2 Corinthians 5 : 17).

BLESS the Lord, my soul ! * Lord God, how great you are, clothed in majesty and glory, * wrapped in light as in a robe!

You stretch out the heavens like a tent. * Above the rains you build your dwelling.

You make the clouds your chariot, * you walk on the wings of the wind, you make the winds your messengers * and flashing fire your servants.

You founded the earth on its base, * to stand firm from age to age.

You wrapped it with the ocean like a cloak : * the waters stood higher than the mountains.

At your threat they took to flight ; * at the voice of your thunder they fled.

They rose over the mountains and flowed down * to the place which you had appointed.

You set limits they might not pass * lest they return to cover the earth.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys : * they flow in between the hills.

They give drink to all the beasts of the field ; * the wild-asses quench their thirst.

On their banks dwell the birds of heaven ; * from the branches they sing their song.

From your dwelling you water the hills ; * earth drinks its fill of your gift.

You make the grass grow for the cattle * and the plants to serve man's needs, that he may bring forth bread from the earth * and wine to cheer man's heart ;

oil, to make his face shine * and bread to strengthen man's heart.

The trees of the Lord drink their fill, * the cedars he planted on Lebanon ;

there the birds build their nests : * on the tree top the stork has her home.

The goats find a home on the mountains * and rabbits hide in the rocks.

You made the moon to mark the months ; * the sun knows the time for its setting.

When you spread the darkness it is night * and all the beasts of the forest creep forth.

The young lions roar for their prey * and ask their food from God.

At the rising of the sun they steal away * and go to rest in their dens.

Man goes forth to his work, * to labor till evening falls.

How many are your works, O Lord ! † In wisdom you have made them all. * The earth is full of your riches.

There is the sea, vast and wide, † with its moving swarms past counting, * living things great and small.

The ships are moving there * and the monsters you made to play with.

All of these look to you * to give them their food in due season.

You give it, they gather it up : * you open your hand, they have their fill.

You hide your face, they are dismayed ; † you take back your spirit, they die, * returning to the dust from which they came.

You send forth your spirit, they are created ; * and you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever ! * May the Lord rejoice in his works !

He looks on the earth and it trembles ; * the mountains send forth smoke at his touch.

I will sing to the Lord all my life, * make music to my God while I live.

May my thoughts be pleasing to him. * I find my joy in the Lord.

Let sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked exist no more. * Bless the Lord, my soul.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

O Lord my God, how great you are.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Let the hearts * that seek the Lord rejoice.

Psalm 104

The Lord is faithful to his promises

The apostles proclaim to the peoples the wonderful deeds which God wrought when he came among us (Saint Athanasius).

I

GIVE thanks to the Lord, tell his name, * make known his deeds among the peoples.

O sing to him, sing his praise ; * tell all his wonderful works !

Be proud of his holy name, * let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice.

Consider the Lord and his strength ; * constantly seek his face.

Remember the wonders he has done, * his miracles, the judgments he spoke.

O children of Abraham, his servant, * O sons of the Jacob he chose.

He, the Lord, is our God : * his judgments prevail in all the earth.

He remembers his covenant for ever, * his promise for a thousand generations, the covenant he made with Abraham, * the oath he swore to Isaac.

He confirmed it for Jacob as a law, * for Israel as a covenant for ever.

He said : " I am giving you a land, * Canaan, your appointed heritage. "

When they were few in number, * a handful of strangers in the land, when they wandered from country to country, * from one kingdom and nation to another, he allowed no one to oppress them ; * he admonished kings on their account :

" Do not touch those I have anointed ; * do no harm to any of my prophets. "

But he called down a famine on the land ; * he broke the staff that supported them.

He had sent a man before them, * Joseph, sold as a slave.

His feet were put in chains, * his neck was bound with iron, until what he said came to pass * and the word of the Lord proved him true.

Then the king sent and released him ; * the ruler of the people set him free, making him master of his house * and ruler of all he possessed, to instruct his princes as he pleased * and to teach his elders wisdom.

So Israel came into Egypt ; * Jacob lived in the country of Ham.

He gave his people increase ; * he made them stronger than their foes, whose hearts he turned to hate his people * and to deal deceitfully with his servants.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

God * brought out his people with joy, / his chosen ones with shouts of rejoicing.

II

THEN he sent Moses his servant * and Aaron the man he had chosen.

Through them he showed his marvels * and his wonders in the country of Ham.

He sent darkness, and dark was made * but Egypt resisted his words.

He turned the waters into blood * and caused their fish to die.

Their land was alive with frogs, * even in the halls of their kings.

He spoke ; the dog-fly came * and gnats covered the land.

He sent hail-stones in place of the rain * and flashing fire in their land.

He struck their vines and fig-trees ; * he shattered the trees through their land.

He spoke ; the locusts came, * young locusts, too many to be counted.

They ate up every blade in the land ; * they ate up all the fruit of their fields.

He struck all the first-born in their land, * the finest flower of their sons.

He led out Israel with silver and gold. * In his tribes were none who fell behind.

Egypt rejoiced when they left * for dread had fallen upon them.

He spread a cloud as a screen * and fire to give light in the darkness.

When they asked for food he sent quails ; * he filled them with bread from heaven.

He pierced the rock to give them water ; * it gushed forth in the desert like a river.

For he remembered his holy word, * which he gave to Abraham his servant.

So he brought out his people with joy, * his chosen ones with shouts of rejoicing.

And he gave them the land of the nations. * They took the fruit of other men's toil, that thus they might keep his precepts, * that thus they might observe his laws.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Prayer in time of desolation

A man is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ (Gal 2 : 16).

LORD, listen to my prayer : † turn your ear to my appeal. * You are faithful, you are just ; give answer.

Do not call your servant to judgment * for no one is just in your sight.

The enemy pursues my soul ; * he has crushed my life to the ground ;

he has made me dwell in darkness * like the dead, long forgotten.

Therefore my spirit fails ; * my heart is numb within me.

I remember the days that are past : * I ponder all your works.

Lord, make haste and answer ; * for my spirit fails within me.

Do not hide your face * lest I become like those in the grave.

In the morning let me know your love * for I put my trust in you.

Make me know the way I should walk : * to you I lift up my soul.

Rescue me, Lord, from my enemies ; * I have fled to you for refuge.

Teach me to do your will * for you, O Lord, are my God.

The loving deeds which God wrought for his people

How often have I longed to gather your children as a hen gathers her young under her wings (Mt 23 : 27).

GIVE ear, O heavens, while I speak ; * let the earth hearken to the words of my mouth !

May my instruction soak in like the rain, * and my discourse permeate like the dew, like a downpour upon the grass, * like a shower upon the crops :

For I will sing the Lord's renown. * Oh, proclaim the greatness of our God !

The Rock—how faultless are his deeds, * how right all his ways !

A faithful God, without deceit, * how just and upright he is !

Yet basely has he been treated by his degenerate children, * a perverse and crooked race !

Is the Lord to be thus repaid by you, * O stupid and foolish people ?

Is he not your father who created you ? * Has he not made you and established you ?

Think back on the days of old, * reflect on the years of age upon age.

Ask your father and he will inform you, * ask your elders and they will tell you :

When the Most High assigned the nations their heritage, * when he parceled out the descendants of Adam, he set up the boundaries of the peoples * after the number of the sons of God ;

while the Lord's own portion was Jacob, * his hereditary share was Israel.

He found them in a wilderness, * a wasteland of howling desert.

He shielded them and cared for them, * guarding them as the apple of his eye.

As an eagle incites its nestlings forth * by hovering over its brood, so he spread his wings to receive them * and bore them up on his pinions.

The Lord alone was their leader, * no strange god was with them.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1 : 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated, 288-89.

Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

But deliver us from evil.

Then is said :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

I. Through the Year :

Let us pray. Prayer

LORD, we praise you with our lips, and with our lives and hearts. * Our very existence is a gift from you ; to you we offer all that we have and are. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

II. Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Saturday :

Let us pray. Prayer

LORD our God, you sent your Son from heaven into the womb of the Blessed Virgin to be your saving Word and our Bread of Life. * Grant that like Mary we may welcome Christ by treasuring his words in our hearts and celebrating with deep faith the mysteries of our redemption. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen

After the Prayer :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Benedicamus Domino

II

LET us bless the Lord. ℟. Thanks be to God.

Week III

I Nocturn

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The Lord * is the stronghold of my life.

Advent :

Rejoice and be glad, * O daughter of Jerusalem : / behold, your king will come to you. / Sion, fear not, / for your salvation comes quickly.

Lent :

My light * and my salvation is the Lord.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * the stone has been rolled away, alleluia, / from the entrance of the tomb, / alleluia, alleluia.

The Psalms of the Nocturn are chanted under this one Antiphon.

Ascension to Pentecost :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

The Psalms of the Nocturn are chanted under this one Antiphon.

Psalm 26

Trust in time of danger

Behold among men the dwelling place of God
(Apocalypse 21 : 3).

THE Lord is my light and my help ; * whom shall I fear ?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life ; * before whom shall I shrink ?

When evil-doers draw near to devour my flesh, * it is they, my enemies and foes, who stumble and fall.

Though an army encamp against me * my heart would not fear.

Though war break out against me * even then would I trust.

There is one thing I ask of the Lord, * for this I long, to live in the house of the Lord, * all the days of my life, to savor the sweetness of the Lord, * to behold his temple.

For there he keeps me safe in his tent * in the day of evil.

He hides me in the shelter of his tent, * on a rock he sets me safe.

And now my head shall be raised * above my foes who surround me and I shall offer within his tent a sacrifice of joy. * I will sing and make music for the Lord.

O Lord, hear my voice when I call ; * have mercy and answer.

Of you my heart has spoken : * " Seek his face. "

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek ; * hide not your face.

Dismiss not your servant in anger ; * you have been my help.

Do not abandon or forsake me, * O God my help !

Though father and mother forsake me, * the Lord will receive me.

Instruct me, Lord, in your way ; * on an even path lead me.

When they lie in ambush protect me * from my enemy's greed.

False witnesses rise against me, * breathing out fury.

I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness * in the land of the living.

Hope in him, hold firm and take heart. * Hope in the Lord !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

During Paschaltide, the next Psalm follows immediately.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

My God * has become my helper.

Advent :

Christ our King comes, * whom John preached, saying : / " Behold the lamb that should come. "

Lent :

Hear the voice * of my pleading as I call for help.

Psalm 27

Supplication and thanksgiving

Father, I thank you that you have heard me (Jn 11 : 41).

TO you, O Lord, I call, * my rock, hear me.
If you do not heed I shall become * like those in the grave.
Hear the voice of my pleading * as I call for help,
as I lift up my hands in prayer * to your holy place.
Do not drag me away with the wicked, * with the evil-doers, who speak words of peace to their neighbors * but with evil in their hearts.
Repay them as their actions deserve * and the malice of their deeds.
Repay them for the work of their hands ; * give them their deserts.
For they ignore the deeds of the Lord † and the work of his hands. * May he ruin them and never rebuild them.
Blessèd be Lord for he has heard * my cry, my appeal.
The Lord is my strength and my shield ; * in him my heart trusts.
I was helped, my heart rejoices * and I praise him with my song.
The Lord is the strength of his people, * a fortress where his anointed find salvation.
Save your people ; bless Israel your heritage. * Be their shepherd and carry them for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

During Paschaltide, the next Psalm follows immediately.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Adore * the Lord in his holy court.

Advent :

Behold, I come quickly * and my reward is with me, says the Lord, / to render to each one according to his works.

Lent :

The Lord * will give strength to his people.

Psalm 28

A tribute of praise to the word of God

And behold, a voice from heaven saying, " This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased " (Matthew 3 : 17).

O give the Lord, you sons of God, * give the Lord glory and power ; give the Lord the glory of his name. * Adore the Lord in his holy court.

The Lord's voice resounding on the waters, * the Lord on the immensity of waters ;

the voice of the Lord, full of power, * the voice of the Lord, full of splendor.

The Lord's voice shattering the cedars, * the Lord shatters the cedars of Lebanon ;

he makes Lebanon leap like a calf † and Sirion like a young wild-ox. * The Lord's voice flashes flames of fire.

The Lord's voice shaking the wilderness, * the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh ;

the Lord's voice rending the oak tree * and stripping the forest bare.

The God of glory thunders. * In his temple they all cry : " Glory ! "

The Lord sat enthroned over the flood ; * the Lord sits as king for ever.

The Lord will give strength to his people, * the Lord will bless his people with peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated, 300.

3 Antiphon

Ant. With all my heart * I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

Canticle Isaiah 33 : 2-10

Prayer of trust in need

In Christ are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge (Colossians 2 : 3).

O Lord, be gracious to us ; we wait for you. † Be our strong arm every morning, * our salvation in the time of trouble.

At the voice of the Angel the peoples flee, * at the lifting up of yourself nations are scattered ;

and spoil is gathered as the caterpillar gathers ; * as locusts leap, men leap upon it.

The Lord is exalted, for he dwells on high ; * he will fill Sion with justice and righteousness ;

and he will be the stability of your times, † abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge ; * the fear of the Lord is his treasure.

Behold, the valiant ones cry without ; * the angels of peace weep bitterly.

The highways lie waste, * the wayfaring man ceases.

Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised, * there is no regard for man.

The land mourns and languishes ; * Lebanon is confounded and withers away ;

Sharon is like a desert ; * and Bashon and Carmel shake off their leaves.

Now I will arise, says the Lord, * now I will lift myself up ; now I will be exalted.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. With all my heart I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

Second Reading, 306.

During Advent

Ant. The angel Gabriel * spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

Canticle Isaiah 40 : 10-17

The Good Shepherd : God most high and most wise

Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense to repay everyone for what he has done (Apocalypse 22 : 12).

BEhold, the Lord God comes with might, * and his arm rules for him ;

Behold, his reward is with him, * and his recompense before him.

He will feed his flock like a shepherd, * he will gather the lambs in his arms,

he will carry them in his bosom, * and gently lead those that are with young.

Who has measured the waters * in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, * enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure and weighed the mountains in scales * and the hills in a balance ?

Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, * or as his counselor has instructed him ?

Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, * and who taught him the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, * and showed him the way of understanding ?

Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket, * and are accounted as the dust on the scales ;

behold, he takes up the isles like fine dust, † Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, * nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering.

All the nations are as nothing before him, * they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. The angel Gabriel spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

℣. The Lord will come forth from his holy place.
℟. He will come to save his people.

During Lent

Ant. Turn us back * to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

Canticle Lamentations 5 : 1-7. 15-17. 19-21

The lament of the people in time of war and famine

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand ; repent, and believe in the Gospel (Mark 1 : 15).

LET my eyes run down with tears night and day, * and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter of my people is smitten with a great wound * with a very grievous blow.

If I go out into the field, * behold, those slain by the sword !

And if I enter the city, * behold, the diseases of famine !

For both prophet and priest ply their trade through the land, * and have no knowledge.

Have you utterly rejected Judah ? * Does your soul loathe Sion ?

Why have you smitten us * so that there is no healing for us ?

We looked for peace, * but no good came ;

for a time of healing ; * but behold, terror.

We acknowledge our wickedness, O Lord, † and the iniquity of our fathers, * for we have sinned against you.

Do not spurn us for your name's sake ; † do not dishonor your glorious throne ; * remember and do not break your covenant with us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. Turn us back to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

℣. You shall adore the Lord your God.
℟. Him only shall you serve.

During Paschaltide and Ascension to Pentecost

During Paschaltide :

Ant. Come, * let us adore the One who rose from the dead. / Through the Cross joy came into the world, alleluia.

Ascension to Pentecost :

Ant. And they went forth * and preached everywhere, / while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message / by the signs that attended it, alleluia.

Canticle Isaiah 63 : 1-5

The Lord alone has triumphed over the enemy

And they have conquered him by the Blood of the Lamb (Apocalypse 12 : 11).

WHO is this that comes from Edom, * in crimson garments from Bosrah, he that is glorious in his apparel, * marching in the greatness of his strength ?

" It is I, announcing vindication, * mighty to save. "

Why is your apparel red, * and your garments like his that treads in the wine press ?

" I have trodden the wine press alone, * and from the peoples no one was with me ;

I trod them in my anger * and trampled them in my wrath ;

their lifeblood is sprinkled upon my garments, * and I have stained all my raiment.

For the day of vengeance was in my heart, * and my year of redemption has come.

I looked, but there was no one to help ; * I was appalled, but there was no one to uphold ;

so my own arm brought me victory, * and my wrath upheld me. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

During Paschaltide :

℣. Christ, having risen from the dead, dies now no more, alleluia.

℟. Death shall no longer have dominion over him, alleluia.

Ascension to Pentecost :

Te Deum laudamus

WE praise you, O God, * we acknowledge you to be the Lord.

All the world worships you, * the Father everlasting.

To you all the angels cry aloud, * the heavens and all the powers therein :

To you the Cherubim and Seraphim * continually do cry :

Holy,

Holy,

Holy * Lord God of Hosts.

Heaven and earth are full * of the majesty of your glory.

The glorious choir of the Apostles * praises you.

The admirable company of the Prophets * praises you.

The white-robed army of Martyrs * praises you.

Your holy Church throughout the world * acknowledges you :

The Father * of infinite majesty ;

Your true, and only Son, * who is to be adored ;

And the Holy Spirit, * the Comforter.

You are the King of glory, O Christ. * You are the everlasting Son of the Father.

When you took human nature to deliver man, * you did not disdain the Virgin's womb.

When you had overcome the sting of death, * you opened to believers the kingdom of heaven.

You are seated at the right hand of God, * in the glory of the Father.

We believe that you will come * to be our Judge.

The following verse is said kneeling :

We beseech you, therefore, help your servants, * whom you have redeemed with your precious Blood.

Make them to be numbered with your Saints * in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save your people, * and bless your inheritance.

Govern them, * and exalt them forever.

Day by day we bless you ; * and we praise your name forever and ever.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day * to keep us without sin.

Have mercy on us, O Lord, * have mercy on us.

Let your mercy be upon us, O Lord, * as we have hoped in you.

O Lord, in you I have hoped, * let me not be confounded forever.

Let all creatures praise the Lord

All you servants of the Lord, sing praise to him (Apocalypse 19: 5).

BLESS the Lord, all you works of the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Angels of the Lord, bless the Lord. * You heavens, bless the Lord.

All you waters above the heavens, bless the Lord. * All you hosts of the Lord, bless the Lord.

Sun and moon, bless the Lord. * Stars of heaven, bless the Lord.

Every shower and dew, bless the Lord. * All you winds, bless the Lord.

Fire and heat, bless the Lord. * Cold and chill, bless the Lord.

Dew and rain, bless the Lord. * Frost and chill, bless the Lord.

Ice and snow, bless the Lord. * Nights and days, bless the Lord.

Light and darkness, bless the Lord. * Lightnings and clouds, bless the Lord.

Let the earth bless the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Mountains and hills, bless the Lord. * Everything growing from the earth, bless the Lord.

You springs, bless the Lord. * Seas and rivers, bless the Lord.

You dolphins and all water creatures, bless the Lord. * All you birds of the air, bless the Lord.

All you beasts, wild and tame, bless the Lord. * You sons of men, bless the Lord.

O Israel, bless the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Priests of the Lord, bless the Lord. * Servants of the Lord, bless the Lord.

Spirits and souls of the just, bless the Lord. * Holy men of humble heart, bless the Lord.

Hananiah, Azariah, Mishael, bless the Lord. * Praise and exalt him above all forever.

Let us bless the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. * Let us praise and exalt him above all forever.

Blest are you, Lord, in the firmament of heaven. * Praiseworthy and glorious and exalted above all forever.

After this Canticle, the Glory be is not said.
The Antiphon is repeated.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Take away * your scourge from me, O Lord.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 38

Urgent prayer of a sick man

Creation was made subject to futility . . . by him who subjected it, but it is not without hope (Romans 8 : 20).

I said : " I will be watchful of my ways * for fear I should sin with my tongue.

I will put a curb on my lips * when the wicked man stands before me. "

I was dumb, silent and still. * His prosperity stirred my grief.

My heart was burning within me. † At the thought of it, the fire blazed up * and my tongue burst into speech :

" O Lord, you have shown me my end, † how short is the length of my days. * Now I know how fleeting is my life.

You have given me a short span of days ; * my life is as nothing in your sight.

A mere breath, the man who stood so firm, * a mere shadow, the man passing by, a mere breath the riches he hoards, * not knowing who will have them. "

And now, Lord, what is there to wait for ? * In you rests all my hope.

Set me free from all my sins, * do not make me the taunt of the fool.

I was silent, not opening my lips, * because this was all your doing.

Take away your scourge from me. * I am crushed by the blows of your hand.

You punish man's sins and correct him ; * like the moth you devour all he treasures.

Mortal man is no more than a breath ; * O Lord, hear my prayer.

O Lord, turn your ear to my cry. * Do not be deaf to my tears.

In your house I am a passing guest, * a pilgrim, like all my fathers.

Look away that I may breathe again * before I depart to be no more.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Take away your scourge from me, O Lord.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The Lord * stooped down to me ; / he heard my cry.

Psalm 39

Thanksgiving and plea for help

You wanted no sacrifice or oblation, but you have prepared a body for me (Hebrews 10 : 5).

I waited, I waited for the Lord † and he stooped down to me ; * he heard my cry.

He drew me from the deadly pit, * from the miry clay.

He set my feet upon a rock * and made my footsteps firm.

He put a new song into my mouth, * praise of our God.

Many shall see and fear * and shall trust in the Lord.

Happy the man who has placed * his trust in the Lord and has not gone over to the rebels * who follow false gods.

How many, O Lord my God, are the wonders and designs † that you have worked for us ; * you have no equal.

Should I proclaim and speak of them, * they are more than I can tell !

You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, * but an open ear.

You do not ask for holocaust and victim. * Instead, here am I.

In the scroll of the book it stands written * that I should do your will.

My God, I delight in your law * in the depth of my heart.

Your justice I have proclaimed * in the great assembly.

My lips I have not sealed ; * you know it, O Lord.

I have not hidden your justice in my heart * but declared your faithful help.

I have not hidden your love and your truth * from the great assembly.

O Lord, you will not withhold * your compassion from me.

Your merciful love and your truth * will always guard me.

For I am beset with evils * too many to be counted.

My sins have fallen upon me * and my sight fails me.

They are more than the hairs of my head * and my heart sinks.

O Lord, come to my rescue ; * Lord, come to my aid.

O let there be shame and confusion * on those who seek my life.

O let them turn back in confusion, * who delight in my harm.

Let them be appalled, covered with shame, * who jeer at my lot.

O let there be rejoicing and gladness * for all who seek you.

Let them ever say : " The Lord is great, " * who love your saving help.

As for me, wretched and poor, * the Lord thinks of me.

You are my rescuer, my help, * O God, do not delay.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Lord, * heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.

Psalm 40
Prayer in time of sickness

One of you will betray me—one who is eating with me (Mark 14 : 18).

HAPPY the man who considers the poor and the weak. * The Lord will save him in the day of evil, will guard him, give him life, make him happy in the land * and will not give him up to the will of his foes.

The Lord will help him on his bed of pain, * he will bring him back from sickness to health.

As for me, I said : " Lord, have mercy on me, * heal my soul for I have sinned against you. "

My foes are speaking evil against me. * " How long before he dies and his name be forgotten ? "

They come to visit me and speak empty words, * their hearts full of malice, they spread it abroad.

My enemies whisper together against me. * They all weigh up the evil which is on me :

" Some deadly thing has fastened upon him, * he will not rise again from where he lies. "

Thus even my friend, in whom I trusted, * who ate my bread, has turned against me.

But you, O Lord, have mercy on me. * Let me rise once more and I will repay them.

By this I shall know that you are my friend, * if my foes do not shout in triumph over me.

If you uphold me I shall be unharmed * and set in your presence for evermore.

Blessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel * from age to age. Amen. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 5
A morning prayer asking for help

Those who welcome the Word as the guest of their hearts will have abiding joy.

TO my words give ear, O Lord, * give heed to my groaning.

Attend to the sound of my cries, * my King and my God.

It is you whom I invoke, O Lord. * In the morning you hear me ;

in the morning I offer you my prayer, * watching and waiting.

You are no God who loves evil ; * no sinner is your guest.

The boastful shall not stand their ground * before your face.

You hate all who do evil ; * you destroy all who lie.

The deceitful and blood-thirsty man * the Lord detests.

But I through the greatness of your love * have access to your house.

I bow down before your holy temple, * filled with awe.

Lead me, Lord, in your justice, † because of those who lie in wait ; * make clear your way before me.

No truth can be found in their mouths, * their heart is all mischief, their throat a wide-open grave, * all honey their speech.

Declare them guilty, O God. * Let them fail in their designs.

Drive them out for their many offenses, * for they have defied you.

All those you protect shall be glad * and ring out their joy.

You shelter them ; in you they rejoice, * those who love your name.

It is you who bless the just man, Lord ; * you surround him with favor as with a shield.

Canticle Isaiah 2 : 2-5

The mountain of the Lord's house towers above very mountain

All nations shall come and worship you (Apocalypse 15:4).

IN days to come, * the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest mountain * and raised above the hills.

All nations shall stream toward it ; * many peoples shall come and say :

" Come, let us climb the mountain of the Lord, * to the house of the God of Jacob, that he many instruct us in his ways, * and we may walk in his paths. "

For from Sion shall go forth instruction, * and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

He shall judge between the nations, * and impose terms on many peoples.

They shall beat their swords into plowshares * and their spears into pruning hooks ;

one nation shall not raise the sword against another, * nor shall they train for war again.

O house of Jacob, come, * let us walk in the light of the Lord !

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

The Lord * has delivered his people from bondage.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 52

The foolishness of sinners

All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3 : 23).

THE fool has said in his heart : * " There is no God above. "

Their deeds are corrupt, depraved ; * not a good man is left.

God looks down from heaven * on the sons of men,

to see if any are wise, * if any seek God.

All have left the right path ; * depraved, every one.

There is not a good man left, * no, not even one.

Will the evil-doers not understand ? † They eat up my people as though they were eating bread ; * they never pray to God.

See how they tremble with fear * without cause for fear :

for God scatters the bones of the wicked. * They are shamed ; God rejects them.

O that Israel's salvation might come from Sion ! † When God delivers his people from bondage, * then Jacob will be glad and Israel rejoice.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

The Lord has delivered his people from bondage.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

I have God for my help. * The Lord upholds my life.

Psalm 53

Plea for help

The prophet prays in the name of the Lord to be freed from the malice of those who persecute him (Cassian).

O God, save me by your name ; * by your power, uphold my cause.

O God, hear my prayer ; * listen to the words of my mouth.

For proud men have risen against me, † ruthless men seek my life. * They have no regard for God.

But I have God for my help. * The Lord upholds my life.

Let the evil recoil upon my foes : * you who are faithful, destroy them.

I will sacrifice to you with willing heart * and praise your name for it is good :

for you have rescued me from all my distress * and my eyes have seen the downfall of my foes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

I have God for my help. / The Lord upholds my life.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Attend to me * and reply, O Lord.

Psalm 54

Against a friend turned traitor

Jesus began to feel a sudden fear and great distress (Mk 14 : 33).

O God, listen to my prayer * do not hide from my pleading, attend to me and reply ; * with my cares, I cannot rest.

I tremble at the shouts of the foe, * at the cries of the wicked ;

for they bring down evil upon me. * They assail me with fury.

My heart is stricken within me, * death's terror is on me, trembling and fear fall upon me * and horror overwhelms me.

O that I had wings like a dove * to fly away and be at rest.

So I would escape far away * and take refuge in the desert.

I would hasten to find a shelter * from the raging wind, from the destructive storm, O Lord, * and from their plotting tongues.

For I can see nothing but violence * and strife in the city.

Night and day they patrol * high on the city walls.

It is full of wickedness and evil ; * it is full of sin.

Its streets are never free * from tyranny and deceit.

If this had been done by an enemy * I could bear his taunts.

If a rival had risen against me, * I could hide from him.

But it is you, my own companion, my intimate friend ! *

How close was the friendship between us.

We walked together in harmony * in the house of God.

May death fall suddenly upon them ! * Let them go to the grave :

for wickedness dwells in their homes * and deep in their hearts.

As for me, I will cry to God * and the Lord will save me.

Evening, morning and at noon * I will cry and lament.

He will deliver my soul in peace * in the attack against me :

for those who fight me are many, * but he hears my voice.

God will hear and will humble them, * the eternal judge :

for they will not amend their ways. * They have no fear of God.

The traitor has turned against his friends ; * he has broken his word.

His speech is softer than butter, * but war is in his heart.

His words are smoother than oil, * but they are naked swords.

Entrust your cares to the Lord * and he will support you.

He will never allow * the just man to stumble.

But you, O God, will bring them down * to the pit of death.

Deceitful and bloodthirsty men † shall not live half their days. * O Lord, I will trust in you.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

TUESDAY III AT LAUDS

℣. O God, come to my assistance. Glory be. As it was.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

O Lord, * send forth your light and your truth.

December 17-23 :

Drop down dew, * you heavens, from above, / and let the clouds rain down the Just One ; / let the earth be opened, and bud forth the Savior.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 42
Longing for the Temple

I have come into the world to be its light (John 12 : 46).

DEFEND me, O God, and plead my cause * against a godless nation.

From deceitful and cunning men * rescue me, O God.

Since you, O God, are my stronghold, * why have you rejected me?

Why do I go mourning * oppressed by the foe?

O send forth your light and your truth ; * let these be my guide.

Let them bring me to your holy mountain, * to the place where you dwell.

And I will come to the altar of God, * the God of my joy.

My redeemer, I will thank you on the harp, * O God, my God.

Why are you cast down, my soul, * why groan within me ?

Hope in God ; I will praise him still, * my savior and my God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

O Lord, send forth your light and your truth.

December 17-23 :

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

My soul * has yearned for you in the night, / and as morning breaks I watch for your coming.

December 17-23 :

Reward them, O Lord, * who patiently wait for you, / that your prophets may be found faithful.

Paschaltide :

We have placed * all our hope in the Lord, / and he has given us his peace, alleluia.

Canticle Is 26 : 1-4. 7-9. 12

Hymn after the defeat of the enemy

The city wall had twelve foundation stones
(Cf. Apocalypse 21 : 14).

A strong city have we ; * he sets up wall and ramparts to protect us.

Open up the gates to let in a nation that is just, * one that keeps faith.

A nation of firm purpose you keep in peace ; * in peace, for its trust in you.

Trust in the Lord forever ! * For the Lord is an eternal Rock.

The way of the just is smooth ; * the path of the just you make level.

Yes, for your way and your judgments, O Lord, * we look to you ;

your name and your title * are the desire of our souls.

My soul yearns for you in the night, * yes, my spirit within me keeps vigil for you ;

when your judgment dawns upon the earth, * the world's inhabitants learn justice.

O Lord, you mete out peace to us, * for it is you who have accomplished all we have done.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

My soul has yearned for you in the night, / and as morning breaks I watch for your coming.

December 17-23 :

Reward them, O Lord, * who patiently wait for you, / that your prophets may be found faithful.

Paschaltide :

We have placed all our hope in the Lord, / and he has given us his peace, alleluia.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

All you his angels, * praise the Lord from the heavens.

December 17-23 :

The Law * was given by Moses, / but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 149
The joy of God's holy people

Let the sons of the Church, the children of the new people, rejoice in Christ, their King (Hesychius).

SING a new song to the Lord, * his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker, * let Sion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing * and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. * He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, * shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips * and a two-edged sword in their hand,

to deal out vengeance to the nations * and punishment on all the peoples ;

to bind their kings in chains * and their nobles in fetters of iron ;

to carry out the sentence pre-ordained : * this honor is for all his faithful.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

All you his angels, praise the Lord from the heavens.

December 17-23 :

The Law was given by Moses, / but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Reading

Through the Year 1 John 4 : 14-15

WE have seen for ourselves, and can testify, that the Father has sent the Son as savior of the world. When anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him and he in God.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Save me, O God, * for the waters have risen to my neck. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 68

Zeal for your house consumes me

They offered him wine to drink, mingled with gall (Matthew 27 : 34).

I

SAVE me, O God, * for the waters have risen to my neck.

† I have sunk into the mud of the deep * and there is no foothold.

I have entered the waters of the deep * and the waves overwhelm me.

I am wearied with all my crying, * my throat is parched.

My eyes are wasted away * from looking for my God.

More numerous than the hairs on my head * are those who hate me without cause.

Those who attack me with lies * are too much for my strength.

How can I restore * what I have never stolen ?

O God, you know my sinful folly ; * my sins you can see.

Let those who hope in you not be put to shame * through me, Lord of hosts :

let not those who seek you be dismayed * through me, God of Israel.

It is for you that I suffer taunts, * that shame covers my face, that I have become a stranger to my brothers, * an alien to my own mother's sons.

I burn with zeal for your house * and taunts against you fall on me.

When I afflict my soul with fasting * they make it a taunt against me.

When I put on sackcloth in mourning * then they make me a byword, the gossip of men at the gates, * the subject of drunkards' songs.

This is my prayer to you, * my prayer for your favor.

In your great love, answer me, O God, * with your help that never fails :

rescue me from sinking in the mud ; * save me from my foes.

Save me from the waters of the deep * lest the waves overwhelm me.

Do not let the deep engulf me * nor death close its mouth on me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Save me, O God, for the waters have risen to my neck.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Seek the Lord * and your soul will live.

II

LORD, answer, for your love is kind ; * in your compassion, turn towards me.

Do not hide your face from your servant ; * answer quickly for I am in distress.

Come close to my soul and redeem me ; * ransom me pressed by my foes.

You know how they taunt and deride me ; * my oppressors are all before you.

Taunts have broken my heart ; * I have reached the end of my strength.

I looked in vain for compassion, for consolers ; * not one could I find.

For food they gave me poison ; * in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Let their table be a snare to them * and their festive banquets a trap.

Let their eyes grow dim and blind ; * let their limbs tremble and shake.

Pour out your anger upon them, * let the heat of your fury overtake them.

Let their camp be left desolate ; * let no one dwell in their tents :

for they persecute one whom you struck ; * they increase the pain of him you wounded.

Charge them with guilt upon guilt ; * let them never be found just in your sight.

Blot them out from the book of the living ; * do not enroll them among the just.

As for me in my poverty and pain * let your help, O God, lift me up.

I will praise God's name with a song ; * I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

A gift pleasing God more than oxen, * more than beasts prepared for sacrifice.

The poor when they see it will be glad * and God-seeking hearts will revive ;

for the Lord listens to the needy * and does not spurn his servants in their chains.

Let the heavens and the earth give him praise, * the sea and all its living creatures.

For God will bring help to Sion † and rebuild the cities of Judah * and men shall dwell there in possession.

The sons of his servants shall inherit it ; * those who love his name shall dwell there.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Seek the Lord and your soul will live.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

O Lord my God, * make haste to my rescue. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Psalm 69

O God, come to my assistance

Lord, save us, for we are perishing (Matthew 8 : 25).

O God, make haste to my rescue, * † Lord, come to my aid !

Let there be shame and confusion * on those who seek my life.

O let them turn back in confusion, * who delight in my harm, let them retreat, covered with shame, * who jeer at my lot.

Let there be rejoicing and gladness * for all who seek you.

Let them say for ever : " God is great ," * who love your saving help.

As for me, wretched and poor, * come to me, O God.

You are my rescuer, my help, * O Lord, do not delay.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 63
Prayer for help against enemies

This Psalm commemorates most particularly our Lord's passion (Saint Augustine).

HEAR my voice, O God, as I complain, * guard my life from dread of the foe.

Hide me from the band of the wicked, * from the throng of those who do evil.

They sharpen their tongues like swords ; * they aim bitter words like arrows to shoot at the innocent from ambush, * shooting suddenly and recklessly.

They scheme their evil course ; * they conspire to lay secret snares.

They say : " Who will see us ? * Who can search out our crimes ? "

He will search who searches the mind * and knows the depths of the heart.

God has shot them with his arrow * and dealt them sudden wounds.

Their own tongue has brought them to ruin * and all who see them mock.

Then will all men fear ; † they will tell what God has done. * They will understand God's deeds.

The just will rejoice in the Lord † and fly to him for refuge. * All the upright hearts will glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Rouse up your might, O Lord ; * come to save us.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 79

Lord, come to visit your vine

Come, Lord Jesus (Apocalypse 22 : 20).

O shepherd of Israel, hear us, * you who lead Joseph's flock, shine forth from your cherubim throne * upon Ephraim, Benjamin, Manasseh.

O Lord, rouse up your might, * O Lord, come to our help.

God of hosts, bring us back ; * let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

Lord God of hosts, how long * will you frown on your people's plea ?

You have fed them with tears for their bread, * an abundance of tears for their drink.

You have made us the taunt of our neighbors, * our enemies laugh us to scorn.

God of hosts, bring us back ; * let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

You brought a vine out of Egypt ; * to plant it you drove out the nations.

Before it you cleared the ground ; * it took root and spread through the land.

The mountains were covered with its shadow, * the cedars of God with its boughs.

It stretched out its branches to the sea, * to the Great River it stretched out its shoots.

Then why have you broken down its walls ? * It is plucked by all who pass by.

It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, * devoured by the beasts of the field.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore, * look down from heaven and see.

Visit this vine and protect it, * the vine your right hand has planted.

Men have burnt it with fire and destroyed it. * May they perish at the frown of your face.

May your hand be on the man you have chosen, * the man you have given your strength.

And we shall never forsake you again : * give us life that we may call upon your name.

God of hosts, bring us back ; * let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Rouse up your might, O Lord ; / come to save us.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Shout in triumph * to the God of Jacob.

Psalm 80

Solemn renewal of the covenant

Take care that no one among you has a faithless, unbelieving heart (Hebrews 3 : 12).

RING out your joy to God our strength, * shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.

Raise a song and sound the timbrel, * the sweet-sounding harp and the lute ; blow the trumpet at the new moon, * when the moon is full, on our feast.

For this is Israel's law, * a command of the God of Jacob.

He imposed it as a rule on Joseph, * when he went out against the land of Egypt.

A voice I did not know said to me : * " I freed your shoulder from the burden ; your hands were freed from the load. * You called in distress and I saved you.

I answered, concealed in the storm cloud ; * at the waters of Meribah I tested you.

Listen, my people, to my warning. * O Israel, if only you would heed !

Let there be no foreign god among you, * no worship of an alien god.

I am the Lord your God, † who brought you from the land of Egypt. * Open wide your mouth and I will fill it.

But my people did not heed my voice * and Israel would not obey, so I left them in their stubbornness of heart * to follow their own designs.

O that my people would heed me, * that Israel would walk in my ways !

At once I would subdue their foes, * turn my hand against their enemies.

The Lord's enemies would cringe at their feet * and their subjection would last for ever.

But Israel I would feed with finest wheat * and fill them with honey from the rock. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Rouse up your might, O Lord ; / come to save us.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

You sat enthroned * judging with justice.

Psalm 81

Against unjust judges

Do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes (1 Corinthians 4 : 5).

GOD stands in the divine assembly. * In the midst of the gods he gives judgment.

" How long will you judge unjustly * and favor the cause of the wicked ?

Do justice for the weak and the orphan, * defend the afflicted and the needy.

Rescue the weak and the poor ; * set them free from the hand of the wicked.

Unperceiving, they grope in the darkness * and the order of the world is shaken.

I have said to you : ' You are gods, * and all of you, sons of the Most High. '

And yet, you shall die like men, * you shall fall like any of the princes. "

Arise, O God, judge the earth, * for you rule all the nations.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

THURSDAY III AT LAUDS

℣. O God, come to my assistance. Glory be. As it was.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Let my prayer * come into your presence, O Lord.

December 17-23 :

From Sion * shall come the Lord almighty, / to bring salvation to his people.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 87
Prayer of a man who is gravely ill

This is your moment—when darkness reigns (Luke 22 : 53).

LORD my God, I call for help by day ; * I cry at night before you.

Let my prayer come into your presence. * O turn your ear to my cry.

For my soul is filled with evils ; * my life is on the brink of the grave.

I am reckoned as one in the tomb : * I have reached the end of my strength, like one alone among the dead ; * like the slain lying in their graves ;

like those you remember no more, * cut off, as they are, from your hand.

You have laid me in the depths of the tomb, * in places that are dark, in the depths.

Your anger weighs down upon me : * I am drowned beneath your waves.

You have taken away my friends * and made me hateful in their sight.

Imprisoned, I cannot escape ; * my eyes are sunken with grief.

I call to you, Lord, all the day long ; * to you I stretch out my hands.

Will you work your wonders for the dead ? * Will the shades stand and praise you ?

Will your love be told in the grave * or your faithfulness among the dead ?

Will your wonders be known in the dark * or your justice in the land of oblivion ?

As for me, Lord, I call to you for help : * in the morning my prayer comes before you.

Lord, why do you reject me ? * Why do you hide your face ?

Wretched, close to death from my youth, * I have borne your trials ; I am numb.

Your fury has swept down upon me ; * your terrors have utterly destroyed me.

They surround me all the day like a flood, * they assail me all together.

Friend and neighbor you have taken away : * my one companion is darkness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Canticle Isaiah 40 : 10-17

The Good Shepherd : God the Most High, the All-wise

Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense (Apocalypse 22 : 12).

HERE comes with power the Lord God, * who rules by his strong arm ;

here is his reward with him, * his recompense before him.

Like a shepherd he feeds his flock ; * in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, * and leading the ewes with care.

Who has cupped in his hand the waters of the sea, * and marked off the heavens with a span ?

Who has held in a measure the dust of the earth, † weighed the mountains in scales * and the hills in a balance ?

Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, * or has instructed him as his counselor ?

Whom did he consult to gain knowledge ? † who taught him the path of judgment, * or showed him the way of understanding ?

Behold, the nations count as a drop of the bucket, † as dust on the scales ; * the coastlands weigh no more than powder.

Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, * nor its animals be enough for holocausts.

Before him all the nations are as nought, * as nothing and void he accounts them.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old:

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most

High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Proclaim his salvation * day by day.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 95
The Lord, king and ruler of all the earth

They were singing a new hymn in front of the throne, in the presence of the Lamb (Cf. Apocalypse 14 : 3).

O sing a new song to the Lord, † sing to the Lord, all the earth. * O sing to the Lord, bless his name.

Proclaim his help day by day, † tell among the nations his glory, * and his wonders among all the peoples.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise, † to be feared above all gods ; * the gods of the heathens are naught.

It was the Lord who made the heavens, † his are majesty and state and power * and splendor in his holy place.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples, † give the Lord glory and power, * give the Lord the glory of his name.

Bring an offering and enter his courts, † worship the Lord in his temple. * O earth, tremble before him.

Proclaim to the nations : " God is king. " † The world he made firm in its place ; * he will judge the peoples in fairness.

Let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad, * let the sea and all within it thunder praise, let the land and all it bears rejoice, * all the trees of the wood shout for joy at the presence of the Lord for he comes, * he comes to rule the earth.

With justice he will rule the world, * he will judge the peoples with his truth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 96

The glory of the Lord in his decrees for the world

This psalm tells of the salvation of the world, and that all peoples will believe in Christ (Saint Athanasius).

THE Lord is king, let earth rejoice, * † let all the coastlands be glad.

Cloud and darkness are his raiment ; * his throne, justice and right.

A fire prepares his path ; * it burns up his foes on every side.

His lightnings light up the world, * the earth trembles at the sight.

The mountains melt like wax * before the Lord of all the earth.

The skies proclaim his justice ; * all peoples see his glory.

Let those who serve idols be ashamed, † those who boast of their worthless gods. * All you spirits, worship him.

Sion hears and is glad ; † the people of Judah rejoice * because of your judgments, O Lord.

For you indeed are the Lord, † most high above all the earth, * exalted far above all spirits.

The Lord loves those who hate evil : † he guards the souls of his saints ; * he sets them free from the wicked.

Light shines forth for the just * and joy for the upright of heart.

Rejoice, you just, in the Lord ; * give glory to his holy name.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

This psalm tells of the first coming of the Lord, and that people of all nations will believe in him (Saint Athanasius).

SING a new song to the Lord * for he has worked wonders.

His right hand and his holy arm * have brought salvation.

The Lord has made known his salvation ; * has shown his justice to the nations.

He has remembered his truth and love * for the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen * the salvation of our God.

Shout to the Lord, all the earth, * ring out your joy.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp * with the sound of music.

With trumpets and the sound of the horn * acclaim the King, the Lord.

Let the sea and all within it, thunder ; * the world, and all its peoples.

Let the rivers clap their hands * and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the Lord : for he comes, * he comes to rule the earth.

He will rule the world with justice * and the peoples with fairness.

Be steadfast, * and you shall see the salvation of the Lord overshadowing you.

Paschaltide :

Psalm 50

O God, have mercy on me

Your inmost being must be renewed, and you must put on the new man (Luke 22 : 53).

HAVE mercy on me, God, in your kindness. * In your compassion blot out my offense.

O wash me more and more from my guilt * and cleanse me from my sin.

My offenses truly I know them ; * my sin is always before me.

Against you, you alone, have I sinned ; * what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence * and be without reproach when you judge,

O see, in guilt I was born, * a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart ; * then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.

O purify me, then I shall be clean ; * O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness, * that the bones you have crushed may thrill.

From my sins turn away your face * and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God, * put a steadfast spirit within me.

Do not cast me away from your presence, * nor deprive me of your holy spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help ; * with a spirit of fervor sustain me, that I may teach transgressors your ways * and sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God, my helper, * and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.

O Lord, open my lips * and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight, * burnt offering from me you would refuse, my sacrifice, a contrite spirit. * A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness show favor to Sion : * rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Then you be pleased with lawful sacrifice, † burnt offerings wholly consumed, * then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Canticle Jeremiah 14 :17-21

Lament of the people in time of war and famine

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel (Mk 1 : 15).

LET my eyes stream with tears * day and night, without rest, over the great destruction which overwhelms the virgin daughter of my people, * over her incurable wound.

If I walk out into the field, * behold ! those slain by the sword ;

if I enter the city, * behold ! those consumed by hunger.

Even the prophet and the priest * forage in a land they know not.

Have you cast Judah off completely ? * Is Sion loathsome to you ?

Why have you struck us a blow * that cannot be healed ?

We wait for peace, to no avail ; * for a time of healing, but terror comes instead.

We recognize, O Lord, our wickedness, the guilt of our fathers ; * that we have sinned against you.

For your name's sake spurn us not, † disgrace not the throne of your glory ; * remember your covenant with us, and break it not.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Truly we know our offences, Lord, / for we have sinned against you.

December 17-23 :

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

With timbrel and dance, * with strings and pipes, praise God.

December 17-23 :

Yet will I look * to the Lord, / and I will wait for God, my Savior.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 150

Praise the Lord

Let mind and heart be in your song : this is to glorify God with your whole self (Hesychius).

PRAISE God in his holy place, * praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, * praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, * praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and pipes.

Nocturn

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Visit us, Lord, * with your salvation.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 105

The goodness of the Lord and the infidelity of his people

These things were written down for our instruction, upon whom the end of the ages has come (1 Corinthians 10 : 11).

I

O give thanks to the Lord for he is good : * for his love endures for ever.

Who can tell the Lord's mighty deeds ? * Who can recount all his praise ?

They are happy who do what is right, * who at all times do what is just.

O Lord, remember me * out of the love you have for your people.

Come to me, Lord, with your help * that I may see the joy of your chosen ones and may rejoice in the gladness of your nation * and share the glory of your people.

Our sin is the sin of our fathers ; * we have done wrong, our deeds have been evil.

Our fathers when they were in Egypt * paid no heed to your wonderful deeds.

They forgot the greatness of your love ; * at the Red Sea defied the Most High.

Yet he saved them for the sake of his name, * in order to make known his power.

He threatened the Red Sea ; it dried up * and he led them through the deep as through the desert.

He saved them from the hand of the foe ; * he saved them from the grip of the enemy.

The waters covered their oppressors ; * not one of them was left alive.

Then they believed in his words : * then they sang his praises.

But they soon forgot his deeds * and would not wait upon his will.

They yielded to their cravings in the desert * and put God to the test in the wilderness.

He granted them the favor they asked * and sent disease among them.

Then they rebelled, envious of Moses * and of Aaron, who was holy to the Lord.

The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan * and buried the clan of Abiram.

Fire blazed up against their clan * and flames devoured the rebels.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Visit us, Lord, with your salvation.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Take care * you do not forget / the covenant of the Lord your God.

II

THEY fashioned a calf at Horeb * and worshipped an image of metal, exchanging the God who was their glory * for the image of a bull that eats grass.

They forgot the God who was their savior, * who had done such great things in Egypt, such portents in the land of Ham, * such marvels at the Red Sea.

For this he said he would destroy them, * but Moses, the man he had chosen, stood in the breach before him, * to turn back his anger from destruction.

Then they scorned the land of promise : * they had no faith in his word.

They complained inside their tents * and would not listen to the voice of the Lord.

So he raised his hand to swear an oath * that he would lay them low in the desert ; would scatter their sons among the nations * and disperse them throughout the lands.

They bowed before the Baal of Peor ; * ate offerings made to lifeless gods.

They roused him to anger with their deeds * and a plague broke out among them.

Then Phinehas stood up and intervened. * Thus the plague was ended and this was counted in his favor * from age to age for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Take care you do not forget / the covenant of the Lord your God.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

O Lord, save us ; * bring us together from among the nations.

III

THEY provoked him at the waters of Meribah. * Through their fault it went ill with Moses ;

for they made his heart grow bitter * and he uttered words that were rash.

They failed to destroy the peoples * as the Lord had given command, but instead they mingled with the nations * and learned to act as they did.

They worshipped the idols of the nations * and these became a snare to entrap them.

They even offered their own sons * and their daughters in sacrifice to demons.

They shed the blood of the innocent, * the blood of their sons and daughters whom they offered to the idols of Canaan. * The land was polluted with blood.

So they defiled themselves by their deeds * and broke their marriage bond with the Lord till his anger blazed against his people : * he was filled with horror at his chosen ones.

So he gave them into the hand of the nations * and their foes became their rulers.

Their enemies became their oppressors ; * they were subdued beneath their hand.

Time after time he rescued them, † but in their malice they dared to defy him * and sank low through their guilt.

In spite of this he paid heed to their distress, * so often as he heard their cry.

For their sake he remembered his covenant. * In the greatness of his love he relented and he let them be treated with mercy * by all who held them captive.

O Lord, our God, save us ! * Bring us together from among the nations that we may thank your holy name * and make it our glory to praise you.

Blessèd be the Lord, God of Israel, * for ever, from age to age.

Let all the people cry out : * " Amen ! Amen ! "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Praise of God the Creator

Sing in praise of Christ's redeeming work (Saint Athanasius).

IT is good to give thanks to the Lord, * † to make music to your name, O Most High,

to proclaim your love in the morning * and your truth in the watches of the night, on the ten-stringed lyre and the lute, * with the murmuring sound of the harp.

Your deeds, O Lord, have made me glad ; * for the work of your hands I shout with joy.

O Lord, how great are your works ! * How deep are your designs !

The foolish man cannot know this * and the fool cannot understand.

Though the wicked spring up like grass * and all who do evil thrive :

they are doomed to be eternally destroyed. * But you, Lord, are eternally on high.

See how your enemies perish ; * all doers of evil are scattered.

To me you give the wild ox's strength ; * you anoint me with the purest oil.

My eyes looked in triumph on my foes ; * my ears heard gladly of their fall.

The just will flourish like the palm tree * and grow like a Lebanon cedar.

Planted in the house of the Lord * they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, * still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. * In him, my rock, there is no wrong.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

O Lord, give me wisdom

For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict (Lk 21 : 15).

GOD of my fathers, Lord of mercy, * you who have made all things by your word and in your wisdom have established man * to rule the creatures produced by you, to govern the world in holiness and justice, * and to render judgment in integrity of heart :

Give me Wisdom, the attendant at your throne, * and reject me not from among your children ;

for I am your servant, the son of your handmaid, † a man weak and short-lived * and lacking in comprehension of judgment and of laws.

Indeed, though one be perfect among the sons of men, † if Wisdom, who comes from you, be not with him, * he shall be held in no esteem.

Now with you is Wisdom, who knows your works * and was present when you made the world; who understands what is pleasing in your eyes * and what is conformable with your commands.

Send her forth from your holy heavens * and from your glorious throne dispatch her that she may be with me and work with me, * that I may know what is your pleasure.

For she knows and understands all things, † and will guide me discreetly in my affairs * and safeguard me by her glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

The joy of God's holy people

Let the sons of the Church, the children of the new people, rejoice in Christ, their King (Hesychius).

SING a new song to the Lord, * his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker, * let Sion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing * and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. * He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, * shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips * and a two-edged sword in their hand,

to deal out vengeance to the nations * and punishment on all the peoples ;

to bind their kings in chains * and their nobles in fetters of iron ;

to carry out the sentence pre-ordained : * this honor is for all his faithful.

Thanksgiving for deliverance from death

Christ gives thanks to the Father after his glorious resurrection (Cassian).

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me * † and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O Lord, I cried to you for help * and you, my God, have healed me.

O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, * restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, * give thanks to his holy name.

His anger lasts a moment ; his favor all through life. * At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

I said to myself in my good fortune : * " Nothing will ever disturb me. "

Your favor had set me on a mountain fastness, * then you hid your face and I was put to confusion.

To you, Lord, I cried, * to my God I made appeal :

" What profit would my death be, my going to the grave ? * Can dust give you praise or proclaim your truth ? "

The Lord listened and had pity. * The Lord came to my help.

For me you have changed my mourning into dancing, * you removed my sackcloth and girded me with joy.

So my soul sings psalms to you unceasingly. * O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

In your justice * set me free, O Lord.

Advent :

Christ our King comes * whom John preached, saying : / Behold the Lamb that should come.

Lent :

Let the light of your face * shine on your servant, O Lord.

Psalm 30

Confident prayer in time of trouble

Father, into your hands I commend my spirit (Lk 23 : 46).

IN you, O Lord, I take refuge * Let me never be put to shame.

In your justice, set me free, * hear me and speedily rescue me.

Be a rock of refuge for me, * a mighty stronghold to save me, for you are my rock, my stronghold. * For your name's sake, lead me and guide me.

Release me from the snares they have hidden * for you are my refuge, Lord.

Into your hands I commend my spirit. * It is you who will redeem me, Lord.

O God of truth, you detest * those who worship false and empty gods.

As for me, I trust in the Lord : * let me be glad and rejoice in your love.

You who have seen my affliction * and taken heed of my soul's distress, have not handed me over to the enemy, * but set my feet at large.

Have mercy on me, O Lord, * for I am in distress.

Tears have wasted my eyes, * my throat and my heart.

For my life is spent with sorrow * and my years with sighs.

Affliction has broken down my strength * and my bones waste away.

In the face of all my foes * I am a reproach, an object of scorn to my neighbors * and of fear to my friends.

Those who see me in the street * run far away from me.

I am like a dead man, forgotten, * like a thing thrown away.

I have heard the slander of the crowd, * fear is all around me, as they plot together against me, * as they plan to take my life.

But as for me, I trust in you, Lord ; * I say : " You are my God.

My life is in your hands, deliver me * from the hands of those who hate me.

Let your face shine on your servant. * Save me in your love.

Let me not be put to shame for I call you, * let the wicked be shamed !

Let them be silenced in the grave, * let lying lips be dumb, that speak haughtily against the just * with pride and contempt. "

How great is the goodness, Lord, * that you keep for those who fear you, that you show to those who trust you * in the sight of men.

You hide them in the shelter of your presence * from the plotting of men :

you keep them safe within your tent * from disputing tongues.

Blessèd be the Lord who has shown me * the wonders of his love in a fortified city.

" I am far removed from your sight, " * I said in my alarm.

Yet you heard the voice of my plea * when I cried for help.

Love the Lord, all you saints. * He guards his faithful but the Lord will repay to the full * those who act with pride.

Be strong, let your heart take courage, * all who hope in the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Rejoice in the Lord, * exult, you just ! / O come, ring out your joy, all you upright of heart.

℣. The word of God is living and active.
℟. It cuts more finely than any two-edged sword.

First Reading, 440.

Advent :

Behold, I come quickly, * says the Lord, and my reward is with me : / to render to every man according to his works.

℣. Lift up your heads and see.
℟. Your redemption is near at hand.

December 24 :

Behold, I come quickly, * says the Lord, and my reward is with me : / to render to every man according to his works.

℣. Today you shall know that the Lord will come.
℟. And in the morning you shall see his glory.

Lent :

I trust * in the Lord ; / I have not wavered.

℣. Your words, O Lord, are spirit and life.
℟. You have the words of eternal life.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, whom do you seek, O woman ? alleluia, / the living among the dead ? / alleluia, alleluia.

℣. The disciples rejoiced, alleluia.
℟. When they saw the Lord, alleluia.

Psalm 31

Blessed the man whose offense is forgiven

David pronounces a blessing upon the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works (Romans 4 : 6).

HAPPY the man whose offense is forgiven, * whose sin is remitted.

O happy the man to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, * in whose spirit is no guile.

I kept it secret and my frame was wasted. * I groaned all day long, for night and day your hand * was heavy upon me.

Indeed, my strength was dried up * as by the summer's heat.

But now I have acknowledged my sins ; * my guilt I did not hide.

I said : " I will confess my offense to the Lord. " * And you, Lord, have forgiven the guilt of my sin.

So let every good man pray to you * in the time of need.

The floods of water may reach high * but him they shall not reach.

You are my hiding place, O Lord ; † you save me from distress. * You surround me with cries of deliverance.

I will instruct you and teach you * the way you should go ;

I will give you counsel * with my eye upon you.

Be not like horse and mule, unintelligent, † needing bridle and bit, * else they will not approach you.

Many sorrows has the wicked † but he who trusts in the Lord, * loving mercy surrounds him.

Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord, * exult, you just !

O come, ring out your joy, * all you upright of heart.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. With all my heart * I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

Canticle Ecclesiasticus 36 : 12-17

A prayer for God's people

This is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent (Jn 17 : 3).

HAVE mercy, O Lord, upon the people called by your name, * upon Israel, whom you have likened to a first-born son.

Have pity on the city of your sanctuary, * Jerusalem, the place of your rest.

Fill Sion with the celebration of your wondrous deeds, * and your temple with your glory.

Bear witness to those whom you created in the beginning, * and fulfil the prophecies spoken in your name.

Reward those who wait for you, * and let your prophets be found trustworthy.

Listen, O Lord, to the prayer of your servants, † according to the blessing of Aaron for your people, * and direct us in the way of righteousness, and all who are on earth will know * that you are the Lord, the Beholder of the ages.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. With all my heart I long for you in the night, O Lord ; / I seek you eagerly when dawn breaks, alleluia.

Ant. The angel Gabriel * spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

Canticle Isaiah 49 : 7-13

Through his servant the Lord will redeem his people

God has sent his only-begotten Son into the world that we might have life through him (1 John 4 : 9).

THUS says the Lord, the Redeemer of the Israel and his Holy One, † to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, * the servant of rulers :

" Kings shall see and arise ; * princes, and they shall prostrate themselves ;

because of the Lord, who is faithful, * the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you. "

Thus says the Lord : † " In a time of favor I have answered you, * in a day of salvation I have helped you ;

I have kept you and given you as a covenant to the people, * to establish the land, to apportion the desolate heritages ;

saying to the prisoners, ' Come forth, ' * to those who are in darkness, ' Appear. '

They shall feed along the ways, * on all bare heights shall be their pasture ;

they shall not hunger or thirst, * neither scorching wind nor sun shall smite them, for he who has pity on them will lead them, * and by springs of water will guide them.

And I will make all my mountains a way, * and my highways shall be raised up.

Behold, these shall come from afar, † and behold, these from the north and from the west, * and these from the land of the south. "

Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth ; * break forth, O mountains, into singing !

For the Lord has comforted his people, * and will have compassion on his afflicted.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. The angel Gabriel spoke to Mary, saying : / Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you ; / blessèd are you among women.

℣. The Lord will come forth from his holy place.
℟. He will come to save his people.

December 24 :

℣. Be steadfast.
℟. And you will see the salvation of the Lord upon you.

During Lent

Ant. Turn us back * to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

Canticle Lamentations 5 : 1-7. 15-17. 19-21

A prayer in time of distress

We are always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh (2 Corinthians 4 : 10).

REMEMBER, O Lord, what has befallen us, * behold, and see our disgrace !

Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, * our homes to aliens.

We have become orphans, fatherless ; * our mothers are like widows.

We must pay for the water we drink, * the wood we get must be bought.

With a yoke on our necks we are hard driven ; * we are weary, we are given no rest.

We have given the hand to Egypt, * and to Assyria, to get bread enough.

Our fathers sinned, and are no more ; * and we bear their iniquities.

The joy of our hearts has ceased ; * our dancing has been turned into mourning.

The crown has fallen from our head ; * woe to us, for we have sinned !

For this our heart has become sick, * for these things our eyes have grown dim.

But you, O Lord, reign for ever ; * your throne endures to all generations.

Why do you forget us for ever, * why do you so long forsake us ?

Restore us to yourself, O Lord, that we may be restored ! * Renew our days as of old !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. Turn us back to you, O Lord, and we will come back ; / renew our lives, that we may live as in times past.

℣. His faithfulness and truth shall be your buckler and shield.

℟. You shall not fear the terror of the night.

During Paschaltide

Ant. Come, * let us adore the One who rose from the dead. / Through the Cross, joy came into the world, alleluia,

Canticle Zephaniah 3 : 8-13

In the end the remnant of Israel will be saved

Isaiah cries out concerning Israel : Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will be saved (Romans 9 : 27).

WAIT for me, says the Lord, * for the day when I arise as a witness.

for my decision is to gather nations, * to assemble kingdoms, to pour out upon them my indignation, * all the heat of my anger ;

for in the fire of my jealous wrath * all the earth shall be consumed.

For then I will change the speech of the peoples * to a pure speech, that all of them may call on the name of the Lord * and serve him with one accord.

From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia † my suppliants, the daughter of my dispersed ones, * shall bring my offering.

On that day you shall not be put to shame * because of the deeds by which you have rebelled against me ;

for then I will remove from your midst * your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty * in my holy mountain.

For I will leave in the midst of you * a people humble and lowly.

They shall seek refuge in the name of the Lord, * those who are left in Israel ;

they shall do no wrong and utter no lies, * nor shall there be found in their mouth a deceitful tongue.

For they shall pasture and lie down, * and none shall make them afraid.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Ant. Come, let us adore the One who rose from the dead. / Through the Cross, joy came into the world, alleluia, ℣. Christ, having risen from the dead, dies now no more, alleluia.

℟. Death shall no longer have dominion over him, alleluia.

After the Responsory on Sundays and Feasts is said :

Ambrosian Hymn

Te Deum laudamus

WE praise you, O God, * we acknowledge you to be the Lord.

All the world worships you, * the Father everlasting.

To you all the angels cry aloud, * the heavens and all the powers therein :

To you the Cherubim and Seraphim * continually do cry :

Holy,

Holy,

Holy * Lord God of Hosts.

Heaven and earth are full * of the majesty of your glory.

The glorious choir of the Apostles * praises you.

The admirable company of the Prophets * praises you.

The white-robed army of Martyrs * praises you.

Your holy Church throughout the world * acknowledges you :

The Father * of infinite majesty ;

Your true, and only Son, * who is to be adored ;

And the Holy Spirit, * the Comforter.

You are the King of glory, O Christ. * You are the everlasting Son of the Father.

When you took human nature to deliver man, * you did not disdain the Virgin's womb.

When you had overcome the sting of death, * you opened to believers the kingdom of heaven.

You are seated at the right hand of God, * in the glory of the Father.

We believe that you will come * to be our Judge.

The following verse is said kneeling :

We beseech you, therefore, help your servants, * whom you have redeemed with your precious Blood.

Make them to be numbered with your Saints * in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save your people, * and bless your inheritance.

Govern them, * and exalt them forever.

Day by day we bless you ; * and we praise your name forever and ever.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day * to keep us without sin.

Have mercy on us, O Lord, * have mercy on us.

Let your mercy be upon us, O Lord, * as we have hoped in you.

O Lord, in you I have hoped, * let me not be confounded forever.

Lent :

You are my God, * I thank you. / My God, I praise you.

Paschaltide :

I shall not die * I shall live / and recount the deeds of the Lord, alleluia.

Psalm 117

The voice of rejoicing and of salvation

This is the stone which was rejected by you builders, but which has become the cornerstone (Acts 4 : 11).

GIVE thanks to the Lord for he is good, * for his love endures for ever.

Let the sons of Israel say : * " His love endures for ever. "

Let the sons of Aaron say : * " His love endures for ever. "

Let those who fear the Lord say : * " His love endures for ever. "

I called to the Lord in my distress ; * he answered and freed me.

The Lord is at my side ; I do not fear. * What can man do against me ?

The Lord is at my side as my helper ; * I shall look down on my foes.

It is better to take refuge in the Lord * than to trust in men ;

it is better to take refuge in the Lord * than to trust in princes.

The nations all encompassed me ; * in the Lord's name I crushed them.

They compassed me, compassed me about ; * in the Lord's name I crushed them.

They compassed me about like bees ; † they blazed like a fire among thorns. * In the Lord's name I crushed them.

I was thrust down, thrust down and falling, * but the Lord was my helper.

The Lord is my strength and my song ; * he was my savior.

There are shouts of joy and victory * in the tents of the just.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed ; * his right hand raised me.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed ; * I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

I was punished, I was punished by the Lord, * but not doomed to die.

Open to me the gates of holiness : * I will enter and give thanks.

This is the Lord's own gate * where the just may enter.

I will thank you for you have answered * and you are my savior.

The stone which the builders rejected * has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, * a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord ; * we rejoice and are glad.

O Lord, grant us salvation ; * O Lord, grant success.

Blessèd in the name of the Lord * is he who comes.

We bless you from the house of the Lord ; * the Lord God is our light.

Go forward in procession with branches * even to the altar.

You are my God, I thank you. * My God, I praise you.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good ; * for his love endures for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Let all creatures praise the Lord

The Creator is blessed for ever (Romans 1 : 25).

BLessèd are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, * praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

And blessèd is your holy and glorious name, * praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

Blessèd are you in the temple of your holy glory, * praiseworthy and glorious above all forever.

Blessèd are you on the throne of your kingdom, * praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Blessèd are you who look into the depths from your throne upon the cherubim, * praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Blessèd are you in the firmament of heaven, * praiseworthy and glorious forever.

Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord, * praise and exalt him above all forever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 150

Praise the Lord

Let mind and heart be in your song : this is to glorify God with your whole self (Hesychius).

PRAISE God in his holy place, * praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, * praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, * praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, * praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes * give praise to the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1 : 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

My soul * is thirsting for God, the God of my life ; / when can I enter and see the face of God ?

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 41

Desire for the Lord and for his temple

Let him who is thirsty come, let him who desires take the water of life (Apocalypse 22 : 17).

LIKE the deer that yearns for running streams, * so my soul is yearning for you, my God.

My soul is thirsting for God, the God of my life ; * when can I enter and see the face of God ?

My tears have become my bread, * by night, by day, as I hear it said all the day long : * " Where is your God ? "

These things will I remember * as I pour out my soul :

how I would lead the rejoicing crowd * into the house of God, amid cries of gladness and thanksgiving, * the throng wild with joy.

Why are you cast down, my soul, * why groan within me ?

Hope in God ; I will praise him still, * my savior and my God.

My soul is cast down within me * as I think of you, from the country of Jordan and Mount Hermon, * from the Hill of Mizar.

Deep is calling on deep, * in the roar of waters :

your torrents and all your waves * swept over me.

By day the Lord will send * his loving kindness ;

by night I will sing to him, * praise the God of my life.

I will say to God, my rock : * " Why have your forgotten me ?

Why do I go mourning * oppressed by the foe ? "

With cries that pierce me to the heart, * my enemies revile me, saying to me all the day long : * " Where is your God ? "

Why are you cast down, my soul, * why groan within me ?

Hope in God ; I will praise him still, * my savior and my God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

My soul is thirsting for God, the God of my life ; / when can I enter and see the face of God ?

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

You have saved us, * O Lord, / in your Name we shall glory all the day long.

Psalm 43
The misfortunes of God's people

In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who has loved us (Romans 8 : 37).

WE heard with our own ears, O God, * our fathers have told us the story of the things you did in their days, * you yourself, in days long ago.

To plant them you uprooted the nations : * to let them spread you laid peoples low.

No sword of their own won the land ; * no arm of their own brought them victory.

It was your right hand, your arm * and the light of your face : for you loved them.

It is you, my king, my God, * who granted victories to Jacob.

Through you we beat down our foes ; * in your name we trampled our aggressors.

For it was not in my bow that I trusted * nor yet was I saved by my sword :

it was you who saved us from our foes, * it was you who put our foes to shame.

All day long our boast was in God * and we praised your name without ceasing.

Yet now you have rejected us, disgraced us : * you no longer go forth with our armies.

You make us retreat from the foe * and our enemies plunder us at will.

You make us like sheep for the slaughter * and scatter us among the nations.

You sell your own people for nothing * and make no profit by the sale.

You make us the taunt of our neighbors, * the laughing stock of all who are near.

Among the nations, you make us a byword, * among the peoples a thing of derision.

All day long my disgrace is before me : * my face is covered with shame at the voice of the taunter, the scoffer, * at the sight of the foe and avenger.

This befell us though we had not forgotten you ; * though we had not been false to your covenant, though we had not withdrawn our hearts ; * though our feet had not strayed from your path.

Yet you have crushed us in a place of sorrows * and covered us with the shadow of death.

Had we forgotten the name of our God * or stretched out hands to another god would not God have found this out, * he who knows the secrets of the heart ?

It is for you we face death all day long * and are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

Awake, O Lord, why do you sleep ? * Arise, do not reject us for ever !

Why do you hide your face * and forget our oppression and misery ?

For we are brought down low to the dust ; * our body lies prostrate on the earth.

Stand up and come to our help ! * Redeem us because of your love !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

You have saved us, O Lord, / in your Name we shall glory all the day long.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

May the peoples * praise you from age to age.

Psalm 44

The wedding of the king

Behold, the bridegroom is coming ; go out to meet him (Matthew 25 : 6).

MY heart overflows with noble words. † To the king I must speak the song I have made ; * my tongue as nimble as the pen of a scribe.

You are the fairest of the children of men † and graciousness is poured upon your lips : * because God has blest you for evermore.

O mighty one, gird your sword upon your thigh ; † in splendor and state, ride on in triumph * for the cause of truth and goodness and right.

Take aim with your bow in your dread right hand. † Your arrows are sharp : peoples fall beneath you. * The foes of the king fall down and lose heart.

Your throne, O God, shall endure for ever. † A scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom. * Your love is for justice ; your hatred for evil.

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you † with the oil of gladness above other kings : *

your robes are fragrant with aloes and myrrh.

From the ivory palace you are greeted with music. † The daughters of kings are among your loved ones. * On your right stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

Listen, O daughter, give ear to my words : * forget your own people and your father's house.

So will the king desire your beauty : * He is your lord, pay homage to him.

And the people of Tyre shall come with gifts, * the richest of the people shall seek your favor.

The daughter of the king is clothed with splendor, * her robes embroidered with pearls set in gold.

She is led to the king with her maiden companions. † They are escorted amid gladness and joy ; * they pass within the palace of the king.

Sons shall be yours in place of your fathers : * you will make them princes over all the earth.

May this song make your name for ever remembered. * May the peoples praise you from age to age.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 35

The evil of the sinner and the goodness of the Lord

The man who follows me will not walk in darkness, but he will have the light of life (John 8 : 12).

SIN speaks to the sinner * in the depths of his heart.

There is no fear of God * before his eyes.

He so flatters himself in his mind * that he knows not his guilt.

In his mouth are mischief and deceit. * All wisdom is gone.

He plots the defeat of goodness * as he lies on his bed.

He has set his foot on evil ways, * he clings to what is evil.

Your love, Lord, reaches to heaven ; * your truth to the skies.

Your justice is like God's mountain, * your judgments like the deep.

To both man and beast you give protection. * O Lord, how precious is your love.

My God, the sons of men * find refuge in the shelter of your wings.

They feast on the riches of your house ; * they drink from the stream of your delight.

In you is the source of life * and in your light we see light.

Keep on loving those who know you, * doing justice for upright hearts.

Let the foot of the proud not crush me * nor the hand of the wicked cast me out.

See how the evildoers fall ! *

Flung down, they shall never arise.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Hymn about God, the Victor and Savior

They were singing a new hymn before the throne of God (Apocalypse 14 : 3).

SING to the Lord a new song, * his praise from the end of the earth :

Let the sea and what fills it resound, * the coastlands, and those who dwell in them.

Let the steppe and its cities cry out, * the villages where Kedar dwells ;

Let the inhabitants of Sela exult, * and shout from the top of the mountains.

Let them give glory to the Lord, * and utter his praise in the coastlands.

The Lord goes forth like a hero, * like a warrior he stirs up his ardor ;

he shouts out his battle cry, * against his enemies he shows his might :

I have looked away and kept silence, * I have said nothing, holding myself in ;

but now, I cry out as a woman in labor, * gasping and panting.

I will lay waste mountains and hills, * all their herbage I will dry up ;

I will turn the rivers into marshes, * and the marshes I will dry up.

I will lead the blind on their journey ; * by paths unkown I will guide them.

I will turn darkness into light before them, * and make crooked ways straight.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Praise to the Lord, the Creator

Praise and honor, glory and power for ever to him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb (Apocaplypse 5 : 13).

PRAISE the Lord from the heavens, * † praise him in the heights.

Praise him, all his angels, * praise him, all his host.

Praise him, sun and moon, * praise him, shining stars.

Praise him, highest heavens * and the waters above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord. * He commanded : they were made.

Week IV

Reading

Through the Year Judith 8 : 25-27

WE should be grateful to the Lord our God, for putting us to the test, as he did our forefathers. Recall how he dealt with Abraham, and how he tried Isaac, and all that happened to Jacob in Syrian Mesopotamia while he was tending the flocks of Laban, his mother's brother. Not for vengeance did the Lord put them in the crucible to try their hearts, nor has he done so with us. It is by way of admonition that he chastises those who are close to him.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BEcause he has visited and wrought redemption * for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old:

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant, of the oath that he swore to our father, Abraham, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

In God I trust ; * I shall not fear : / what can mortal man do to me ?

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 55

Trust in God's word

This psalm shows Christ in his passion (Saint Jerome).

HAVE mercy on me, God, men crush me ; * they fight me all day long and oppress me.

My foes crush me all day long, * for many fight proudly against me.

When I fear, I will trust in you, * in God, whose word I praise.

In God I trust, I shall not fear : * what can mortal man do to me ?

All day long they distort my words, * all their thought is to harm me.

They band together in ambush, * track me down and seek my life.

Repay them, God, for their crimes ; * in your anger, cast down the peoples.

You have kept an account of my wanderings ; † you have kept a record of my tears ; * are they not written in your book ?

Then my foes will be put to flight * on the day that I call to you.

This I know, that God is on my side. † In God, whose word I praise, * in the Lord, whose word I praise, in God I trust, I shall not fear : * what can mortal man do to me ?

I am bound by the vows I have made you. * O God, I will offer you praise for you rescued my soul from death, * you kept my feet from stumbling that I may walk in the presence of God * and enjoy the light of the living.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

In God I trust ; I shall not fear : / what can mortal man do to me ?

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Judge with justice, * you sons of men.

Psalm 57

Injustice condemned

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven (Matthew 5 : 16).

DO you truly speak justice, * you who hold divine power ?

Do you mete out fair judgment * to the sons of men ?

No, in your hearts you devise injustice ; * your hands deal out violence to the land.

In their wickedness they have gone astray from their birth : * they wandered among lies as soon as they were born.

Their venom is like the venom of the snake ; * they are heedless as the adder that turns a deaf ear lest it should catch the snake-charmer's voice, * the voice of the skillful dealer in spells.

O God, break the teeth in their mouths, * tear out the fangs of these wild beasts, O Lord !

Let them vanish like water that runs away : * let them wither like grass that is trodden under foot :

let them be like the snail that dissolves into slime : * like a woman's miscarriage that never sees the sun.

Before they put forth thorns, like a bramble, * let them be swept away, green wood or dry !

The just shall rejoice at the sight of vengeance ; * they shall bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.

" Truly, " men shall say, " the just are rewarded. * Truly there is a God who does justice on earth. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Judge with justice, you sons of men.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

From those * who attack me, protect me, O Lord, / they lie in wait for my life.

Psalm 58

Prayer for protection against enemies

Let these words of the Savior teach us the devotion that all should have for the Father (Eusebius of Caesaria).

RESCUE me, God, from my foes ; * protect me from those who attack me.

O rescue me from those who do evil * and save me from blood-thirsty men.

See, they lie in wait for my life ; * powerful men band together against me.

For no offense, no sin of mine, Lord, * for no guilt of mine they rush to take their stand.

Awake, come to my aid and see ! * Lord of hosts, you are Israel's God.

Rouse yourself and punish the nations ; * show no mercy to evil traitors.

Each evening they come back like dogs. * They howl and roam about the city, they prowl in search of food, * they snarl till they have their fill.

See how they gabble open-mouthed ; † their lips are filled with insults. * " For who, " they say, " will hear us ? "

But you, Lord, will laugh them to scorn. * You make light of all the nations.

O my Strength, it is you to whom I turn, † for you, O God, are my stronghold, * the God who shows me love.

O God, come to my aid * and let me look in triumph on my foes.

God, kill them lest my people be seduced ; * rout them by your power, lay them low.

It is you, O Lord, who are our shield. * For the sins of their mouths and their lips, for the curses and lies that they speak * let them be caught in their pride.

Destroy them, Lord, in your anger. * Destroy them till they are no more.

Let men know that you are the ruler * over Jacob and the ends of the earth.

Each evening they come back like dogs. * They howl and roam about the city, they prowl in search of food,* they snarl till they have their fill.

As for me, I will sing of your strength * and each morning acclaim your love for you have been my stronghold, * a refuge in the day of my distress.

O my Strength, it is you to whom I turn, † for you, O God, are my stronghold, * the God who shows me love.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

TUESDAY IV AT LAUDS

℣. O God, come to my assistance. Glory be. As it was.

Through the Year :

Have mercy * on me, God, have mercy. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

December 17-23 :

Drop down dew, * you heavens, from above, / and let the clouds rain down the Just One ; / let the earth be opened, and bud forth the Savior.

December 24 :

Judea and Jerusalem, * do not be afraid : / tomorrow you shall go forth, / and the Lord will be with you, alleluia.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 56

Morning prayer in time of affliction

This Psalm celebrates the Passion of the Lord (Saint Augustine).

HAVE mercy on me, God, have mercy * † for in you my soul has taken refuge.

In the shadow of your wings I take refuge * till the storms of destruction pass by.

I call to God the Most High, * to God who has always been my help.

May he send from heaven and save me † and shame those who assail me. * May God send his truth and his love.

My soul lies down among lions, * who would devour the sons of men.

Their teeth are spears and arrows, * their tongue a sharpened sword.

O God, arise above the heavens ; * may your glory shine on earth!

They laid a snare for my steps, * my soul was bowed down.

They dug a pit in my path * but fell in it themselves.

My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready. * I will sing, I will sing your praise.

Awake, my soul, awake, lyre and harp, * I will awake the dawn.

I will thank you, Lord, among the peoples, * among the nations I will praise you for your love reaches to the heavens * and your truth to the skies.

O God, arise above the heavens ; * may your glory shine on earth !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Have mercy on me, God, have mercy.

December 17-23 :

Drop down dew, you heavens, from above, / and let the clouds rain down the Just One ; / let the earth be opened, and bud forth the Savior.

December 24 :

Judea and Jerusalem, do not be afraid : / tomorrow you shall go forth, / and the Lord will be with you, alleluia.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

O Lord, * do not withhold your compassion from us.

December 17-23 :

Reward them, O Lord, * who patiently wait for you, / that your prophets may be found faithful.

December 24 :

The Lord will come, * go out to meet him, and say : / Great is his dominion, / and of his kingdom there shall be no end : / He is the mighty God, the Ruler, the Prince of Peace, alleluia.

Paschaltide :

O Lord, * let all the nations know your loving mercy for us, alleluia.

Canticle Daniel 3 : 26. 27. 29. 34-41

The prayer of Azariah in the furnace

Repent and turn to God, that your sins may be wiped out (Acts 3 : 19).

BLESSÈD are you, and praiseworthy, † O Lord, the God of our fathers, * and glorious forever is your name.

For you are just in all you have done ; † all your deeds are faultless, all your ways right, * and all your judgments proper.

For we have sinned and transgressed by departing from you, * and we have done every kind of evil.

For your name's sake do not deliver us up forever, * or make void your covenant.

Do not take away your mercy from us, † for the sake of Abraham, your beloved, * Isaac your servant, and Israel your holy one, to whom you promised to multiply their offspring like the stars of heaven, * or the sand on the shore of the sea.

For we are reduced, O Lord, beyond any other nation, † brought low everywhere in the world this day * because of our sins.

We have in our day no prince, prophet, or leader, † no holocaust, sacrifice, oblation, or incense, * no place to offer first fruits, to find favor with you.

But with contrite heart and humble spirit * let us be received ;

as though it were holocausts of rams and bullocks, * or thousands of fat lambs, so let our sacrifice be in your presence today † as we follow you unreservedly ; * for those who trust in you cannot be put to shame.

And now we follow you with our whole heart, * we fear you and we pray to you.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

O Lord, do not withhold your compassion from us.

December 17-23 :

December 24 :

Tomorrow * salvation shall be yours, / says the Lord God of hosts, alleluia.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 149

The joy of God's holy people

Let the sons of the Church, the children of the new people, rejoice in Christ, their King (Hesychius).

SING a new song to the Lord, * his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker, * let Sion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing * and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. * He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, * shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips * and a two-edged sword in their hand,

to deal out vengeance to the nations * and punishment on all the peoples ;

to bind their kings in chains * and their nobles in fetters of iron ;

to carry out the sentence pre-ordained : * this honor is for all his faithful.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

All you his angels, praise the Lord from the heavens.

December 17-23 :

The law was given through Moses ; / grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

December 24 :

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

But deliver us from evil.

Then is said :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Prayer from the Proper, or the following may be said :

Let us pray. Prayer

INCREASE in us, Lord, the faith you have given us, * and bring to a harvest worthy of heaven the praise we offer you at the beginning of this new day. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Be a rock * where I can take refuge, O Lord.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 70

You have been my hope, O Lord, from my youth

Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation (Romans 12 : 12).

IN you, O Lord, I take refuge ; * let me never be put to shame.

In your justice rescue me, free me : * pay heed to me and save me.

Be a rock where I can take refuge, † a mighty stronghold to save me ; * for you are my rock, my stronghold.

Free me from the hand of the wicked, * from the grip of the unjust, of the oppressor.

It is you, O Lord, who are my hope, * my trust, O Lord, since my youth.

On you I have leaned from my birth, † from my mother's womb you have been my help. * My hope has always been in you.

My fate has filled many with awe * but you are my strong refuge.

My lips are filled with your praise, * with your glory all the day long.

Do not reject me now that I am old ; * when my strength fails do not forsake me.

For my enemies are speaking about me ; * those who watch me take counsel together saying : " God has forsaken him ; follow him, seize him ; * there is no one to save him. "

O God, do not stay far off : * my God, make haste to help me !

Let them be put to shame and destroyed, * all those who seek my life.

Let them be covered with shame and confusion, * all those who seek to harm me.

But as for me, I will always hope * and praise you more and more.

My lips will tell of your justice † and day by day of your help * though I can never tell it all.

I will declare the Lord's mighty deeds * proclaiming your justice, yours alone.

O God, you have taught me from my youth * and I proclaim your wonders still.

Now that I am old and grey-headed, * do not forsake me, God.

Let me tell of your power to all ages, * praise your strength and justice to the skies, tell of you who have worked such wonders. * O God, who is like you?

You have burdened me with bitter troubles * but you will give me back my life.

You will raise me from the depths of the earth ; * you will exalt me and console me again.

So I will give you thanks on the lyre * for your faithful love, my God.

To you will I sing with the harp, * to you, the Holy One of Israel.

When I sing to you my lips shall rejoice * and my soul, which you have redeemed.

And all the day long my tongue * shall tell the tale of your justice :

for they are put to shame and disgraced, * all those who seek to harm me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Lord * shall save the poor when they cry / and the needy who are helpless.

Psalm 71

The royal power of the Messiah

Opening their treasures, they offered him gifts : gold, frankincense and myrrh (Matthew 2 : 11).

O God, give your judgment to the king, * to a king's son your justice, that he may judge your people in justice * and your poor in right judgment.

May the mountains bring forth peace for the people * and the hills, justice.

May he defend the poor of the people † and save the children of the needy * and crush the oppressor.

He shall endure like the sun and the moon * from age to age.

He shall descend like rain on the meadow, * like raindrops on the earth.

In his days justice shall flourish * and peace till the moon fails.

He shall rule from sea to sea, * from the Great River to earth's bounds.

Before him his enemies shall fall, * his foes lick the dust.

The kings of Tarshish and the sea coasts * shall pay him tribute.

The kings of Sheba and Seba * shall bring him gifts.

Before him all kings shall fall prostrate, * all nations shall serve him.

For he shall save the poor when they cry * and the needy who are helpless.

He will have pity on the weak * and save the lives of the poor.

From oppression he will rescue their lives, * to him their blood is dear.

Long may he live, * may the gold of Sheba be given him.

They shall pray for him without ceasing * and bless him all the day.

May corn be abundant in the land * to the peaks of the mountains.

May its fruit rustle like Lebanon ; † may men flourish in the cities * like grass on the earth.

May his name be blest for ever * and endure like the sun.

Every tribe shall be blest in him, * all nations bless his name.

Blessèd be the Lord, God of Israel, * who alone works wonders, ever blessèd his glorious name. * Let his glory fill the earth. Amen ! Amen !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

How good * God is to Israel. †

This is not repeated in the Psalm.

Psalm 72

Why do the innocent suffer ?

Blessed is the man who does not lose faith in me (Matthew 11 : 6).

HOW good God is to Israel, * † to those who are pure of heart.

Yet my feet came close to stumbling, * my steps had almost slipped for I was filled with envy of the proud * when I saw how the wicked prosper.

For them there are no pains ; * their bodies are sound and sleek.

They have no share in men's sorrows; * they are not stricken like others.

So they wear their pride like a necklace, * they clothe themselves with violence.

Their hearts overflow with malice, * their minds seethe with plots.

They scoff ; they speak with malice ; * from on high they plan oppression.

They have set their mouths in the heavens * and their tongues dictate to the earth.

So the people turn to follow them * and drink in all their words.

They say : " How can God know ? * Does the Most High take any notice ? "

Look at them, such are the wicked, * but untroubled, they grow in wealth.

How useless to keep my heart pure * and wash my hands in innocence, when I was stricken all day long, * suffered punishment day after day.

Then I said : " If I should speak like that, * I should betray the race of your sons. "

I strove to fathom this problem, * too hard for my mind to understand, until I pierced the mysteries of God * and understood what becomes of the wicked.

How slippery the paths on which you set them ; * you make them slide to destruction.

How suddenly they come to their ruin, * wiped out, destroyed by terrors.

Like a dream one wakes from, O Lord, * when you wake you dismiss them as phantoms.

And so when my heart grew embittered * and when I was cut to the quick,

I was stupid and did not understand, * no better than a beast in your sight.

Yet I was always in your presence; * you were holding me by my right hand.

You will guide me by your counsel * and so you will lead me to glory.

What else have I in heaven but you ? * Apart from you I want nothing on earth.

My body and my heart faint for joy ; * God is my possession for ever.

All those who abandon you shall perish ; * you will destroy all those who are faithless.

To be near God is my happiness. * I have made the Lord God my refuge.

I will tell of all your works * at the gates of the city of Sion.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Canticle Isaiah 61 : 10–62 : 5

The prophet's joy in the vision of a new Jerusalem

I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, as beautiful as a bride prepared to meet her husband (Apocalypse 21 : 2).

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, * my soul shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, * he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, * and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

For as the earth brings forth its shoots, * and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise * to spring forth before all the nations.

For Sion's sake I will not keep silent, * and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication goes forth as brightness, * and her salvation as a burning torch.

The nations shall see your vindication, * and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name * which the mouth of the Lord will give.

You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, * and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

You shall no more be termed Forsaken, * and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;

but you shall be called My delight is in her, * and your land Married;

for the Lord delights in you, * and your land shall be married.

For as a young man marries a virgin, * so shall your sons marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, * so shall your God rejoice over you.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old :

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

Psalm 82

Appeal to God for help against destruction

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us

(Romans 8 : 18).

O God, do not keep silent, * do not be dumb and unmoved, O God, for your enemies raise a tumult. * Those who hate you lift up their heads.

They plot against your people, * conspire against those you love.

They say : " Come, let us destroy them as a nation ; * let the name of Israel be forgotten. "

They conspire with a single mind, * they make common alliance against you, the camps of Edom and of Ishmael, * the camps of Moab and Hagar, the land of Ammon and Amalek, * Philistia, with the people of Tyre.

Assyria, too, is their ally * and joins hands with the sons of Lot.

Treat them like Midian, like Sisera, * like Jabin at the River Kishon, the men who were destroyed at Endor, * whose bodies rotted on the ground.

Make their captains like Oreb and Zeëb, * all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, the men who said : " Let us take * the fields of God for ourselves. "

My God, scatter them like chaff, * drive them like straw in the wind !

As fire that burns away the forest, * as the flame that sets the mountains ablaze, drive them away with your tempest * and fill them with terror at your storm.

Cover their faces with shame, * till they seek your name, O Lord.

Shame and terror be theirs for ever ; * let them be disgraced, let them perish !

Let them know that your name is the Lord, * the Most High over all the earth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Blessèd are they * who dwell in your house, O Lord.

Psalm 83

Longing for the Lord's temple

For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city which is to come (Hebrews 13 : 14).

HOW lovely is your dwelling place, * Lord, God of hosts.

My soul is longing and yearning, * is yearning for the courts of the Lord.

My heart and my soul ring out their joy * to God, the living God.

The sparrow herself finds a home * and the swallow a nest for her brood ;

she lays her young by your altars, * Lord of hosts, my king and my God.

They are happy, who dwell in your house, * for ever singing your praise.

They are happy, whose strength is in you, * in whose hearts are the roads to Sion.

As they go through the Bitter Valley † they make it a place of springs * the autumn rain covers it with blessings.

They walk with ever growing strength, * they will see the God of gods in Sion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer, * give ear, O God of Jacob.

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield, * look on the face of your anointed.

One day within your courts * is better than a thousand elsewhere.

The threshold of the house of God * I prefer to the dwellings of the wicked.

For the Lord God is a rampart, a shield ; * he will give us his favor and glory.

The Lord will not refuse any good * to those who walk without blame.

Lord, God of hosts, * happy the man who trusts in you !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

The Lord * will make us prosper / and our earth shall yield its fruit.

Psalm 84

Our salvation is near at hand

God blessed his land when our Savior came on earth (Origen).

O Lord, you once favored your land * and revived the fortunes of Jacob, you forgave the guilt of your people * and covered all their sins.

You averted all your rage, * you calmed the heat of your anger.

Revive us now, God, our helper ! * Put an end to your grievance against us.

Will you be angry with us for ever, * will your anger never cease ?

Will you not restore again our life * that your people may rejoice in you ?

Let us see, O Lord, your mercy * and give us your saving help.

I will hear what the Lord God has to say, * a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people and his friends * and those who turn to him in their hearts.

His help is near for those who fear him * and his glory will dwell in our land.

Mercy and faithfulness have met ; * justice and peace have embraced.

Faithfulness shall spring from the earth * and justice look down from heaven.

The Lord will make us prosper * and our earth shall yield its fruit.

Justice shall march before him * and peace shall follow his steps.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 89

Let the splendor of the Lord be upon us

With the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like a day (2 Peter 3 : 8).

O Lord, you have been our refuge * † from one generation to the next.

Before the mountains were born † or the earth or the world brought forth, * you are God, without beginning or end.

You turn men back to dust and say : * " Go back, sons of men. "

To your eyes a thousand years † are like yesterday, come and gone, * no more than a watch in the night.

You sweep men away like a dream, * like the grass which springs up in the morning.

In the morning it springs up and flowers : * by evening it withers and fades.

So we are destroyed in your anger, * struck with terror in your fury.

Our guilt lies open before you ; * our secrets in the light of your face.

All our days pass away in your anger. * Our life is over like a sigh.

Our span is seventy years, * or eighty for those who are strong.

And most of these are emptiness and pain. * They pass swiftly and we are gone.

Who understands the power of your anger * and fears the strength of your fury ?

Make us know the shortness of our life * that we may gain wisdom of heart

Lord, relent ! Is your anger for ever ? * Show pity to your servants.

In the morning, fill us with your love ; * we shall exult and rejoice all our days.

Give us joy to balance our affliction * for the years when we knew misfortune.

Show forth your work to your servants ; * let your glory shine on their children.

Let the favor of the Lord be upon us : † give success to the work of our hands, * give success to the work of our hands.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Consolation and joy in the holy city

The Jerusalem which is above is free and is our mother (Gal 4 : 26).

REJOICE with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, * all you who love her ;

exult, exult with her, * all you who were mourning over her !

Oh, that you may suck fully * of the milk of her comfort,

that you may nurse with delight * at her abundant breasts !

For thus says the Lord : * Lo, I will spread prosperity over her like a river, and the wealth of the nations * like an overflowing torrent.

As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms, * and fondled in her lap ;

As a mother comforts her son, † so will I comfort you ; * in Jerusalem you shall find your comfort.

When you see this, your heart shall rejoice, * and your bodies flourish like the grass.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Reading

Through the Year Romans 8 : 18-21

THE sufferings of the present are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed in us. Indeed, the whole created world eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God. Creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but by him who once subjected it ; yet not without hope, because the world itself will be freed from its slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.

Psalm 98

The Lord our God is Holy

Christ, higher than the Cherubim, when you took our lowly nature you transformed our sinful world (Saint Athanasius).

THE Lord is king ; the peoples tremble. † He is throned on the cherubim ; the earth quakes. * The Lord is great in Sion.

He is supreme over all the peoples. † Let them praise his name, so terrible and great. * He is holy, full of power.

You are a king who loves what is right ; † you have established equity, justice and right ; * you have established them in Jacob.

Exalt the Lord our God ; † bow down before Sion, his footstool. * He the Lord is holy.

Among his priests were Aaron and Moses, † among those who invoked his name was Samuel. * They invoked the Lord and he answered.

To them he spoke in the pillar of cloud. † They did his will ; they kept the law, * which he, the Lord, had given.

O Lord our God, you answered them. † For them you were a God who forgives ; * yet you punished all their offenses.

Exalt the Lord our God ; † bow down before his holy mountain, * for the Lord our God is holy.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

If you love me, keep my commandments (John 14 : 15).

MY song is of mercy and justice ; * I sing to you, O Lord.

I will walk in the way of perfection. * O when, Lord, will you come ?

I will walk with blameless heart within my house ; * I will not set before my eyes whatever is base.

I will hate the ways of the crooked ; * they shall not be my friends.

The false-hearted must keep far away ; * the wicked I disown.

The man who slanders his neighbor in secret * I will bring to silence.

The man of proud looks and haughty heart * I will never endure.

I look to the faithful in the land * that they may dwell with me.

He who walks in the way of perfection * shall be my friend.

No man who practices deceit * shall live within my house.

No man who utters lies shall stand * before my eyes.

Morning by morning I will silence * all the wicked in the land, uprooting from the city of the Lord * all who do evil.

Psalm 107

Praise of God and a plea for help

Since the Son of God has been exalted above the heavens, his glory is preached through all the earth (Arnobius).

MY heart is ready, O God ; * I will sing, sing your praise.

Awake, my soul ; awake, lyre and harp. * I will awake the dawn.

I will thank you, Lord, among the peoples, * among the nations I will praise you, for your love reaches to the heavens * and your truth to the skies.

O God, arise above the heavens ; * may your glory shine on earth !

O come and deliver your friends ; * help with your right hand and reply.

From his holy place God has made this promise : † " I will triumph and divide the land of Shechem ; * I will measure out the valley of Succoth.

Gilead is mine and Manasseh. † Ephraim I take for my helmet, * Judah for my commander's staff.

Moab I will use for my washbowl, † on Edom I will plant my shoe. * Over the Philistines I will shout in triumph. "

But who will lead me to conquer the fortress ? * Who will bring me face to face with Edom ?

Will you utterly reject us, O God, * and no longer march with our armies ?

Give us help against the foe : * for the help of man is vain.

With God we shall do bravely * and he will trample down our foes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

FRIDAY IV AT LAUDS

℣. O God, come to my assistance. Glory be. As it was.

1 Antiphon

Through the Year :

In Israel * his name is great.

December 17-23 :

Be steadfast, * and you will see the salvation of the Lord overshadowing you.

December 24 :

Judea and Jerusalem, * do not be afraid : / tomorrow you shall go forth, / and the Lord will be with you, alleluia.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 75

Thanksgiving for victory

They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven (Matthew 24 : 30).

GOD is made known in Judah ; * in Israel his name is great.

He set up his tent in Jerusalem * and his dwelling place in Sion.

It was there he broke the flashing arrows, * the shield, the sword, the armor.

You, O Lord, are resplendent, * more majestic than the everlasting mountains.

The warriors, despoiled, slept in death ; * the hands of the soldiers were powerless.

At your threat, O God of Jacob, * horse and rider lay stunned.

You, you alone, strike terror. * Who shall stand when your anger is roused ?

You uttered your sentence from the heavens ; * the earth in terror was still when God arose to judge, * to save the humble of the earth.

Men's anger will serve to praise you ; * its survivors surround you with joy.

Make vows to your God and fulfill them. * Let all pay tribute to him who strikes terror, who cuts short the breath of princes, * who strikes terror in the kings of the earth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Rejoice, Jerusalem, * for through you all men will be gathered to the Lord.

December 17-23 :

God shall come * from Lebanon, / and his brightness shall be as the light.

December 24 :

The Lord will come, * go out to meet him, and say : / Great is his dominion, / and of his kingdom there shall be no end : / He is the mighty God, the Ruler, the Prince of Peace, alleluia.

Paschaltide :

Jerusalem, city of God * you will shine with a radiant light, alleluia.

Canticle Tobit 13 : 8-11. 13-15

Thanksgiving for the liberation of the people

And he showed me the holy city Jerusalem . . . having the glory of God (Apocalypse 21 : 10-11).

LET all men speak of the Lord's majesty * and sing his praises in Jerusalem.

O Jerusalem, holy city, † he scourged you for the works of your hands, * but will again pity the children of the righteous.

Praise the Lord for his goodness, † and bless the King of the ages, * so that his tent may be rebuilt in you with joy.

May he gladden within you all who were captives ; † all who were ravaged may he cherish within you * for all generations to come.

A bright light will shine to all parts of the earth ; † many nations shall come to you from afar, * and the inhabitants of all the limits of the earth, drawn to you by the name of the Lord God, * bearing in their hands their gifts for the King of heaven.

Every generation shall give joyful praise in you, † and shall call you the chosen one, * through all ages forever.

Go, then, rejoice over the children of the righteous, † who shall all be gathered together * and shall bless the Lord of the ages.

Happy are those who love you, * and happy those who rejoice in your prosperity.

Happy are all the men who shall grieve over you, * over all your chastisements, for they shall rejoice in you † as they behold all your joy forever. * My spirit blesses the Lord, the great King.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Rejoice, Jerusalem, for through you all men will be gathered to the Lord.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

With timbrel and dance, * with strings and pipes, praise God.

December 17-23 :

Yet will I look * to the Lord, / and I will wait for God my Savior.

December 24 :

Tomorrow * salvation shall be yours, / says the Lord God of hosts, alleluia.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 150

Praise the Lord

Let mind and heart be in your song : this is to glorify God with your whole self (Hesychius).

PRAISE God in his holy place, * praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, * praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, * praise him with lute and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance, * praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, * praise him with clashing of cymbals.

Let everything that lives and that breathes * give praise to the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old:

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us ;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High ; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

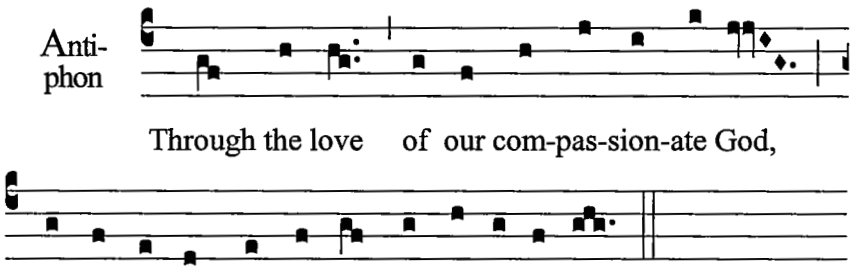
to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

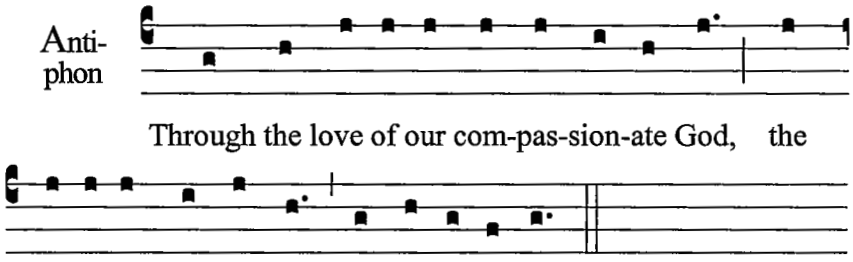
to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.



Or:



Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

But deliver us from evil.

Then is said :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Prayer from the Proper, or the following may be said :

Let us pray. Prayer

LORD, fill our hearts with your love as morning fills the sky. * By living your law may we have your peace in this life and endless joy in the life to come. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

Through the Year :

O give thanks * to the Lord ; / for his love endures for ever.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Under this one Antiphon are chanted the Psalms of the feria.

Psalm 106

Thanksgiving for liberation

You know the word which God sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ (Acts 10 : 36).

I

O give thanks to the Lord for he is good ; * for his love endures for ever.

Let them say this, the Lord's redeemed, * whom he redeemed from the hand of the foe and gathered from far-off lands, * from east and west, north and south.

Some wandered in the desert, in the wilderness, * finding no way to a city they could dwell in.

Hungry they were and thirsty ; * their soul was fainting within them.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need * and he rescued them from their distress and he led them along the right way, * to reach a city they could dwell in.

Let them thank the Lord for his love, * for the wonders he does for men.

For he satisfies the thirsty soul ; * he fills the hungry with good things.

Some lay in darkness and in gloom, * prisoners in misery and chains, having defied the words of God * and spurned the counsels of the Most High.

He crushed their spirit with toil ; * they stumbled ; there was no one to help.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need * and he rescued them from their distress.

He led them forth from darkness and gloom * and broke their chains to pieces.

Let them thank the Lord for his goodness, * for the wonders he does for men.

For he bursts the gates of bronze * and shatters the iron bars.

Some were sick on account of their sins * and afflicted on account of their guilt.

They had a loathing for every food ; * they came close to the gates of death.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need * and he rescued them from their distress.

He sent forth his word to heal them * and saved their life from the grave.

Let them thank the Lord for his love, * the wonders he does for men.

Let them offer a sacrifice of thanks * and tell of his deeds with rejoicing.

Some sailed to the sea in ships * to trade on the mighty waters.

These men have seen the Lord's deeds, * the wonders he does in the deep.

For he spoke ; he summoned the gale, * tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep ; * their souls melted away in their distress.

They staggered, reeled like drunken men, * for all their skill was gone.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need * and he rescued them from their distress.

He stilled the storm to a whisper : * all the waves of the sea were hushed.

They rejoiced because of the calm * and he led them to the haven they desired.

Let them thank the Lord for his love, * for the wonders he does for men.

Let them exalt him in the gathering of the people * and praise him in the meeting of the elders.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

O give thanks to the Lord ; / for his love endures for ever.

2 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Whoever is wise, * let him heed these things / and consider the love of the Lord.

II

HE changes streams into a desert, * springs of water into thirsty ground, fruitful land into a salty waste, * for the wickedness of those who live there.

But he changes desert into streams, * thirsty ground into springs of water.

There he settles the hungry * and they build a city to dwell in.

They sow fields and plant their vines ; * these yield crops for the harvest.

He blesses them ; they grow in numbers. * He does not let their herds decrease.

He pours contempt upon princes, * makes them wander in trackless wastes.

They diminish, are reduced to nothing * by oppression, evil and sorrow.

But he raises the needy from distress ; * makes families numerous as a flock.

The upright see it and rejoice * but all who do wrong are silenced.

Whoever is wise, let him heed these things * and consider the love of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through the Year :

Whoever is wise, let him heed these things / and consider the love of the Lord.

3 Antiphon

Through the Year :

Do not be silent, * O God, / for the mouths of wickedness are opened against me.

Psalm 108

Appeal for help against vicious enemies

In the world you will have trouble ; but be brave, I have overcome the world (John 16 : 33).

O God whom I praise, do not be silent : † for the mouths of deceit and wickedness * are opened against me.

They speak to me with lying tongues ; † they beset me with words of hate * and attack me without cause.

In return for my love they accuse me * while I pray for them.

They repay me evil for good, * hatred for love.

Appoint a wicked man as his judge : * let an accuser stand at his right.

When he is judged let him come out condemned ; * let his prayer be considered as sin.

Let the days of his life be few ; * let another man take his office.

Let his children be fatherless orphans * and his wife become a widow.

Let his children be wanderers and beggars * driven from the ruins of their home.

Let the creditor seize all his goods ; * let strangers take the fruit of his work.

Let no one show him any mercy * nor pity his fatherless children.

Let all his sons be destroyed * and with them their name be blotted out.

Let his father's guilt be remembered, * his mother's sin be retained.

Let it always stand before the Lord, * that their memory be cut off from the earth.

For he did not think of showing mercy † but pursued the poor and the needy, * hounding the wretched to death.

He loved cursing ; let curses fall upon him. * He scorned blessing ; let blessing pass him by.

He put on cursing like his coat ; † let it soak into his body like water ; * let it sink like oil into his bones ;

let it be like the clothes that cover him, * like a girdle he cannot take off !

Let the Lord thus repay my accusers, * all those who speak evil against me.

For your name's sake act in my defense ; * in the goodness of your love be my rescuer.

For I am poor and needy * and my heart is pierced within me.

I fade like an evening shadow ; * I am shaken off like a locust.

My knees are weak from fasting ; * my body is thin and gaunt.

I have become an object of scorn, * all who see me toss their heads.

Help me, Lord my God ; * save me because of your love.

Let them know that this is your work, * that this is your doing, O Lord.

They may curse, but you will bless. † Let my attackers be put to shame, * but let your servant rejoice.

Let my accusers be clothed with dishonor, * covered with shame as with a cloak.

Loud thanks to the Lord are on my lips. * I will praise him in the midst of the throng, for he stands at the poor man's side * to save him from those who condemn him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 142

Prayer in time of desolation

A man is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ (Gal 2 : 16).

LORD, listen to my prayer : † turn your ear to my appeal. * You are faithful, you are just ; give answer.

Do not call your servant to judgment * for no one is just in your sight.

The enemy pursues my soul ; * he has crushed my life to the ground ;

he has made me dwell in darkness * like the dead, long forgotten.

Therefore my spirit fails ; * my heart is numb within me.

I remember the days that are past : * I ponder all your works.

I muse on what your hand has wrought † and to you I stretch out my hands. * Like a parched land my soul thirsts for you.

Lord, make haste and answer ; * for my spirit fails within me.

Do not hide your face * lest I become like those in the grave.

In the morning let me know your love * for I put my trust in you.

Make me know the way I should walk : * to you I lift up my soul.

Rescue me, Lord, from my enemies ; * I have fled to you for refuge.

Teach me to do your will * for you, O Lord, are my God.

Let your good spirit guide me * in ways that are level and smooth.

For your name's sake, Lord, save my life ; * in your justice save my soul from distress.

In your love make an end of my foes ; † destroy all those who oppress me * for I am your servant, O Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

The joy of God's holy people

Let the sons of the Church, the children of the new people, rejoice in Christ, their King (Hesychius).

SING a new song to the Lord, * his praise in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in its Maker, * let Sion's sons exult in their king.

Let them praise his name with dancing * and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. * He crowns the poor with salvation.

Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, * shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips * and a two-edged sword in their hand,

to deal out vengeance to the nations * and punishment on all the peoples ;

to bind their kings in chains * and their nobles in fetters of iron ;

to carry out the sentence pre-ordained : * this honor is for all his faithful.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old:

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated, 569-70.

Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

But deliver us from evil.

Then is said :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

I. Through the Year :

Let us pray. Prayer

ALL-powerful and ever-living God, splendor of true light, and never ending day : * let the radiance of your coming banish from our minds the darkness of sin. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

II. Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Saturday :

Let us pray. Prayer

LORD our God, you sent your Son from heaven into the womb of the Blessed Virgin to be your saving Word and our Bread of Life. * Grant that like Mary we may welcome Christ by treasuring his words in our hearts and celebrating with deep faith the mysteries of our redemption. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen

After the Prayer :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.
℣. Let us bless the Lord. ℟. Thanks be to God.

℣. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. ℟. Amen.
℣. May the divine assistance remain always with us.
℟. And with our absent brethren. Amen.

Psalm 1 Two ways of living

Blessed are they who put their trust in the Cross of the Lord and descended into the waters of baptism (2nd century Anonymous).

HAPPY indeed is the man * who follows not the counsel of the wicked ;

nor lingers in the way of sinners * nor sits in the company of scorners, but whose delight is the law of the Lord * and who ponders his law day and night.

He is like a tree that is planted * beside the flowing waters, that yields its fruit in due season * and whose leaves shall never fade ;

and all that he does shall prosper. * Not so are the wicked, not so !

For they like winnowed chaff * shall be driven away by the wind.

When the wicked are judged they shall not stand, * nor find room among those who are just ;

for the Lord guards the way of the just * but the way of the wicked leads to doom.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 2 The Messiah is king and conqueror

They were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you had anointed (Acts 4 : 27).

WHY this tumult among nations, * among peoples this useless murmuring?

They arise, the kings of the earth, * princes plot against the Lord and his Anointed.

" Come, let us break their fetters, * come, let us cast off their yoke. "

He who sits in the heavens laughs ; * the Lord is laughing them to scorn.

Then he will speak in his anger, * his rage will strike them with terror.

" It is I who have set up my king * on Sion, my holy mountain. "

I will announce the decree of the Lord : † The Lord said to me : " You are my Son. * It is I who have begotten you this day.

Ask and I shall bequeath you the nations, * put the ends of the earth in your possession.

With a rod of iron you will break them, * shatter them like a potter's jar. "

Now, O kings, understand, * take warning, rulers of the earth ;

Serve the Lord with awe * and trembling, pay him your homage lest he be angry and you perish ; * for suddenly his anger will blaze.

Blessèd are they * who put their trust in God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 3 The Lord is my protector

Christ fell asleep in death, but he rose from the dead, for the Lord upheld his life (Saint Irenaeus).

HOW many are my foes, O Lord ! * How many are rising up against me !

How many are saying about me : * " There is no help for him in God. "

But you, Lord, are a shield about me, * my glory, who lift up my head.

I cry aloud to the Lord. * He answers from his holy mountain.

I lie down to rest, and I sleep. * I wake, for the Lord upholds me.

I will not fear even thousands of people * who are ranged on every side against me.

Arise, Lord ; save me, my God, * you who strike all my foes on the mouth, you who break the teeth of the wicked ! * O Lord of salvation, bless your people !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 6 — An afflicted man implores the clemency of the Lord

Now is my soul troubled . . . Father, save me from this hour (John 12 : 27).

LORD, do not reprove me in your anger ; * punish me not, in your rage.

Have mercy on me, Lord, I have no strength ; † Lord, heal me, my body is racked ; * my soul is racked with pain.

But you, O Lord . . . How long ? * Return, Lord, rescue my soul.

Save me in your merciful love ; † for in death no one remembers you ; * from the grave, who can give you praise ?

I am exhausted with my groaning ; * every night I drench my pillow with tears ;

I bedew my bed with weeping. † My eye wastes away with grief ; * I have grown old surrounded by my foes.

Leave me, all you who do evil ; * for the Lord has heard my weeping.

The Lord has heard my plea ; * the Lord will accept my prayer.

All my foes will retire in confusion, * foiled and suddenly confounded.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 7 Prayer of the just man who is being slandered

Behold, the judge is standing at the doors (John 12 : 27).

I

LORD God, I take refuge in you. * From my pursuer save me and rescue me,

Lest he tear me to pieces like a lion * and drag me off with no one to rescue me.

Lord God, if my hands have done wrong, * if I have paid back evil for good,

I who saved my unjust oppressor : * then let my foe pursue me and seize me,

Let him trample my life to the ground * and lay my soul in the dust.

Lord, rise up in your anger, * rise against the fury of my foes ;

My God, awake ! * You will give judgment.

Let the company of nations gather round you, † taking your seat above them on high. * The Lord is judge of the peoples.

Give judgment for me, Lord ; † I am just and innocent of heart. * Put an end to the evil of the wicked !

Make the just stand firm, † you who test mind and heart, * O just God !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

GOD is the shield that protects me, * who saves the upright of heart.

God is a just judge * slow to anger ;

But he threatens the wicked every day, * men who will not repent.

God will sharpen his sword ; * he has braced his bow and taken aim.

For them he has prepared deadly weapons ; * he barbs his arrows with fire.

Here is one who is pregnant with malice, * conceives evil and brings forth lies.

He digs a pitfall, digs it deep ; * and in the trap he has made he will fall.

His malice will recoil on himself ; * on his own head his violence will fall.

I will thank the Lord for his justice : * I will sing to the Lord, the Most High.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 8 The majesty of God, the dignity of man

He has put all things under his feet, and has made him the head over all things for the Church, which is his body (Ephesians 1 : 22).

HOW great is your name, O Lord our God, * through all the earth !

Your majesty is praised above the heavens ; * on the lips of children and of babes you have found praise to foil your enemy, * to silence the foe and the rebel.

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, * the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, * mortal man that you care for him ?

Yet you have made him little less than a god ; * with glory and honor you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, * put all things under his feet.

All of them, sheep and cattle, * yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish * that make their way through the waters.

How great is your name, O Lord our God, * through all the earth !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 10 The Lord is the confidence of the just Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for justice, for they shall be satisfied (Matthew 5 : 6).

IN the Lord I have taken my refuge. † How can you say to my soul: * " Fly like a bird to its mountain.

See the wicked bracing their bow ; * they are fixing their arrows on the string to shoot upright men in the dark. * Foundations once destroyed, what can the just do ? "

The Lord is in his holy temple, * the Lord, whose throne is in heaven.

His eyes look down on the world ; * his gaze tests mortal men.

The Lord tests the just and the wicked : * the lover of violence he hates.

He sends fire and brimstone on the wicked ; * he sends a scorching wind as their lot.

The Lord is just and loves justice : * the upright shall see his face.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 11 Invocation against the proud

For the sake of us poor, the Father deigned to send his Son (Saint Augustine).

HELP, O Lord, for good men have vanished : * truth has gone from the sons of men.

Falsehood they speak one to another, * with lying lips, with a false heart.

May the Lord destroy all lying lips, * the tongue that speaks high-sounding words,

Those who say : " Our tongue is our strength ; * our lips are our own, who is our master ? "

" For the poor who are oppressed and the needy who groan, † I myself will arise, " says the Lord. * " I will grant them the salvation for which they thirst. "

The words of the Lord are words without alloy, * silver from the furnace, seven times refined.

It is you, O Lord, who will take us in your care * and protect us for ever from this generation.

See how the wicked prowl on every side, * while the worthless are prized highly by the sons of men.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 9 A Thanksgiving after victory

He shall come again to judge the living and the dead.

I

I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart ; * I will recount all your wonders.

I will rejoice in you and be glad, * and sing psalms to your name, O Most High.

See how my enemies turn back, * how they stumble and perish before you.

You upheld the justice of my cause ; * you sat enthroned, judging with justice.

You have checked the nations, destroyed the wicked ; * you have wiped out their name for ever and ever.

The foe is destroyed, eternally ruined. * You uprooted their cities ; their memory has perished.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

BUT the Lord sits enthroned for ever. * He has set up his throne for judgment;

he will judge the world with justice, * he will judge the peoples with his truth.

For the oppressed let the Lord be a stronghold, * a stronghold in times of distress.

Those who know your name will trust you : * you will never forsake those who seek you.

Sing psalms to the Lord who dwells in Sion. * Proclaim his mighty works among the peoples; for the Avenger of blood has remembered them, * has not forgotten the cry of the poor.

Have pity on me, Lord, see my sufferings, * you who save me from the gates of death;

that I may recount all your praise † at the gates of the city of Sion * and rejoice in your saving help.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

THE nations have fallen in the pit which they made, * their feet caught in the snare they laid.

The Lord has revealed himself, and given judgment. * The wicked are snared in the work of their own hands.

Let the wicked go down among the dead, * all the nations forgetful of God.

For the needy shall not always be forgotten, * nor the hopes of the poor be in vain.

Arise, Lord, let men not prevail! * Let the nations be judged before you.

Lord, strike them with terror, * let the nations know they are but men.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 9 B Thanksgiving

Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God (Luke 6 : 20).

I

LORD, why do you stand afar off * and hide yourself in times of distress ?

The poor man is devoured by the pride of the wicked : * he is caught in the schemes that others have made.

For the wicked man boasts of his heart's desires ; * the covetous blasphemes and spurns the Lord.

In his pride the wicked says : " He will not punish. * There is no God. " Such are his thoughts.

His path is ever untroubled ; * your judgment is far from his mind.

His enemies he regards with contempt. † He thinks : " Never shall I falter : * misfortune shall never be my lot. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

HIS mouth is full of cursing, guile, oppression, * mischief and deceit under his tongue.

He lies in wait among the reeds ; * the innocent he murders in secret.

His eyes are on the watch for the helpless man. * He lurks in hiding like a lion in his lair ;

He lurks in hiding to seize the poor ; * he seizes the poor man and drags him away.

He crouches, preparing to spring, * and the helpless fall beneath his strength.

He thinks in his heart : " God forgets, * he hides his face, he does not see. "

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

ARISE then, Lord, lift up your hand ! * O God, do not forget the poor !

Why should the wicked spurn the Lord * and think in his heart : " He will not punish ? "

But you have seen the trouble and sorrow, * you note it, you take it in hand.

The helpless trusts himself to you ; * for you are the helper of the orphan.

Break the power of the wicked and the sinner ! * Punish his wickedness till nothing remains !

The Lord is king for ever and ever. * The heathen shall perish from the land he rules.

Lord, you hear the prayer of the poor ; * you strengthen their hearts ; you turn your ear to protect the rights of the orphan and oppressed : * so that mortal man may strike terror no more.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 12 Lamentation of the just man who trusts in the Lord

May the God of hope fill you with all joy (Romans 15 :13).

HOW long, O Lord, will you forget me ? * How long will you hide your face ?

How long must I bear grief in my soul, † This sorrow in my heart day and night ? * How long shall my enemy prevail ?

Look at me, answer me, Lord my God ! * Give light to my eyes lest I fall asleep in death,

Lest my enemy say : " I have overcome him " ; * lest my foes rejoice to see my fall.

As for me, I trust in your merciful love. * Let my heart rejoice in your saving help :

Let me sing to the Lord for his goodness to me, * singing psalms to the name of the Lord, the Most High.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 13 The foolishness of the impious

Where sin increased, grace abounded all the more (Romans 5 : 20).

THE fool has said in his heart : * " There is no God above. "

Their deeds are corrupt, depraved ; * not a good man is left.

From heaven the Lord looks down * on the sons of men to see if any are wise, * if any seek God.

All have left the right path, * depraved, every one :

There is not a good man left, * no, not even one.

Will the evil-doers not understand ? * They eat up my people as though they were eating bread : * they never pray to the Lord.

See how they tremble with fear † without cause for fear : * for God is with the just.

You may mock the poor man's hope, * but his refuge is the Lord.

O that Israel's salvation might come from Sion! * When the Lord delivers his people from bondage, then Jacob will be glad * and Israel rejoice.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 14 Who is worthy before the Lord ?

You have come to Mount Sion and the city of the living God (Hebrews 12 : 22).

LORD, who shall be admitted to your tent * and dwell on your holy mountain ?

He who walks without fault ; * he who acts with justice and speaks the truth from his heart ; * he who does not slander with his tongue ;

he who does no wrong to his brother, * who casts no slur on his neighbor, who holds the godless in disdain, * but honors those who fear the Lord ;

he who keeps his pledge, come what may ; * who takes no interest on a loan and accepts no bribes against the innocent. * Such a man will stand firm for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

SATURDAY I AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

O Lord, * it is you who are my portion and cup.

Saturday BVM :

I am very dark * but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem ; / therefore the king loved me and brought me into his chamber (P. T. alleluia).

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall come and all his saints with him ; / and there shall be on that day a great light, alleluia.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Passiontide :

I know my own sheep, * and my own know me, / as the Father knows me and as I know the Father ; / I lay down my life for my sheep.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 15 The Lord is my portion

But God raised up Jesus, freeing him from the pains of death (Acts 2 : 24).

PReserve me, God, I take refuge in you. † I say to the Lord : " You are my God. * My happiness lies in you alone. "

He has put into my heart a marvellous love * for the faithful ones who dwell in his land.

Those who choose other gods increase their sorrows. † Never will I offer their offerings of blood. * Never will I take their name upon my lips.

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup ; * it is you yourself who are my prize.

The lot marked out for me is my delight : * welcome indeed the heritage that falls to me !

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel, * who even at night directs my heart.

I keep the Lord ever in my sight : * since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad ; * even my body shall rest in safety.

For you will not leave my soul among the dead, * nor let your beloved know decay.

You will show me the path of life, † the fullness of joy in your presence, * at your right hand happiness for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 16 Save me, Lord, from the impious

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers . . . and he was heard (Hebrews 5 : 7).

I

LORD, hear a cause that is just, * Pay heed to my cry.

Turn your ear to my prayer : * no deceit is on my lips.

From you may my judgment come forth. * Your eyes discern the truth.

You search my heart, you visit me by night. † You test me and you find in me no wrong. * My words are not sinful as are men's words.

I kept from violence because of your word, † I kept my feet firmly in your paths ; * there was no faltering in my steps.

I am here and I call, you will hear me, O God. * Turn your ear to me ; hear my words.

Display your great love, you whose right hand saves * your friends from those who rebel against them.

Guard me as the apple of your eye. † Hide me in the shadow of your wings * from the violent attack of the wicked.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

MY foes encircle me with deadly intent. † Their hearts tight shut, their mouths speak proudly. * They advance against me, and now they surround me.

Their eyes are watching to strike me to the ground † as though they were lions ready to claw * or like some young lion crouched in hiding.

Lord, arise, confront them, strike them down ! * Let your sword rescue my soul from the wicked ;

let your hand, O Lord, rescue me from men, * from men whose reward is in this present life.

You give them their fill of your treasures ; † they rejoice in abundance of offspring * and leave their wealth to their children.

As for me, in my justice I shall see your face * and be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

SUNDAY II AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear, and will not deceive us ; / though he delay, wait for him, / for he will surely come, he will not be late, alleluia.

Christmas :

Mary * treasured all these things / and pondered them in her heart.

Lent :

Let us make here * three tents, / one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

Palm Sunday :

The children of the Hebrews, * taking up olive branches, met the Lord, crying and saying : / Hosanna in the highest.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 1-32 — Meditation on the Word of the Lord in the law

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments (1 John 5 : 3).

I

THEY are happy whose life is blameless, * who follow God's law !

They are happy who do his will, * seeking him with all their hearts, who never do anything evil * but walk in his ways.

You have laid down your precepts * to be obeyed with care.

May my footsteps be firm * to obey your statutes.

Then I shall not be put to shame * as I heed your commands.

I will thank you with an upright heart * as I learn your decrees.

I will obey your statutes : * do not forsake me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

HOW shall the young remain sinless ? * By obeying your word.

I have sought you with all my heart : * let me not stray from your commands.

I treasure your promise in my heart * lest I sin against you.

Blessèd are you, O Lord ; * teach me your statutes.

With my tongue I have recounted * the decrees of your lips.

I rejoiced to do your will * as though all riches were mine.

I will ponder all your precepts * and consider your paths.

I take delight in your statutes ; * I will not forget your word.

Bless your servant and I shall live * and obey your word.

Open my eyes that I may see * the wonders of your law.

I am a pilgrim on the earth ; * show me your commands.

My soul is ever consumed * as I long for your decrees.

You threaten the proud, the accursed, * who turn from your commands.

Relieve me from scorn and contempt * for I do your will.

Though princes sit plotting against me * I ponder on your statutes.

Your will is my delight ; * your statutes are my counsellors.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

MY soul lies in the dust ; * by your word revive me.

I declared my ways and you answered : * teach me your statutes.

Make me grasp the way of your precepts * and I will muse on your wonders.

My soul pines away with grief ; * by your word raise me up.

Keep me from the way of error * and teach me your law.

I have chosen the way of truth * with your decrees before me.

I bind myself to do your will ; * Lord, do not disappoint me.

I will run the way of your commands ; * you give freedom to my heart.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

MONDAY II AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Guide me * in the path of your commands.

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear, and will not deceive us ; / though he delay, wait for him, / for he will surely come, he will not be late, alleluia.

Christmas :

Mary * treasured all these things / and pondered them in her heart.

Epiphany :

Christ came * and preached peace to you who were far off / and peace to those who were near.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Holy Week :

I will grant him * very many peoples as his own, / for he has given himself up to death for all.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 33-56

I

TEACH me the demands of your statutes * and I will keep them to the end.

Train me to observe your law, * to keep it with my heart.

Guide me in the path of your commands ; * for there is my delight.

Bend my heart to your will * and not to love of gain.

Keep my eyes from what is false : * by your word, give me life.

Keep the promise you have made * to the servant who fears you.

Keep me from the scorn I dread, * for your decrees are good.

See, I long for your precepts : * then in your justice, give me life.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

LORD, let your love come upon me, * the saving help of your promise.

And I shall answer those who taunt me, * for I trust in your word.

Do not take the word of truth from my mouth * for I trust in your decrees.

I shall always keep your law * for ever and ever.

I shall walk in the path of freedom * for I seek your precepts.

I will speak of your will before kings * and not be abashed.

Your commands have been my delight ; * these I have loved.

I will worship your commands and love them * and ponder your statutes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

REmember your word to your servant * by which you gave me hope.

This is my comfort in sorrow * that your promise gives me life.

Though the proud may utterly deride me * I keep to your law.

I remember your decrees of old * and these, Lord, console me.

I am seized with indignation at the wicked * who forsake your law.

Your statutes have become my song * in the land of exile.

I think of your name in the night-time * and I keep your law.

This has been my blessing, * the keeping of your precepts.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

TUESDAY II AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Teach me * discernment, O Lord, / for I trust in your commands.

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear, and will not deceive us ; / though he delay, wait for him, / for he will surely come, he will not be late, alleluia.

Christmas :

Mary * treasured all these things / and pondered them in her heart.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Holy Week :

My people, * what have I done unto you ? / Or in what have I offended you ? / Answer me.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 57-80

I

MY part, I have resolved, O Lord, * is to obey your word.

With all my heart I implore your favor ; * show the mercy of your promise.

I have pondered over my ways * and returned to your will.

I made haste and did not delay * to obey your commands.

Though the nets of the wicked ensnared me * I remembered your law.

At midnight I will rise and thank you * for your just decrees.

I am a friend of all who revere you, * who obey your precepts.

Lord, your love fills the earth. * teach me your statutes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

LORD, you have been good to your servant * according to your word.

Teach me discernment and knowledge * for I trust in your commands.

Before I was afflicted I strayed * but now I keep your word.

You are good and your deeds are good ; * teach me your statutes.

Though proud men smear me with lies * yet I keep your precepts.

Their minds are closed to good * but your law is my delight.

It was good for me to be afflicted, * to learn your statutes.

The law from your mouth means more to me * than silver and gold.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

IT was your hands that made me and shaped me : * help me to learn your commands.

Your faithful will see me and rejoice * for I trust in your word.

Lord, I know that your decrees are right, * that you afflicted me justly.

Let your love be ready to console me * by your promise to your servant.

Let your love come and I shall live * for your law is my delight.

Shame the proud who harm me with lies * while I ponder your precepts.

Let your faithful turn to me, * those who know your will.

Let my heart be blameless in your statutes * lest I be ashamed.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

WEDNESDAY II AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Your word, O Lord, * for ever / stands firm in the heavens.

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear, and will not deceive us ; / though he delay, wait for him, / for he will surely come, he will not be late, alleluia.

Christmas :

Mary * treasured all these things / and pondered them in her heart.

Epiphany :

Christ came * and preached peace to you who were far off / and peace to those who were near.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Holy Week :

He took * all our sins upon himself / and asked forgiveness for our transgressions.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 81-104

I

I yearn for your saving help ; *
I hope in your word.

My eyes yearn to see your promise. * When will you console me ?

Though parched and exhausted with waiting * I remember your statutes.

How long must your servant suffer ? * When will you judge my foes ?

For me the proud have dug pitfalls, * against your law.

Your commands are all true ; then help me * when lies oppress me.

They almost made an end of me on earth * but I kept your precepts.

Because of your love give me life * and I will do your will.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

YOUR word, O Lord, for ever * stands firm in the heavens:

Your truth lasts from age to age, * like the earth you created.

By your decree it endures to this day; * for all things serve you.

Had your law not been my delight * I would have died in my affliction.

I will never forget your precepts * for with them you give me life.

Save me, for I am yours * since I seek your precepts.

Though the wicked lie in wait to destroy me * yet I ponder on your will.

I have seen that all perfection has an end * but your command is boundless.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

LORD, how I love your law! * It is ever in my mind.

Your command makes me wiser than my foes; * for it is mine for ever.

I have more insight than all who teach me * for I ponder your will.

I have more understanding than the old, * for I keep your precepts.

I turn my feet from evil paths * to obey your word.

I have not turned from your decrees; * you yourself have taught me.

Your promise is sweeter to my taste * than honey in the mouth.

I gain understanding from your precepts * and so I hate false ways.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

THURSDAY II AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Do not confound me, O Lord, * in my expectation.

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear, and will not deceive us ; / though he delay, wait for him, / for he will surely come, he will not be late, alleluia.

Christmas :

Mary * treasured all these things / and pondered them in her heart.

Epiphany :

Christ came * and preached peace to you who were far off / and peace to those who were near.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Holy Week :

The Lord * was led as a lamb to the slaughter, / and he opened not his mouth.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 105-128

I

YOUR word is a lamp for my steps * and a light for my path.

I have sworn and have made up my mind * to obey your decrees.

Lord, I am deeply afflicted : * by your word give me life.

Accept, Lord, the homage of my lips * and teach me your decrees.

Though I carry my life in my hands, * I remember your law.

Though the wicked try to ensnare me * I do not stray from your precepts.

Your will is my heritage for ever, * the joy of my heart.

I set myself to carry out your statutes * in fullness, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

I have no love for half-hearted men : * my love is for your law.

You are my shelter, my shield ; * I hope in your word.

Leave me, you who do evil ; * I will keep God's command.

UPHOLD ME, O LORD, ACCORDING TO YOUR PROMISE, AND I SHALL LIVE, * AND DO NOT CONFOUND ME IN MY EXPECTATION.

Sustain me and I shall be saved * and ever observe your statutes.

You spurn all who swerve from your statutes ; * their cunning is in vain.

You throw away the wicked like dross : * so I love your will.

I tremble before you in terror ; * I fear your decrees.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

I have done what is right and just : * let me not be oppressed.

Vouch for the welfare of your servant * lest the proud oppress me.

My eyes yearn for your saving help * and the promise of your justice.

Treat your servant with love * and teach me your statutes.

I am your servant, give me knowledge ; * then I shall know your will.

It is time for the Lord to act * for your law has been broken.

That is why I love your commands * more than finest gold,

why I rule my life by your precepts : * and hate false ways.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

FRIDAY II AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Turn * and show me your mercy, O Lord.

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear, and will not deceive us ; / though he delay, wait for him, / for he will surely come, he will not be late, alleluia.

Christmas :

Mary * treasured all these things / and pondered them in her heart.

Epiphany :

Christ came * and preached peace to you who were far off / and peace to those who were near.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 129-152

I

YOUR will is wonderful indeed ; * therefore I obey it.

The unfolding of your word gives light * and teaches the simple.

I open my mouth and I sigh * as I yearn for your commands.

Turn and show me your mercy ; * show justice to your friends.

Let my steps be guided by your promise ; * let no evil rule me.

Redeem me from man's oppression * and I will keep your precepts.

Let your face shine on your servant * and teach me your decrees.

Tears stream from my eyes * because your law is disobeyed.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

LORD, you are just indeed ; * your decrees are right.

You have imposed your will with justice * and with absolute truth.

I am carried away by anger * for my foes forget your word.

Your promise is tried in the fire, * the delight of your servant.

Although I am weak and despised * I remember your precepts.

Your justice is eternal justice * and your law is truth.

Though anguish and distress have seized me, * I delight in your commands.

The justice of your will is eternal : * if you teach me, I shall live.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

I call with all my heart ; Lord, hear me, * I will keep your statutes.

I call upon you, save me * and I will do your will.

I rise before dawn and cry for help, * I hope in your word.

My eyes watch through the night * to ponder your promise.

In your love hear my voice, O Lord ; * give me life by your decrees.

Those who harm me unjustly draw near : * they are far from your law.

But you, O Lord, are close : * your commands are truth.

Long have I known that your will * is established for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

SATURDAY II AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Let your hand * be ready to help me, O Lord, / since I have chosen your precepts.

Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Saturday :

You are the glory * of Jerusalem, / you are the joy of Israel, / you are the honor of our people (P. T. alleluia).

Advent :

Behold, * the Lord shall appear, and will not deceive us ; / though he delay, wait for him, / for he will surely come, he will not be late, alleluia.

Christmas :

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 153-176

I

SEE my affliction and save me * for I remember your law.

Uphold my cause and defend me ; * by your promise, give me life.

Salvation is far from the wicked * who are heedless of your statutes.

Numberless, Lord, are your mercies ; * with your decrees give me life.

Though my foes and oppressors are countless * I have not swerved from your will.

I look at the faithless with disgust ; * they ignore your promise.

See how I love your precepts ; * in your mercy give me life.

Your word is founded on truth : * your decrees are eternal.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

THough princes oppress me without cause, * I stand in awe of your word.

I take delight in your promise * like one who finds a treasure.

Lies I hate and detest * but your law is my love.

Seven times a day I praise you * for your just decrees.

The lovers of your law have great peace ; * they never stumble.

I await your saving help, O Lord, * I fulfil your commands.

My soul obeys your will * and loves it dearly.

I obey your precepts and your will ; * all that I do is before you.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

LORD, let my cry come before you : * Teach me by your word.

Let my pleading come before you ; * save me by your promise.

Let my lips proclaim your praise * because you teach me your statutes.

Let my tongue sing your promise * for your commands are just.

Let your hand be ready to help me, * since I have chosen your precepts.

Lord, I long for your saving help * and your law is my delight.

Give life to my soul that I may praise you. * Let your decrees give me help.

I am lost like a sheep ; seek your servant * for I remember your commands.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 1 Two ways of living

Blessed are they who put their trust in the Cross of the Lord and descended into the waters of baptism (2nd century Anonymous).

HAPPY indeed is the man * who follows not the counsel of the wicked ;

nor lingers in the way of sinners * nor sits in the company of scorners,

but whose delight is the law of the Lord * and who ponders his law day and night.

He is like a tree that is planted * beside the flowing waters, that yields its fruit in due season * and whose leaves shall never fade ;

and all that he does shall prosper. * Not so are the wicked, not so !

For they like winnowed chaff * shall be driven away by the wind.

When the wicked are judged they shall not stand, * nor find room among those who are just ;

for the Lord guards the way of the just * but the way of the wicked leads to doom.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 2 The Messiah is king and conqueror

They were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you had anointed (Acts 4 : 27).

WHY this tumult among nations, * among peoples this useless murmuring?

They arise, the kings of the earth, * princes plot against the Lord and his Anointed.

" Come, let us break their fetters, * come, let us cast off their yoke. "

He who sits in the heavens laughs ; * the Lord is laughing them to scorn.

Then he will speak in his anger, * his rage will strike them with terror.

" It is I who have set up my king * on Sion, my holy mountain. "

I will announce the decree of the Lord : † The Lord said to me : " You are my Son. * It is I who have begotten you this day.

Ask and I shall bequeath you the nations, * put the ends of the earth in your possession.

With a rod of iron you will break them,* shatter them like a potter's jar. "

Now, O kings, understand, * take warning, rulers of the earth ;

Serve the Lord with awe * and trembling, pay him your homage lest he be angry and you perish ; * for suddenly his anger will blaze.

Blessèd are they * who put their trust in God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 3 The Lord is my protector

Christ fell asleep in death, but he rose from the dead, for the Lord upheld his life (Saint Irenaeus).

HOW many are my foes, O Lord ! * How many are rising up against me !

How many are saying about me : * " There is no help for him in God. "

But you, Lord, are a shield about me, * my glory, who lift up my head.

I cry aloud to the Lord. * He answers from his holy mountain.

I lie down to rest, and I sleep. * I wake, for the Lord upholds me.

I will not fear even thousands of people * who are ranged on every side against me.

Arise, Lord ; save me, my God, * you who strike all my foes on the mouth, you who break the teeth of the wicked ! * O Lord of salvation, bless your people !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

MONDAY III AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

The Lord * rewarded me because I was just.

Advent :

I will give * salvation in Sion, / and in Jerusalem my glory, alleluia.

17-23 December :

Behold, * now is come the fullness of time / when God sent forth his Son into the world.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 17 : 2-30 Thanksgiving for salvation and victory

And at that hour there was a great earthquake
(Apocalypse 11 : 13).

I

I love you, Lord, my strength, * my rock, my fortress, my savior.

My God is the rock where I take refuge ; * my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.

The Lord is worthy of all praise : * when I call I am saved from my foes.

The waves of death rose about me ; * the torrents of destruction assailed me ;

The snares of the grave entangled me ; * the traps of death confronted me.

In my anguish I called to the Lord ; * I cried to my God for help.

From his temple he heard my voice ; * my cry came to his ears.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

THEN the earth reeled and rocked ; * the mountains were shaken to their base :

they reeled at his terrible anger. * Smoke came forth from his nostrils and scorching fire from his mouth : * coals were set ablaze by its heat.

He lowered the heavens and came down, * a black cloud under his feet.

He came enthroned on the cherubim, * he flew on the wings of the wind.

He made the darkness his covering, * the dark waters of the clouds, his tent.

A brightness shone out before him * with hailstones and flashes of fire.

The Lord thundered in the heavens ; * the Most High let his voice be heard.

He shot his arrows, scattered the foe, * flashed his lightnings, and put them to flight.

The bed of the ocean was revealed ; * the foundations of the world were laid bare at the thunder of your threat, O Lord, * at the blast of the breath of your anger.

From on high he reached down and seized me ; * he drew me forth from the mighty waters.

He snatched me from my powerful foe, * from my enemies whose strength I could not match.

They assailed me in the day of my misfortune, * but the Lord was my support.

He brought me forth into freedom, * he saved me because he loved me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

HE rewarded me because I was just, * repaid me, for my hands were clean,

For I have kept the way of the Lord * and have not fallen away from my God.

For his judgments are all before me : * I have never neglected his commands.

I have always been upright before him ; * I have kept myself from guilt.

He repaid me because I was just * and my hands were clean in his eyes.

You are loving with those who love you : * you show yourself perfect with the perfect.

With the sincere you show yourself sincere, * But the cunning you outdo in cunning.

For you save a humble people * but humble the eyes that are proud.

You, O Lord, are my lamp, * my God who lightens my darkness.

With you I can break through any barrier, * with my God I can scale any wall.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

TUESDAY III AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Long life * to the Lord ; / praised be the God who saves me.

Advent :

I will give * salvation in Sion, / and in Jerusalem my glory, alleluia.

17-23 December :

So may your way * be known upon earth ; / among all nations your salvation.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 17 : 31-51 Thanksgiving

If God is for us, who is against us ? (Romans 8 : 31).

I

AS for God, his ways are perfect ; * the word of the Lord, purest gold.

He indeed is the shield * of all who make him their refuge.

For who is God but the Lord ? * who is a rock but our God ?

The God who girds me with strength * and makes the path safe before me.

My feet you made swift as the deer's * you have made me stand firm on the heights.

You have trained my hands for battle * and my arms to bend the heavy bow.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

YOU gave me your saving shield ; * you upheld me, trained me with care.

You gave me freedom for my steps ; * my feet have never slipped.

I pursued and overtook my foes, * never turning back till they were slain.

I smote them so they could not rise ; * they fell beneath my feet.

You girded me with strength for battle ; * you made my enmies fall beneath me,

You made my foes take flight ; * those who hated me I destroyed.

They cried, but there was no one to save them ; * they cried to the Lord, but in vain.

I crushed them fine as dust before the wind ; * trod them down like dirt in the streets.

You saved me from the feuds of the people * and put me at the head of the nations.

People unknown to me served me : * when they heard of me they obeyed me.

Foreign nations came to me cringing : † foreign nations faded away. * They came trembling out of their strongholds.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

LONG life to the Lord, my rock ! * Praised be the God who saves me,

The God who gives me redress * and subdues people under me.

You saved me from my furious foes. * You set me above my assailants.

You saved me from violent men, † so I will praise you, Lord, among the nations : * I will sing a psalm to your name.

He has given great victories to his king † and shown his love for his anointed, * for David and his sons for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

WEDNESDAY III AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

May the Lord answer * in time of trial.

Advent :

I will give * salvation in Sion, / and in Jerusalem my glory, alleluia.

17-23 December :

For Sion's sake * I will not be silent, / until her Just One go forth as brightness.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 18 A Praise of the Lord, Creator of all things

The Orient from on high has visited us . . . to guide our feet into the way of peace (Luke 1 : 78-79).

THE heavens proclaim the glory of God * and the firmament shows forth the work of his hands.

Day unto day takes up the story * and night unto night makes known the message.

No speech, no word, no voice is heard † yet their span extends through all the earth, * their words to the utmost bounds of the world.

There he has placed a tent for the sun ; † it comes forth like a bridegroom coming from his tent, * rejoices like a champion to run its course.

At the end of the sky is the rising of the sun ; † to the furthest end of the sky is its course. * There is nothing concealed from its burning heat.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 18 B Praise to God, the Lord of the law

You must be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect (Matthew 5 : 48).

THE law of the Lord is perfect, * it revives the soul.

The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, * it gives wisdom to the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right, * they gladden the heart.

The command of the Lord is clear, * it gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is holy, * abiding for ever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth * and all of them just.

They are more to be desired than gold, * than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, * than honey from the comb.

So in them your servant finds instruction ; * great reward is in their keeping.

But who can detect all his errors ? * From hidden faults acquit me.

From presumption restrain your servant * and let it not rule me.

Then shall I be blameless, * clean from grave sin.

May the spoken words of my mouth, * the thoughts of my heart, win favor in your sight, O Lord, * my rescuer, my rock !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 19 Prayer for the king's victory

Whoever calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved (Acts 2 : 21).

MAY the Lord answer in time of trial ; * may the name of Jacob's God protect you.

May he send you help from his shrine * and give you support from Sion.

May he remember all your offerings * and receive your sacrifice with favor.

May he give you your heart's desire * and fulfil every one of your plans.

May we ring out our joy at your victory † and rejoice in the name of our God. * May the Lord grant all your prayers.

I am sure now that the Lord * will give victory to his anointed,

Will reply from his holy heaven * with the mighty victory of his hand.

Some trust in chariots or horses, * but we in the name of the Lord.

They will collapse and fall, * but we shall hold and stand firm.

Give victory to the king, O Lord, * give answer on the day we call.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

THURSDAY III AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

I call * and he answers me.

Advent :

I will give * salvation in Sion, / and in Jerusalem my glory, alleluia.

17-23 December :

From Sion * shall come the Lord who is to reign, / Emmanuel is his great name.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 119 Longing for peace

Be patient in tribulation ; be constant in prayer (Romans 12 : 12).

TO the Lord in the hour of my distress * I call and he answers me.

" O Lord, save my soul from lying lips, * from the tongue of the deceitful. "

What shall he pay you in return, * O treacherous tongue ?

The warrior's arrows sharpened * and coals, red-hot, blazing.

Alas, that I abide a stranger in Meshech, * dwell among the tents of Kedar !

Long enough have I been dwelling * with those who hate peace.

I am for peace, but when I speak, * they are for fighting.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 120 Protector of the people

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more ; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat (Apocalypse 7 : 16).

I lift up my eyes to the mountains : * from where shall come my help ?

My help shall come from the Lord * who made heaven and earth.

May he never allow you to stumble ! * Let him sleep not, your guard.

No, he sleeps not nor slumbers, * Israel's guard.

The Lord is your guard and your shade ; * at your right side he stands.

By day the sun shall not smite you * nor the moon in the night.

The Lord will guard you from evil, * he will guard your soul.

The Lord will guard your going and coming * both now and for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 121 The holy city Jerusalem

But you have come to Mount Sion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem (Hebrews 12 : 22).

I rejoiced when I heard them say : * " Let us go to God's house. "

And now our feet are standing * within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city * strongly compact.

It is there that the tribes go up, * the tribes of the Lord.

For Israel's law it is, * there to praise the Lord's name.

There were set the thrones of judgment * of the house of David.

For the peace of Jerusalem pray : * " Peace be to your homes !

May peace reign in your walls, * in your palaces, peace ! "

For love of my brethren and friends * I say : " Peace upon you ! "

For love of the house of the Lord * I will ask for your good.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

FRIDAY III AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Our help * is in the name of the Lord.

Advent :

I will give * salvation in Sion, / and in Jerusalem my glory, alleluia.

17-23 December :

Come, O Lord, * and do not delay ; / loose the bonds of the grievous sins of your people Israel.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 122 The Lord is the hope of his people

The two blind men cried out, " Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David (Matthew 20 : 30).

TO you have I lifted up my eyes, * you who dwell in the heavens :

my eyes, like the eyes of slaves * on the hand of their lords.

Like the eyes of a servant * on the hand of her mistress,

So our eyes are on the Lord our God * till he show us his mercy.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. * We are filled with contempt.

Indeed all too full is our soul † with the scorn of the rich, * with the proud man's disdain.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 123 Our help is in the name of the Lord

The Lord said to Paul, " Do not be afraid ; for I am with you (Acts 18 : 9-10).

IF the Lord had not been on our side, " * this is Israel's song.

" If the Lord had not been on our side * when men rose against us, then would they have swallowed us alive * when their anger was kindled.

Then would the waters have engulfed us, * the torrent gone over us ;

over our head would have swept * the raging waters. "

Blessèd be the Lord who did not give us * a prey to their teeth !

Our life, like a bird, has escaped * from the snare of the fowler.

Indeed the snare has been broken * and we have escaped.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, * who made heaven and earth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 124 The Lord, the protector of his people

Peace upon the Israel of God (Galatians 6 : 16).

THOSE who put their trust in the Lord † are like Mount Sion, that cannot be shaken, * that stands for ever.

Jerusalem ! The mountains surround her, † so the Lord surrounds his people * both now and for ever.

For the scepter of the wicked shall not rest * over the land of the just for fear that the hands of the just * should turn to evil.

Do good, Lord, to those who are good, * to the upright of heart.

But the crooked and those who do evil, † drive them away ! * On Israel, peace !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

SATURDAY III AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

O blessèd are those * who fear the Lord.

Saturday BVM :

I am very dark * but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem ; / therefore the king loved me and brought me into his chamber (P. T. alleluia).

Advent :

I will give * salvation in Sion, / and in Jerusalem my glory, alleluia.

17-23 December :

The word of the Lord * shall be awaited as the rain, / and as the dew shall our God descend upon us.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 125 Joy and hope in God

As you share in our sufferings, you will also share in our comfort (2 Corinthians 1 : 7).

WHEN the Lord delivered Sion from bondage, * it seemed like a dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, * on our lips there were songs.

The heathens themselves said * " What marvels the Lord worked for them ! "

What marvels the Lord worked for us ! * Indeed we were glad.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage * as streams in dry land.

Those who are sowing in tears * will sing when they reap.

They go out, they go out, full of tears, * carrying seed for the sowing :

they come back, they come back, full of song, * carrying their sheaves.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 126 Success depends on the Lord's blessing

You are God's building (1 Corinthians 3 : 9).

IF the Lord does not build the house, * in vain do its builders labor ;

if the Lord does not watch over the city, * in vain does the watchman keep vigil.

In vain is your earlier rising, * your going later to rest,

You who toil for the bread you eat : * when he pours gifts on his beloved while they slumber.

Truly sons are a gift from the Lord, * a blessing, the fruit of the womb.

Indeed the sons of youth * are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

O the happiness of the man * who has filled his quiver with these arrows !

He will have no cause for shame * when he disputes with his foes in the gateways.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 127 Peace in the home, a gift from the Lord

May the Lord bless you from Sion, that is, from the Church (Arnobius).

O blessèd are those who fear the Lord * and walk in his ways !

By the labor of your hands you shall eat. * You will be happy and prosper ;

your wife like a fruitful vine * in the heart of your house ;

your children like shoots of the olive, * around your table.

Indeed thus shall be blest * the man who fears the Lord.

May the Lord bless you from Sion * all the days of your life !

May you see your children's children in a happy Jerusalem ! * On Israel, peace !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

SUNDAY IV AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Advent :

The rugged land * shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

December 24 :

Tomorrow * the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 1-32 Meditation on the Word of the Lord in the law

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments (1 John 5 : 3).

I

THEY are happy whose life is blameless, * who follow God's law !

They are happy who do his will, * seeking him with all their hearts,

who never do anything evil * but walk in his ways.

You have laid down your precepts * to be obeyed with care.

May my footsteps be firm * to obey your statutes.

Then I shall not be put to shame * as I heed your commands.

I will thank you with an upright heart * as I learn your decrees.

I will obey your statutes : * do not forsake me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

HOW shall the young remain sinless ? * By obeying your word.

I have sought you with all my heart : * let me not stray from your commands.

I treasure your promise in my heart * lest I sin against you.

Blessèd are you, O Lord ; * teach me your statutes.

With my tongue I have recounted * the decrees of your lips.

I rejoiced to do your will * as though all riches were mine.

I will ponder all your precepts * and consider your paths.

I take delight in your statutes ; * I will not forget your word.

Bless your servant and I shall live * and obey your word.

Open my eyes that I may see * the wonders of your law.

I am a pilgrim on the earth ; * show me your commands.

My soul is ever consumed * as I long for your decrees.

You threaten the proud, the accursed, * who turn from your commands.

Relieve me from scorn and contempt * for I do your will.

Though princes sit plotting against me * I ponder on your statutes.

Your will is my delight ; * your statutes are my counsellors.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

MY soul lies in the dust ; * by your word revive me.

I declared my ways and you answered : * teach me your statutes.

Make me grasp the way of your precepts * and I will muse on your wonders.

My soul pines away with grief ; * by your word raise me up.

Keep me from the way of error * and teach me your law.

I have chosen the way of truth * with your decrees before me.

I bind myself to do your will ; * Lord, do not disappoint me.

I will run the way of your commands ; * you give freedom to my heart.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Advent :

The rugged land shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

December 24 :

Tomorrow the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Reading

Through the Year :

℣. Lord, who shall be admitted to your tent ?
℟. He who walks without fault / and speaks the truth from his heart.

Advent :

℣. Remember us, O Lord, out of the love you have for your people.
℟. Come and bring us your salvation.

December 24 :

℣. Tommorow salvation shall be yours.
℟. Says the Lord God of hosts.

Lent :

℣. From my sins turn away your face.
℟. And blot out all my guilt.

Paschaltide :

℣. The disciples rejoiced, alleluia.

Conclusion, 595.

MONDAY IV AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Guide me * in the path of your commands.

Advent :

The rugged land * shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

17-23 December :

Behold, * now is come the fullness of time / when God sent forth his Son into the world.

December 24 :

Tomorrow * the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 33-56

I

TEACH me the demands of your statutes * and I will keep them to the end.

Train me to observe your law, * to keep it with my heart.

Guide me in the path of your commands ; * for there is my delight.

Bend my heart to your will * and not to love of gain.

Keep my eyes from what is false : * by your word, give me life.

Keep the promise you have made * to the servant who fears you.

Keep me from the scorn I dread, * for your decrees are good.

See, I long for your precepts : * then in your justice, give me life.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

LORD, let your love come upon me, * the saving help of your promise.

And I shall answer those who taunt me * For I trust in your word.

Do not take the word of truth from my mouth * for I trust in your decrees.

I shall always keep your law * for ever and ever.

I shall walk in the path of freedom * for I seek your precepts.

I will speak of your will before kings * and not be abashed.

Your commands have been my delight ; * these I have loved.

I will worship your commands and love them * and ponder your statutes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

REmember your word to your servant * by which you gave me hope.

This is my comfort in sorrow * that your promise gives me life.

Though the proud may utterly deride me * I keep to your law.

I remember your decrees of old * and these, Lord, console me.

I am seized with indignation at the wicked * who forsake your law.

Your statutes have become my song * in the land of exile.

I think of your name in the night-time * and I keep your law.

This has been my blessing, * the keeping of your precepts.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

TUESDAY IV AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Teach me * discernment, O Lord, / for I trust in your commands.

Advent :

The rugged land * shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

17-23 December :

So may your way * be known upon earth ; / among all nations your salvation.

December 24 :

Tomorrow * the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 57-80

I

MY part, I have resolved, O Lord, * is to obey your word.

With all my heart I implore your favor ; * show the mercy of your promise.

I have pondered over my ways * and returned to your will.

I made haste and did not delay * to obey your commands.

Though the nets of the wicked ensnared me * I remembered your law.

At midnight I will rise and thank you * for your just decrees.

I am a friend of all who revere you, * who obey your precepts.

Lord, your love fills the earth. * teach me your statutes.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

LORD, you have been good to your servant * according to your word.

Teach me discernment and knowledge * for I trust in your commands.

Before I was afflicted I strayed * but now I keep your word.

You are good and your deeds are good ; * teach me your statutes.

Though proud men smear me with lies * yet I keep your precepts.

Their minds are closed to good * but your law is my delight.

It was good for me to be afflicted, * to learn your statutes.

The law from your mouth means more to me * than silver and gold.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

IT was your hands that made me and shaped me : * help me to learn your commands.

Your faithful will see me and rejoice * for I trust in your word.

Lord, I know that your decrees are right, * that you afflicted me justly.

Let your love be ready to console me * by your promise to your servant.

Let your love come and I shall live * for your law is my delight.

Shame the proud who harm me with lies * while I ponder your precepts.

Let your faithful turn to me, * those who know your will.

Let my heart be blameless in your statutes * lest I be ashamed.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Teach me discernment, O Lord, / for I trust in your commands.

Advent :

The rugged land shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

17-23 December :

So may your way be known upon earth ; / among all nations your salvation.

December 24 :

Tomorrow the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Reading

WEDNESDAY IV AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Your word, O Lord, * for ever / stands firm in the heavens.

Advent :

The rugged land * shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

17-23 December :

For Sion's sake * I will not be silent, / until her Just One go forth as brightness.

December 24 :

Tomorrow * the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 81-104

I

I yearn for your saving help ; * I hope in your word.

My eyes yearn to see your promise. * When will you console me ?

Though parched and exhausted with waiting * I remember your statutes.

How long must your servant suffer ? * When will you judge my foes ?

For me the proud have dug pitfalls, * against your law.

Your commands are all true ; then help me * when lies oppress me.

They almost made an end of me on earth * but I kept your precepts.

Because of your love give me life * and I will do your will.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

YOUR word, O Lord, for ever * stands firm in the heavens :

Your truth lasts from age to age, * like the earth you created.

By your decree it endures to this day; * for all things serve you.

Had your law not been my delight * I would have died in my affliction.

I will never forget your precepts * for with them you give me life.

Save me, for I am yours * since I seek your precepts.

Though the wicked lie in wait to destroy me * yet I ponder on your will.

I have seen that all perfection has an end * but your command is boundless.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

LORD, how I love your law ! * It is ever in my mind.

Your command makes me wiser than my foes ; * for it is mine for ever.

I have more insight than all who teach me * for I ponder your will.

I have more understanding than the old * for I keep your precepts.

I turn my feet from evil paths * to obey your word.

I have not turned from your decrees ; * you yourself have taught me.

Your promise is sweeter to my taste * than honey in the mouth.

I gain understanding from your precepts * and so I hate false ways.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

THURSDAY IV AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Do not confound me, O Lord, * in my expectation.

Advent :

The rugged land * shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

17-23 December :

From Sion * shall come the Lord who is to reign, / Emmanuel is his great name.

December 24 :

Tomorrow * the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 105-128

I

YOUR word is a lamp for my steps * and a light for my path.

I have sworn and have made up my mind * to obey your decrees.

Lord, I am deeply afflicted : * by your word give me life.

Accept, Lord, the homage of my lips * and teach me your decrees.

Though I carry my life in my hands, * I remember your law.

Though the wicked try to ensnare me * I do not stray from your precepts.

Your will is my heritage for ever, * the joy of my heart.

I set myself to carry out your statutes * in fullness, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

I have no love for half-hearted men : * my love is for your law.

You are my shelter, my shield ; * I hope in your word.

Leave me, you who do evil ; * I will keep God's command.

UPHOLD ME, O LORD, ACCORDING TO YOUR PROMISE, AND I SHALL LIVE, * AND DO NOT CONFOUND ME IN MY EXPECTATION.

Sustain me and I shall be saved * and ever observe your statutes.

You spurn all who swerve from your statutes ; * their cunning is in vain.

You throw away the wicked like dross : * so I love your will.

I tremble before you in terror ; * I fear your decrees.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

I have done what is right and just : * let me not be oppressed.

Vouch for the welfare of your servant * lest the proud oppress me.

My eyes yearn for your saving help * and the promise of your justice.

Treat your servant with love * and teach me your statutes.

I am your servant, give me knowledge ; * then I shall know your will.

It is time for the Lord to act * for your law has been broken.

That is why I love your commands * more than finest gold,

Why I rule my life by your precepts : * and hate false ways.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

FRIDAY IV AT SEXT

Antiphon

Through the Year :

Turn * and show me your mercy, O Lord.

Advent :

The rugged land * shall be made a plain ; / the rough country a broad valley. / Come, O Lord, do not delay, alleluia.

17-23 December :

Come, O Lord, * and do not delay ; / loose the bonds of the grievous sins of your people Israel.

December 24 :

Tomorrow * the wickedness of the earth shall be blotted out ; / and the Savior of the world shall reign over us.

Lent :

As I live, * says the Lord, / I desire not the death of the sinner, / but rather that he turn from his way and live.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 129-152

I

YOUR will is wonderful indeed ; * therefore I obey it.

The unfolding of your word gives light * and teaches the simple.

I open my mouth and I sigh * as I yearn for your commands.

Turn and show me your mercy ; * show justice to your friends.

Let my steps be guided by your promise; * let no evil rule me.

Redeem me from man's oppression * and I will keep your precepts.

Let your face shine on your servant * and teach me your decrees.

Tears stream from my eyes * because your law is disobeyed.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

LORD, you are just indeed ; * your decrees are right.

You have imposed your will with justice * and with absolute truth.

I am carried away by anger * for my foes forget your word.

Your promise is tried in the fire, * the delight of your servant.

Although I am weak and despised * I remember your precepts.

Your justice is eternal justice * and your law is truth.

Though anguish and distress have seized me, * I delight in your commands.

The justice of your will is eternal : * if you teach me, I shall live.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

I call with all my heart ; Lord, hear me, * I will keep your statutes.

I call upon you, save me * and I will do your will.

I rise before dawn and cry for help, * I hope in your word.

My eyes watch through the night * to ponder your promise.

In your love hear my voice, O Lord ; * give me life by your decrees.

Those who harm me unjustly draw near : * they are far from your law.

But you, O Lord, are close : * your commands are truth.

Long have I known that your will * is established for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Paschaltide :

Alleluia, * alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 118 : 153-176

I

SEE my affliction and save me * for I remember your law.

Uphold my cause and defend me ; * by your promise, give me life.

Salvation is far from the wicked * who are heedless of your statutes.

Numberless, Lord, are your mercies ; * with your decrees give me life.

Though my foes and oppressors are countless * I have not swerved from your will.

I look at the faithless with disgust ; * they ignore your promise.

See how I love your precepts ; * in your mercy give me life.

Your word is founded on truth : * your decrees are eternal.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

II

THough princes oppress me without cause, * I stand in awe of your word.

I take delight in your promise * like one who finds a treasure.

Lies I hate and detest * but your law is my love.

Seven times a day I praise you * for your just decrees.

The lovers of your law have great peace ; * they never stumble.

I await your saving help, O Lord, * I fulfil your commands.

My soul obeys your will * and loves it dearly.

I obey your precepts and your will ; * all that I do is before you.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

III

LORD, let my cry come before you : * Teach me by your word.

Let my pleading come before you ; * save me by your promise.

Let my lips proclaim your praise * because you teach me your statutes.

Let my tongue sing your promise * for your commands are just.

Let your hand be ready to help me, * since I have chosen your precepts.

Lord, I long for your saving help * and your law is my delight.

Give life to my soul that I may praise you. * Let your decrees give me help.

I am lost like a sheep ; seek your servant * for I remember your commands.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

SUNDAY

AT II VESPERS

1 Antiphon. ID

Psalm 109 Christ is king and priest

For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet (1 Corinthians 15:25).

THE Lord said to my Lord: †
" Sit at my right hand :
* your foes I will put beneath your feet. "

The Lord will wield from Sion † your sceptre of power :
* rule in the midst of all your foes.

A prince from the day of your birth † on the holy mountains ; * from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. † " You are a priest for ever, * a priest like Melchizedech of old. "

The Master standing at your right hand * will shatter kings in the day of his wrath.

He, the Judge of the nations, † will heap high the bodies, * heads shall be shattered far and wide.

He shall drink from the stream by the wayside * and therefore he shall lift up his head.

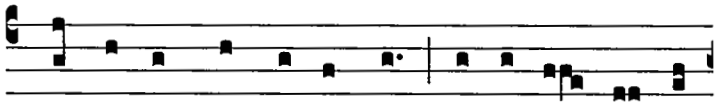
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Anti-phon

Sit at my right hand : The Lord said to my Lord.

2 Ant. VIII G



Great are the works of the Lord * to be pondered by all who love them.

Psalm 110 Great are the works of the Lord

Great and wonderful are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty (Apocalypse 15:3).

I will thank the Lord with all my heart * in the meeting of the just and their assembly.

Great are the works of the Lord ; * to be pondered by all who love them.

Majestic and glorious his work, * his justice stands firm for ever.

He makes us remember his wonders. * The Lord is compassion and love.

He gives food to those who fear him ; * keeps his covenant ever in mind.

He has shown his might to his people * by giving them the lands of the nations.

His works are justice and truth : * his precepts are all of them sure, standing firm for ever and ever : * they are made in uprightness and truth.

He has sent deliverance to his people † and established his covenant for ever. * Holy his name, to be feared.

To fear the Lord is the first stage of wisdom ; † all who do so prove themselves wise. * His praise shall last for ever !

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 111 The happiness of the just man

Walk as children of the light; for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true (Ephesians 5 : 8-9).

HAPPY the man who fears the Lord, * who takes delight in all his commands.

His sons will be powerful on earth ; * the children of the upright are blest.

Riches and wealth are in his house ; * his justice stands firm for ever.

He is a light in the darkness for the upright : * he is generous, merciful and just.

The good man takes pity and lends, * he conducts his affairs with honor.

The just man will never waver : * he will be remembered for ever.

He has no fear of evil news ; * with a firm heart he trusts in the Lord.

With a steadfast heart he will not fear ; * he will see the downfall of his foes.

Open-handed, he gives to the poor ; † his justice stands firm for ever. * His head will be raised in glory.

The wicked man sees and is angry, † grinds his teeth and fades away ; * the desire of the wicked leads to doom.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 112 Praised be the name of the Lord

He has dethroned the powerful, and lifted up the lowly (Luke 1 : 52).

PRAISE, O servants of the Lord, * praise the name of the Lord.

May the name of the Lord be blest * both now and for evermore.

From the rising of the sun to its setting * praised be the name of the Lord.

High above all nations is the Lord, * above the heavens his glory.

Who is like the Lord, our God, * who has risen on high to his throne yet stoops from the heights to look down, * to look down upon heaven and earth ?

From the dust he lifts up the lowly, * from the dungheap he raises the poor to set him in the company of princes, * yes, with the princes of his people.

To the childless wife he gives a home * and gladdens her heart with children.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Conclusion

The Canticle having been said and the Antiphon repeated, immediately is said :

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

The Our Father is said aloud by the Superior, at the end of which the Choir answers :

But deliver us from evil.

Then is said :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Prayer from the Proper, or the following may be said :

Let us pray. Prayer

LORD God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ triumphed over the powers of death and prepared for us our place in the new Jerusalem, * grant that we, who have this day given thanks for his Resurrection, may praise you in that City of which he is the light. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, * God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

After the Prayer :

℣. The Lord be with you. ℟. And with your spirit.

Benedicamus Domino

I

LET us bless the Lord. ℟. Thanks be to God.

℣. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

℟. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance remain always with us.

℟. And with our absent brethren. Amen.

Psalm 113 Israel is freed from Egypt

You, who have renounced the world, have also been led forth from Egypt (St. Augustine).

WHEN Israel came forth from Egypt, * Jacob's sons from an alien people, Judah became the Lord's temple, * Israel became his kingdom.

The sea fled at the sight : * the Jordan turned back on its course, the mountains leapt like rams * and the hills like yearling sheep.

Why was it, sea, that you fled, * that you turned back, Jordan, on your course ?

Mountains that you leapt like rams, * hills, like yearling sheep ?

Tremble, O earth, before the Lord, * in the presence of the God of Jacob, who turns the rock into a pool * and flint into a spring of water.

Not to us, Lord, not to us, * but to your name give the glory for the sake of your love and your truth, * lest the heathen say : " Where is their God ? "

But our God is in the heavens ; * he does whatever he wills.

Their idols are silver and gold, * the work of human hands.

They have mouths but they cannot speak ; * they have eyes but they cannot see ;

they have ears but they cannot hear ; * they have nostrils but they cannot smell.

With their hands they cannot feel ; † with their feet they cannot walk. * No sound comes from their throats.

Their makers will come to be like them * and so will all who trust in them.

Sons of Israel, trust in the Lord ; * he is their help and their shield.

Sons of Aaron, trust in the Lord ; * he is their help and their shield.

You who fear him trust in the Lord ; * he is their help and their shield.

He remembers us, and he will bless us ; † he will bless the sons of Israel. * He will bless the sons of Aaron.

The Lord will bless those who fear him, * the little no less than the great :

to you may the Lord grant increase, * to you and all your children.

THE Lord * turned his ear to me in the day when I called him.

Psalm 114 Thanksgiving

Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God (Acts 14 : 22).

I love the Lord for he has heard * the cry of my appeal; for he turned his ear to me * in the day when I called him.

They surrounded me, the snares of death, * with the anguish of the tomb;

they caught me, sorrow and distress. † I called on the Lord's name. * O Lord my God, deliver me!

How gracious is the Lord and just; * our God has compassion.

The Lord protects the simple hearts; * I was helpless so he saved me.

Turn back, my soul, to your rest * for the Lord has been good;

he has kept my soul from death, † my eyes from tears * and my feet from stumbling.

I will walk in the presence of the Lord * in the land of the living.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Through Christ let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God (Hebrews 13 : 15).

I trusted, even when I said : * " I am sorely afflicted, "

† And when I said in my alarm : * " No man can be trusted. "

How can I repay the Lord * for his goodness to me ?

The cup of salvation I will raise ; * I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfill * before all his people.

O precious in the eyes of the Lord * is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I ; * you have loosened my bonds.

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make : * I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfill * before all his people, in the courts of the house of the Lord, * in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Glory be is not said here, but the following Psalm is added immediately.

Psalm 116 Praise for God's loving compassion

For I tell you . . . that the Gentiles are to glorify God for his mercy (Romans 15 : 8-9).

O praise the Lord, all you nations, * acclaim him, all you peoples !

Strong is his love for us ; * he is faithful for ever.

They plowed my back like plowmen, * drawing long furrows.

But the Lord who is just has destroyed * the yoke of the wicked. "

Let them be shamed and routed, * those who hate Sion !

Let them be like grass on the roof * that withers before it flowers.

" A son, the fruit of your body, * will I set upon your throne.

If they keep my covenant in truth * and my laws that I have taught them,

Psalm 134 Praise for the Lord who does marvelous things

You are a chosen race. Declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light (1 Peter 2:9).

PRAISE the name of the Lord, * praise him, servants of the Lord, who stand in the house of the Lord * in the courts of the house of our God.

Praise the Lord for the Lord is good. * Sing a psalm to his name for he is loving.

For the Lord has chosen Jacob for himself * and Israel for his own possession.

For I know the Lord is great, * that our Lord is high above all gods.

The Lord does whatever he wills, * in heaven, on earth, in the seas.

He summons clouds from the ends of the earth ; † makes lightning produce the rain ; * from his treasuries he sends forth the wind.

The first-born of the Egyptians he smote, * of man and beast alike.

Signs and wonders he worked † in the midst of your land, O Egypt, * against Pharaoh and all his servants.

Nations in their greatness he struck * and kings in their splendor he slew.

Sihon, king of the Amorites, † Og, the king of Bashan, * and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

He let Israel inherit their land ; * on his people their land he bestowed.

Lord, your name stands for ever, * unforgotten from age to age :

for the Lord does justice for his people ; * the Lord takes pity on his servants.

Pagan idols are silver and gold, * the work of human hands.

They have mouths but they cannot speak ; * they have eyes but they cannot see.

They have ears but they cannot hear ; * there is never a breath on their lips.

Their makers will come to be like them * and so will all who trust in them !

Sons of Israel, bless the Lord ! * Sons of Aaron, bless the Lord !

Sons of Levi, bless the Lord ! * You who fear him, bless the Lord !

We praise God when we recall his wonderful works (Cassiodorus).

O give thanks to the Lord for he is good, * for his love endures for ever.

Give thanks to the God of gods, * for his love endures for ever.

Give thanks to the Lord of lords, * for his love endures for ever ;

who alone has wrought marvelous works, * for his love endures for ever ;

whose wisdom it was made the skies, * for his love endures for ever ;

who fixed the earth firmly on the seas, * for his love endures for ever.

It was he who made the great lights, * for his love endures for ever, the sun to rule in the day, * for his love endures for ever, the moon and the stars in the night, * for his love endures for ever.

The first-born of the Egyptians he smote, * for his love endures for ever.

He brought Israel out from their midst, * for his love endures for ever ;

arm out-stretched, with power in his hand, * for his love endures for ever.

He divided the Red Sea in two, * for his love endures for ever ;

he made Israel pass through the midst, * for his love endures for ever ;

he flung Pharaoh and his force in the sea, * for his love endures for ever.

Through the desert his people he led, * for his love endures for ever.

Nations in their greatness he struck, * for his love endures for ever.

Kings in their splendor he slew, * for his love endures for ever.

Sihon, king of the Amorites, * for his love endures for ever ;

and Og, the king of Bashan, * for his love endures for ever.

He let Israel inherit their land, * for his love endures for ever.

On his servant their land he bestowed, * for his love endures for ever.

He remembered us in our distress, * for his love endures for ever.

And he snatched us away from our foes, * for his love endures for ever.

He gives food to all living things, * for his love endures for ever.

The Babylonian captivity is a type of our spiritual captivity (Saint Hilary).

BY the rivers of Babylon † there we sat and wept, * remembering Sion; on the poplars that grew there * we hung up our harps.

For it was there that they asked us, our captors, for songs, * our oppressors for joy.

"Sing to us," they said, * "one of Sion's songs."

O how could we sing the song of the Lord * on alien soil?

If I forget you, Jerusalem, * let my right hand wither!

O let my tongue cleave to my mouth * if I remember you not,

if I prize not Jerusalem * above all my joys!

Remember, O Lord, against the sons of Edom * the day of Jerusalem;

when they said: "Tear it down! * Tear it down to its foundations!"

O Babylon, destroyer, † he is happy who repays you * the ills you brought on us.

He shall seize and shall dash * your children on the rock!

For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor ? (Romans 11:34).

O Lord, you search me and you know me, † you know my resting and my rising, * you discern my purpose from afar.

You mark when I walk or lie down, * all my ways lie open to you.

Before ever a word is on my tongue * you know it, O Lord, through and through.

Behind and before you besiege me, * your hand ever laid upon me.

Too wonderful for me this knowledge, * too high, beyond my reach.

O where can I go from your spirit, * or where can I flee from your face ?

If I climb the heavens, you are there. * If I lie in the grave, you are there.

If I take the wings of the dawn * and dwell at the sea's furthest end,

I thank you for the wonder of my being, * for the wonders of all your creation.

Already you knew my soul, * my body held no secret from you when I was being fashioned in secret * and moulded in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes saw all my actions, * they were all of them written in your book ;

If I count them, they are more than the sand ; * to finish, I must be eternal, like you.

O God, that you would slay the wicked ! * Men of blood, keep far away from me !

With deceit they rebel against you * and set your designs at naught.

Do I not hate those who hate you, * abhor those who rise against you ?

I hate them with a perfect hate * and they are foes to me.

O search me, God, and know my heart. * O test me and know my thoughts.

See that I follow not the wrong path * and lead me in the path of life eternal.

Psalm 139 You are my refuge

The Son of Man is to be betrayed into the hands of sinners (Matthew 26:45).

RESCUE me, Lord from evil men ; * from the violent keep me safe, from those who plan evil in their hearts * and stir up strife every day ;

who sharpen their tongue like an adder's, * with the poison of vipers on their lips.

Lord, guard me from the hands of the wicked ; † from the violent keep me safe ; * they plan to make me stumble.

The proud have hidden a trap, † have spread out lines in a net, * set snares across my path.

I have said to the Lord : " You are my God. " * Lord, hear the cry of my appeal !

Lord my God, my mighty help, * you shield my head in the battle.

Do not grant the wicked their desire * nor let their plots succeed.

Those surrounding me lift up their heads. * Let the malice of their speech overwhelm them.

Let coals of fire rain upon them. * Let them be flung in the abyss, no more to rise.

Let the slanderer not endure upon the earth. * Let evil hunt the violent man to death !

I know the Lord will avenge the poor, * that he will do justice for the needy.

Yes, the just will praise your name : * the upright shall live in your presence.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 140 Prayer in time of danger

The smoke of the incense rose before God with the prayers of the saints from the hand of the angel (Apocalypse 8:4).

I have called to you, Lord ; † hasten to help me ! * Hear my voice when I cry to you.

Let my prayer arise before you like incense, * the raising of my hands like an evening oblation.

Set, O Lord, a guard over my mouth ; * keep watch, O Lord, at the door of my lips !

Do not turn my heart to things that are wrong, * to evil deeds with men who are sinners.

Never allow me to share in their feasting. * If a good man strikes or reproves me it is kindness ; but let the oil of the wicked not anoint my head. * Let my prayer be ever against their malice.

Their princes were thrown down by the side of the rock : * then they understood that my words were kind.

As a millstone is shattered to pieces on the ground, * so their bones were strewn at the mouth of the grave.

To you, Lord God, my eyes are turned : * in you I take refuge ; spare my soul !

From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe : * keep me from the snares of those who do evil.

Let the wicked fall into the traps they have set * whilst I pursue my way unharmed.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 141 You are my refuge

All these things were fulfilled by our Lord at the time of his Passion (St. Hilary).

WITH all my voice I cry to the Lord, * with all my voice I entreat the Lord.

I pour out my trouble before him ; * I tell him all my distress while my spirit faints within me. * But you, O Lord, know my path.

On the way where I shall walk * they have hidden a snare to entrap me.

Look on my right and see : * there is no one who takes my part.

I have no means of escape, * not one who cares for my soul.

I cry to you, O Lord. † I have said : " You are my refuge, * all I have in the land of the living. "

Listen, then, to my cry * for I am in the depths of distress.

Rescue me from those who pursue me * for they are stronger than I.

His arms are well trained for battle, since he has overcome the world, as he says, " I have overcome the world " (St. Hilary).

BLESSÈD be the Lord, my God, † who trains my arms for battle, * who prepares my hands for war.

He is my love, my fortress ; * he is my stronghold, my savior, my shield, my place of refuge. * He brings peoples under my rule.

Lord, what is man that you care for him, * mortal man, that you keep him in mind ;

man, who is merely a breath * whose life fades like a shadow ?

Lower your heavens and come down ; * touch the mountains ; wreathe them in smoke.

Flash your lightnings ; rout the foe, * shoot your arrows and put them to flight.

Reach down from heaven and save me ; † draw me out from the mighty waters, * from the hands of alien foes whose mouths are filled with lies, * whose hands are raised in perjury.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Psalm 4 Thanksgiving

The Lord raised him from the dead and made him worthy of all admiration (Saint Augustine).

WHEN I call, answer me, O God of justice ; † from anguish you released me, * have mercy and hear me !

O men, how long will your hearts be closed, * will you love what is futile and seek what is false ?

It is the Lord who grants favors to those whom he loves ; * the Lord hears me whenever I call him.

Fear him ; do not sin : ponder on your bed and be still. * Make justice your sacrifice and trust in the Lord.

" What can bring us happiness ? " many say. * Let the light of your face shine on us, O Lord.

You have put into my heart a greater joy * than they have from abundance of corn and new wine.

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once * for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 90 In the shelter of the Most High

Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy (Luke 10 : 19).

HE who dwells in the shelter of the Most High * and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord : " My refuge, * my stronghold, my God in whom I trust ! "

It is he who will free you from the snare * of the fowler who seeks to destroy you ;

he will conceal you with his pinions * and under his wings you will find refuge.

You will not fear the terror of the night * nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the plague that prowls in the darkness * nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.

A thousand may fall at your side, * ten thousand fall at your right, you, it will never approach ; * his faithfulness is buckler and shield.

Your eyes have only to look * to see how the wicked are repaid, you who have said : " Lord, my refuge ! " * and have made the Most High your dwelling.

Upon you no evil shall fall, * no plague approach where you dwell.

For you has he commanded his angels, * to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you upon their hands * lest you strike your foot against a stone.

On the lion and the viper you will tread * and trample the young lion and the dragon.

Since he clings to me in love, I will free him ; * protect him for he knows my name.

When he calls I shall answer : " I am with you. " * I will save him in distress and give him glory.

With length of life I will content him ; * I shall let him see my saving power.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

Psalm 133 Evening prayer in the temple

Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, small and great (Apocalypse 19 : 5).

O come, bless the Lord, * all you who serve the Lord, who stand in the house of the Lord, * in the courts of the house of our God.

Lift up your hands to the holy place * and bless the Lord through the night.

May the Lord bless you from Sion, * he who made both heaven and earth.

CHANTING THE PSALMS

Parts of the Psalm Tones

The tone for singing a Psalm should correspond to the modality of the chant melody with which it is sung.

There are as many common tones for the Psalm as there are modes for chant melodies, that is, eight, to which are added the special tones, noted on pp. 571-72.

Each tone consists of a reciting tone, a pause (if there is a place in the verse for a pause), and cadences. The mediant cadence occurs at the middle of a verse ; the final cadence, at the end of a verse.

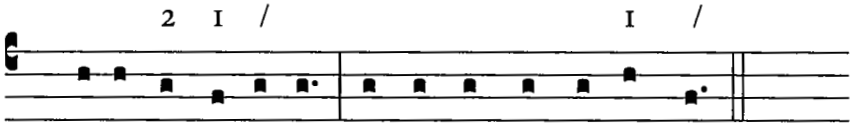
1. RECITING TONES. — The repeated notes before the mediant cadence, and between the mediant cadence and the final cadence, indicate the reciting tone or tones. The syllables of the text should move along at a brisk but decorous speed. Intelligibility of the text should be the ruling criterion.

2. PAUSE. — If the first half of the verse is longer, it is divided into two parts. The division is marked by a pause (†) :

He has sent de-liv-er-ance to his peo-ple † and established his . . .

The pause indicates a slight prolonging of the preceding syllable, but no change in pitch.

3. CADENCES. — The mediant and final cadences consist of one accent. There may be one or two preparatory notes before the accent :



. . . cov-e-nant for év- er. * Ho- ly his name to be féared.

Some cadences have one accent, but no preparatory notes :

. . . cov-e-nant for év- er. * Ho- ly his name . . .

4. SPECIAL CADENCES. — Mode I D and the Tonus Peregrinus have a special final cadence. The melody may be accomodated to the text in one of three ways :

. . . ev- er ín mind. . . . the lands of the ná-tions. . . . in your midst, O Je- rú- sa-lem.

Pointing the Psalms for Chanting

In order to prepare a text for chanting, the following may prove helpful:

1. SPEAK THE TEXT. — Begin by speaking the text in an expressive manner in order to become sensitive to its inherent stress patterns.

2. DETERMINE THE FINAL ACCENT. — Determine the final accent of the mediant and final cadences, and then count back one and two preparatory syllables, as the tone may require. When a particular text is open to interpretation as to which syllable carries the final accent, follow the direction of the choirmaster.

3. BE SENSITIVE TO THE TEXT. — Avoid stressing unimportant syllables, definite and indefinite articles and, in so far as possible, prepositions.

Practical Helps for Chanting

1. ANTIPHONAL CHARACTER OF PSALMODY. — Psalmody is essentially antiphonal in character. Two choirs, or a cantor and choir (or congregation), alternate in chanting the Psalms.

2. EVEN, RHYTHMIC, FORWARD MOVEMENT. — Each half verse should, as a rule, be sung on one breath. Only in the case of very long verses may the recitative be interrupted momentarily for breath. This is indicated by a pause (†). Singers should strive for an even, forward movement.

3. ENUNCIATION EVEN AND WELL BOUND TOGETHER. — The musical enunciation of the various syllables should be even and well bound together—legato. Choppy pronunciation of the words ruins the beauty of psalmody. A rule of thumb : Never lengthen a syllable when you merely wish to strengthen it (accent) ; and never shorten one when you merely wish to reduce its tone (volume).

4. NATURAL CRESCENDO AND RITARDANDO. — Let a natural crescendo of intensity rather than of speed mark the recitative up to the final accent. The note or notes following the last accented note in all cadences should be sung softly and with a very slight ritardando.

5. COMFORTABLE PITCH. — The pitch of the reciting tone(s) of the psalmody should be adapted to the vocal requirements of the singers. As a general rule, it should not be so high as to cause strain or discomfort, or so low as to make the singing heavy and lacking in brightness.

6. SING WITH ANIMATION. — The psalms should be sung with animation. Dragging should not be permitted.

7. PAUSES AT THE CADENCES. — The pauses at the cadences greatly beautify psalm singing. The middle pause at the end of each half verse indicated by the asterisk (*) must be well defined and long enough for a deep breath.

The exact observance of this pause adds immeasurably to the beauty, dignity, and spirituality of psalmody. A silence of four beats, during which the singers count 1-2-3-4, each beat as long in duration as a syllable of the text of the recitative portion of the psalmody just completed, is adequate. The pause after the final cadence of each beat is two beats in duration (1-2), only half as long as the pause after the mediant cadence.

As the singers become accustomed to the alternation of chanting, breathing, chanting, rest, consciousness of counting beats falls away. A restful, natural rhythm results. Body, mind and soul begin to be in harmony. Prayer deepens.

INVITATORY

Psalm 94

The Invitatory Refrain is intoned, and then repeated ; it is sung after each strophe of the Psalm.

MODE I

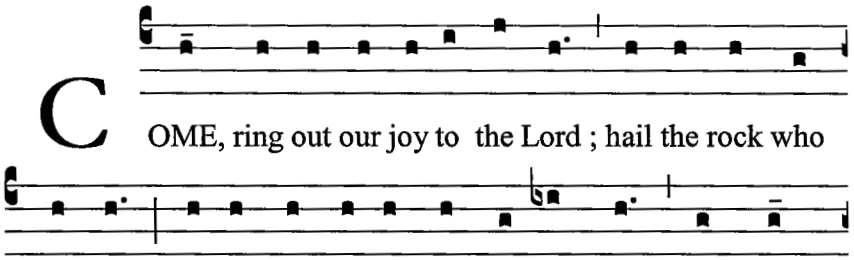

COME, ring out our joy to the Lord ; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come before him, giv-ing thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord.

Almighty God is the Lord, a great king a-bove all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth ; the heights of the mountains are his. To him belongs the sea, for he made it and the dry land shaped by his hands.

COME in ; let us bow and bend low ; let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the peo-ple who belong to his pas-ture, the flock that is led by his hand.
O that to-day you would lis-ten to his voice ! ‘ Harden not your hearts as at Mer-i- bah, as on that day at Massah in

Psalm 99

MODE I

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Serve the Lord with gladness.
Come before him, singing for joy.
Know that he, the Lord, is God.
He made us, we belong to him,
we are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Go within his gates, giving thanks.
Enter his courts with songs of praise.
Give thanks to him and bless his name.
Indeed, how good is the Lord,
eternal his merciful love.
He is faithful from age to age.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

GOSPEL CANTICLES

AT LAUDS

BENEDICTUS

Canticle of Zachary

Lk 1: 68-79

BLessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel, * because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people,

and has raised up a horn of salvation for us, * in the house of David his servant,

as he promised through the mouth of his holy ones, * the prophets from of old:

salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all who hate us;

To show mercy to our fathers, * and to be mindful of his holy covenant,

of the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant us,

that, delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we should serve him without fear,

in holiness and justice before him, * all the days of our life.

And you, O child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; * for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give his people knowledge of salvation * through the forgiveness of their sins,

because of the tender mercy of our God, * with which the Orient from on high has visited us,

to enlighten those who sit in darkness † and in the shadow of death, * to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

AT VESPERS

MAGNIFICAT

Canticle of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Lk 1:46-55

MY soul magnifies the Lord, * and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

Because he has regarded the lowliness of his handmaid, * for behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessèd.

Because he who is mighty has done great things for me, * and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is from generation to generation * toward those who fear him.

He has revealed his arm in power, * he has scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.

He has put down the mighty from their thrones * and has exalted the lowly.

The hungry he has filled with good things * and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has given help to Israel, his servant, * mindful of his mercy,

Just as he promised our fathers, * to Abraham and his descendants for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, † is now, and ever shall be, * world without end. Amen.

no- ble com-pa- ny of Pro-phets prais-es you. The whiterobed ar- my of Mar-tyrs prais-es you. Your ho- ly Church throughout the world ac-claims you : the Fa-ther of in- fi-nite maj-es- ty ; your true and on- ly Son, wor-thy of all wor-ship, and the Ho- ly Spir-it, the Com-for-ter. You, O Christ, are the King of glo-ry. You are the ev- er-last-ing Son of the Fa-ther. When you took hu-man na-ture to de-liv- er man, you did not dis-dain the Vir-gin's womb. When you had o-ver-come the sting of death, you opened to be-liev-ers the kingdom of heav-en. You sit at God's right hand, in the glo- ry of the Fa-ther. We be-lieve that you will come to be our

EXCERPTS FROM THE MONASTIC RITUAL

Blessing of servers and reader at table

1. Outgoing servers

On Sunday morning the outgoing servers say, repeated three times by servers and choir :

BLessèd are you, Lord God, * for you have helped and comforted me.

Then the Superior or Priest Hebdomadarian says :

℣. Save your servants.

℟. O my God, who put their trust in you.

℣. Turn unto them, O Lord, for ever.

℟. And be gracious unto your servants.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with your spirit.

Let us pray. Prayer.

OGod, who hear always the prayers of the humble ; look favorably upon the service of these our brothers, and grant them your grace ; * that they who have devoutly fulfilled the duties of the week that is past, may obtain full and abundant pardon. Through Christ our Lord.

℟. Amen.

2. Incoming servers

The incoming servers then say, repeated three times by servers and choir :

OGod, come to my assistance. * O Lord, make haste to help me.

Then the Superior or Priest Hebdomadarian says :

℣. Save your servants.

℟. O my God, who put their trust in you.

℣. Send them help, O Lord, from the Sanctuary.

℟. And strengthen them out of Sion.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with your spirit.

Let us pray. Prayer.

Omerciful and loving God, who everywhere watch over and help your servants ; prosper the prayer of these our brothers, and increase their desire, * that with upright hearts they may minister to their brothers. Through Christ our Lord.

℟. Amen.

3. For the in-coming reader at table

The incoming reader says, repeated three times by reader and choir :

O Lord, ✠ open my lips : * and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Then the Superior or Priest Hebdomadarian says :

℣. Save your servant.

℟. O my God, who puts his trust in you.

℣. Turn unto him, O Lord, for ever.

℟. And be gracious unto your servant.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with your spirit.

Let us pray. Prayer.

TAKE, we beseech you, O Lord, from this your servant the spirit of pride and ignorance : * that filled with the spirit of humility and knowledge, he may read with understanding the sacred words. Through Christ our Lord.

℟. Amen.

Prayers for those setting out on a journey

Before departing from the monastery, the Superior or Priest Hebdomadarian says :

℣. Save your servants.

℟. O my God, who put their trust in you.

℣. Make known to them your ways, O Lord.

℟. And teach them your paths.

℣. O Lord, hear my prayer.

℟. And let my cry come unto you.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with your spirit.

Let us pray. Prayer.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of your servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation : * that, among all the changes of this mortal life, we may ever be defended by your most gracious and ready help. Through Christ our Lord.

℟. Amen.

The Angelic Salutation

AVE, María, grátia plena ; Dóminus tecum : benedícta tu in muliéribus, et benedíctus fructus ventris tui, Iesus. Sancta María, Mater Dei, ora pro nobis peccatóribus, nunc et in hora mortis nostræ. Amen.

HAIL Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee ; blessèd art thou among women, and blessèd is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Regina Cæli

REgína cæli, lætáre, alleluia ; Quia quem meruísti portáre, allelúia ;

Resurréxit sicut dixit, allelúia.

Ora pro nobis Deum, allelúia.

℣. Gaude et lætáre, Virgo María, allelúia.

℟. Quia surréxit Dóminus vere, allelúia.

Oremus. — Deus, qui per resurrectiónem Fílii tui Dómini nostri Iesu Christi mundum lætificáre dignátus es : præsta, quæsumus ; ut per eius Genitrícem Vírginem Maríam, perpétuae capiámus gáudia vitæ. Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum.
℟. Amen.

O Queen of heaven, rejoice, alleluia.

For he, whom thou didst merit to bear, alleluia.

Has risen, as he said, alleluia.

Pray for us to God, alleluia.

℣. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

℟. For the Lord is truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray. — O God, who gavest joy to the world through the Resurrection of thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ : grant that we may obtain, through his Virgin Mother, the joys of everlasting ing life. Through the same Christ our Lord. ℟. Amen.

The Angelus

ANGELUS Dómini nuntiávit Maríæ.

℟. Et concépit de Spíritu Sancto.

Ave Maria.

℣. Ecce ancílla Dómini.

℟. Fiat mihi secúndum verbum tuum.

Ave Maria.

℣. Et Verbum caro factum est.

℟. Et habitávit in nobis.

Ave Maria.

℣. Ora pro nobis sancta Dei Génitrix.

℟. Ut digni efficiámur promissiónibus Christi.

Oremus. — Grátiam tuam, quæsumus, Dómine, méntibus nostris infúnde : ut qui, Ángelo nuntiánte, Christi Fílii tui Incarnatiónem cognóvimus, per passiónem eius et crucem, ad resurrectiónis glóriam perducámur. Per eúmdem Christum Dóminum nostrum. ℟. Amen.

THE angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

℟. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary.

℣. Behold the handmaiden of the Lord.

℟. Be it done unto me according to thy word.

Hail Mary.

℣. And the Word was made flesh.

℟. And dwelt amongst us.

Hail Mary.

℣. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

℟. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. — Pour forth, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ thy Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may, by his Passion and Cross, be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. ℟. Amen.

Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament

O Salutaris Hostia

O salutáris hóstia,
Quæ cæli pandis óstium,
Bella Prémunt hostília ;
Da robur, fer auxílium.

Uni trinóque Dómino
Sit sempitérna glória :
Qui vitam sine término
Nobis donet in pátria. Amen.

O Saving Victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below :
Our foes press on from every side ;
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three ;
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee.
Amen.

Therefore we, before him bending,
This great Sacrament revere ;
Types and shadows have their ending,
For the newer Rite is here ;
Faith, our outward sense, befriending,
Makes the inward vision clear.

Glory, let us give, and blessing,
To the Father and the Son ;
Honor, might, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run ;
Ever too his Love confessing,
Who from Both, with Both, is One.
Amen.

℣. Panem de cælo præstitísti eis (T. P. alleluia).
℟. Omne delectaméntum in se habéntem (T. P. alleluia).

℣. You have given them Bread from heaven (P. T. alleluia).
℟. Containing all sweetness within it (P. T. alleluia).

Oratio Oremus.

DEUS, qui nobis sub Sacraménto mirábili, passiónis tuæ memóriam reliquísti : * tribue, quæsumus, ita nos Córporis et Sánguinis tui sacra mystéria venerári ; ut redemptiónis tuæ fructum in nobis iugiter sentiámus : Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculórum. ℟. Amen.

Prayer Let us pray.

O God, who under a wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion : * grant us, we beseech you, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may ever feel within us the fruit of your Redemption. Who live and reign for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

Holy God, we praise thy Name ;
Lord of all, we bow before thee ;
All on earth thy sceptre 'claim ;
All in heav'n above adore thee.
Infinite thy vast domain ;
Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark ! The loud celestial hymn
Angel choirs above are raising ;
Cherubim and seraphim,
In unceasing chorus praising,
Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord :
Holy, holy, holy Lord.

PRAYER BEFORE THE DIVINE OFFICE

APERI, Dómine, os meum ad benedicéndum nomen sanctum tuum : munda quoque cor meum ab ómnibus vanis, pervérsis et aliénis cogitatiónibus ; intelléctum illúmina, afféctum inflámma, ut digne, atténte ac devóte hoc Officium recitáre váleam, et exaudíri mérear ante conspéctum divínæ Maiestátis tuæ. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. ℟. Amen.

Dómine, in unióne illíus divínæ intentiónis, qua ipse in terris laudes Deo persolvísti, has tibi Horas (vel hanc tibi Horam) persólvo.

OPEN my lips, O Lord, to praise your holy Name ; cleanse my heart of any vain, evil, or distracting thoughts ; give light to my mind and fervor to my will ; enable me to recite this Office worthily, attentively and devoutly so that my prayers will be heard in the presence of your divine Majesty. Through Christ our Lord. ℟. Amen.

O Lord, in union with that divine intention with which you yourself, while on earth, praised God, I offer to you these Hours (or this Hour).

PRAYER AFTER THE DIVINE OFFICE

SAcrosánctæ et indivíduæ Trinitáti, crucifixi Dómini nostri Iesu Christi humanitáti, beatíssimæ et gloriosíssimæ sempérque Vírginis Maríæ fœcúndæ intégritati, et ómnium Sanctórum universitáti sit sempitérna laus, honor, virtus et glória ab omni creatúra, nobísque remíssio ómnium peccatórum, per infiníta sæcula sæculórum. ℟. Amen.

℣. Beáta víscera Maríæ Virginis, quae portavérunt ætérni Patris Filium. ℟. Et beáta ubera, quae lactavérunt Christum Dominum.

TO the most holy and undivided Trinity, to the humanity of our Lord Jesus Christ crucified, to the fruitful virginity of the most blessed and glorious Mary ever Virgin, and to the company of all the Saints, may eternal praise, honor, power and glory be given by every creature, and to us the remission of all our sins, forever and ever. ℟. Amen.

℣. Blessed is the womb of the Virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father. ℟. And blessed the breasts which gave sustenance to Christ our Lord.

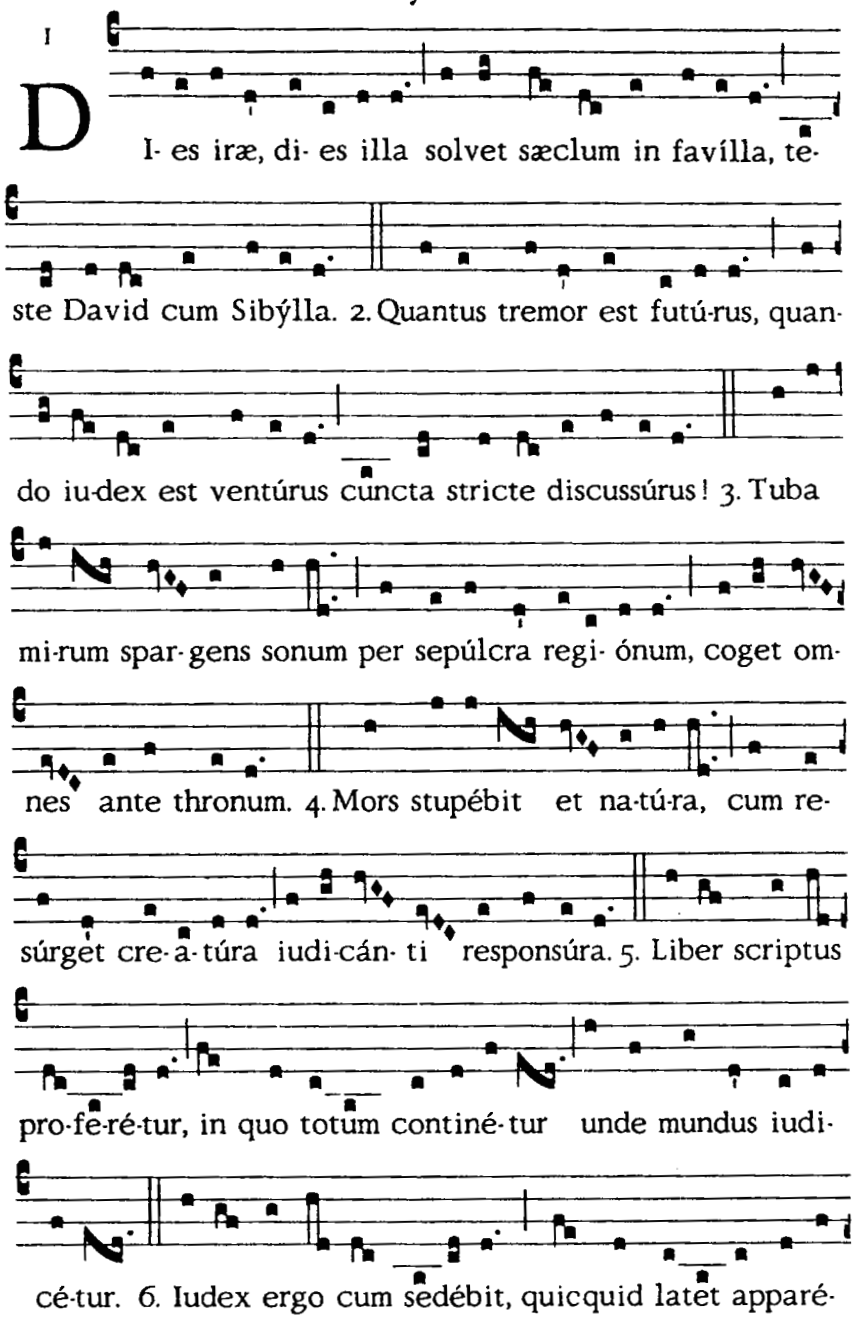
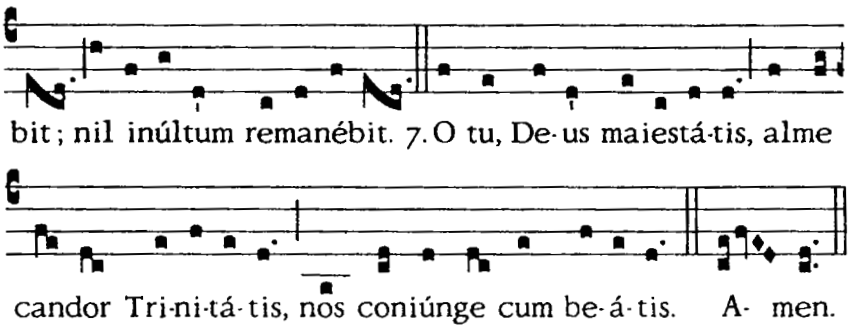
AT MATINS

Hymn





Dies iræ, dies illa.

I

DAY of wrath and doom impending,
David's word with Sibyl's blending,
Heaven and earth in ashes ending.

O what fear man's bosom rendeth,
When from heaven the Judge descendeth,
On whose sentence all dependeth,

Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth,
Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth,
All before the throne it bringeth.

Death is struck, and nature quaking,
All creation is awaking,
To its Judge an answer making.

Lo, the book exactly worded,
Wherein all hath been recorded,
Thence shall judgment be awarded.

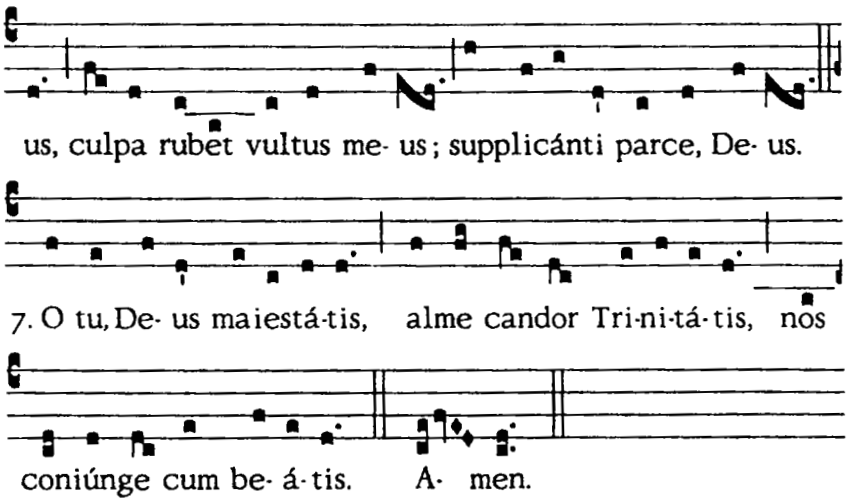
When the Judge his seat attaineth,
And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nothing unavenged remaineth.

* * *

O thou, God of majesty,
Loving brightness of the Trinity,
Join us with the Blest for all eternity. Amen.

AT LAUDS

Hymn



Dies iræ, dies illa.

II

WHAT shall I, frail, man, be pleading ?
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing ?

King of majesty tremendous,
Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity, then befriend us.

Think, kind Jesus, my salvation
Caused thy wondrous Incarnation,
Leave me not to reprobation.

Faint and weary thou hast sought me,
On the Cross of suffering bought me,
Shall such grace be vainly brought me ?

Righteous Judge, for sin's pollution,
Grant thy gift of absolution,
Ere that day of retribution.

Guilty now, I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning,
Spare, O God, thy suppliant groaning.

* * *

O thou, God of majesty,
Loving brightness of the Trinity,
Join us with the Blest for all eternity. Amen.

AT VESPERS

Hymn

Dies iræ, dies illa.

III

THrough the sinful woman shriven,
Through the dying thief forgiven,
Thou to me a hope hast given.

Worthless are my prayers and sighing,
Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
Rescue me from fires undying.

With thy sheep a place provide me,
From the goats afar divide me,
To thy right hand do thou guide me.

When the wicked are confounded,
Doomed to flames of woe unbounded,
Call me with thy saints surrounded.

Low I kneel with heart's submission,
See, like ashes, my contrition,
Help me in my last condition.

Ah ! That day of tears and mourning,
From the dust of earth returning,

Man for judgment must prepare him,
Spare, O God, in mercy spare him. Amen.
